[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Columbus, O., April 6.—Republicans gained more than they lost in the Ohio city elections today, the first under the new municipal code provided by the last legislature. Today municipal tickets complete from top to bottom were voted on in every one of the 71 cities, the 615 incorporated villages and the innumerable hamlets in Ohio. Throughout the state a clean sweep was made of local officers, and with the installation of the uniform municipal code begins a new municipal regime.

While the Republicans made material gains, they did not secure many changes in the administration of the cities. The most notable exception was at Columbus, where Mayor Hinkle, Democrat, is succeeded by Jeffrey, Republican. The mayors of all the leading cities except Columbus, were re-elected. The Republicans retained control of Cincinnati, and the Democrats of Cleveland, and Samuel M. Jones was elected as an Independent for the fourth time as mayor of Toledo. The Democrats re-elected their tickets at Dayton, Sandusky, Chillicothe, Hamilton and other cities normally Democratic, and the Republicans at Steubenville, Youngstown, Warren, Ironton, Portsmouth and other towns that they have heretofore controlled. The Fusion tickets, as a rule, were defeated in a dozen or more cities where they were in the field. There is much diversity of opinion as to the effect of these municipal elections upon the next Republican nomination for governor, but it is conceded that Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland will now become a formidable candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor a few months hence. The Ingalls organization will be continued, with a view of making him the Democratic opponent of Hanna for the senatorship.

Cincinnati, April 6.—Another sweeping victory was won by the Republican organization here dominated by George B. Cox, today, the entire ticket being elected by pluralities ranging from 14,000 to 17,000. This result was due almost as much to the weakness of M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four, the fusion candidate, as to the strength of the Cox machine, as Ingalls' record as an employer cost him the labor vote, much of which went to the Socialist ticket, which polled between 6,000 and 7,000.

M. E. Ingalls declined to make a formal statement, but his colleagues on the fusion ticket stated that the result was due to the superior organization of the Republicans in a city nominally a Republican stronghold, fraudulent registration, repeating and corrupting.

Mayor Julius Fleischmann said:

"The election of the entire Republican ticket is a victory for the people of Cincinnati. This triumph means that the next governor will be a Republican, that Marcus A. Hanna will be returned to the senate and that Theodore Roosevelt will be the next president of the United States."

COLUMBUS.

COLUMBUS, O., April 6.—(Special.)—Returns from 95 of the 96 precincts of this city give R. H. Jeffrey, the Republican candidate for mayor, 15,456 votes, to 12,560 for John N. Hinkle, candidate for re-election. The one precinct out is overwhelmingly Republican, and Jeffrey's majority will probably exceed 3,000, the largest by 1,500 ever given a candidate for mayor in this city.

MARIETTA.

MARIETTA, O., April 6.—The fusion of Democrats, Union Labor and Independent Republicans carried this city and defeated the entire Republican ticket, except the president of the council. Hyde, the fusion candidate for mayor, carried the city by 238. The Republicans carried the school board. For the board of public service Terry, Democrat, Reilly and Metcalf, Independent Republicans, were elected.

CANAL DOVER.

CANAL DOVER, O., April 6.—(Special.)—Returns from three wards out of four give Cletus Weaver, Republican, 200 majority. Dr. F. H. Waldron, Democratic candidate for president of council, is about 150 in the lead. The balance of the Republican ticket was elected with the exception of city solicitor and city auditor, which are so close that only an official count will decide the contest.

SALEM.

SALEM, O., April 6.—(Special.)—Salem elected A. L. Carlisle, Democrat, mayor by a majority of 125 over James Atchison, Republican. Republicans elected the solicitor, auditor, treasurer and three members of public service board, also probably six members of council out of seven.

AKRON.

AKRON, O., April 6.—The Democrats claim the election of Kempel, for mayor, by 200. Twenty-four out of 34 precincts show Kempel 2,467 and Doyle (Rep.) 2,344. The Democrats elect William Durand auditor, and the rest of the Republican ticket is elected by good majorities.

STEUBENVILLE.

STEUBENVILLE, O., April 6.—The Republican ticket, headed by Robert I. Scott for mayor, was elected in Steubenville. In Mingo Junction, F. S. Buchanan, Republican, was elected mayor.

YOUNGSTOWN.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 6.—With the exception of the mayor the Republicans elected the entire city and township ticket today. William T. Gibson, Dem., for mayor, won by 200 plurality. The balance of the Republican ticket was elected by majorities ranging from 500 to 800.

ZANESVILLE.

ZANESVILLE, O., April 6.—The Republicans have elected Deacon, mayor, and every candidate on the ticket excepting two councilmen and two assessors.

Cleveland, April 6.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson has been re-elected by a plurality much larger than he received two years ago, and has carried the entire ticket with him.

Republicans are amazed by the result, because they had regarded the defeat of Johnson as absolutely certain. Up to the time the polls closed this confidence was maintained. The result is attributed to Johnson's stand upon the question of 3-cent fares. He has made that the sole issue of the campaign. In addition, he had the solid support of the liquor interests, because of his promise to enforce the laws against Sunday selling in a reasonable way.

Mayor Johnson claims the election of the entire Democratic ticket by from 7,000 to 10,000 and three-quarters of the city council.

WARREN.

WARREN, O., April 6.—(Special.)—M. J. Sloan, Republican, is elected mayor of Warren by about 200 plurality over W. B. Kilpatrick, Democrat, and J. C. Bailey, Socialist. All other Republican candidates were elected. The vote on the local option in the Warren township outside of the city is 169 dry, 121 wet.

WOOSTER.

WOOSTER, O., April 6.—Democrats elected Marcus Vannest mayor by a majority of 73 votes. L. R. Critchfield, Democrat, was elected president of council. On the rest of the ticket the Democrats elected James Minier, auditor; C. M. Tawney, treasurer; W. F. Derr and Florian Schaffer, board of public service. Three councilmen-at-large, three out of four ward councilmen, will give the Democrats six of the seven councilmen. The following Republicans were elected: Forbs Allcock, board of public service; Harvey Hubbel, city solicitor; Harry H. Miller, township trustee; G. W. Ryall, board of education.

ALLIANCE.

ALLIANCE, O., April 6.—(Special.)—Alliance for the third time elected Otis U. Walker, Republican, mayor by a majority of about 600, and John Lloyd, Republican, vice mayor, by 200 majority. The Republicans elected the entire ticket excepting one ward assessor.

EAST LIVERPOOL.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., April 6.—(Special.)—Incomplete returns indicate the election of W. A. Weaver, Prohibitionist, for mayor. The Republican ticket, with the exception of the head, was elected.

WELLSVILLE.

WELLSVILLE, O., April 6.—(Special.)—At the election here today the whole Republican ticket was elected. A. C. Fogo was elected mayor by a majority of 264 over Robert Galvin, Democrat.

MANSFIELD.

MANSFIELD, O., April 6.—Huntington Brown, Republican, was elected mayor by a majority of less than 100. The rest of the ticket is split.

NILES.

NILES, O., April 6.—(Special.)—The Republicans elected all their candidates, W. F. Thomas, for mayor, leading F. E. Bryan, Democrat, by a reduced majority.

CANTON.

CANTON, O., April 6.—The Republicans elected W. H. Smith mayor today and probably carried a majority of the other offices.

COSHOCTON.

COSHOCTON, O., April 6.—E. C. Rinner, Democrat, was elected mayor by 40 plurality. The rest of the Democratic ticket was elected.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, O., April 6.—Charles E. Miller (Rep.) was elected mayor and the entire Republican ticket except one member of the board of affairs was elected.

PORTSMOUTH.

PORTSMOUTH, O., April 6.—The indications are that Capt. Creed Millstead, Republican, has been re-elected mayor by a reduced majority.

A Meeting for the Organization of the Strap Hangers and Bumper Riders Is Suggested.

SECRETARY OF STATE SELECTS D. T. WATSON FOR IMPORTANT TASK

Pittsburgher to Present Case of Uncle Sam in Alaska Boundary Dispute.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Room 16, Postal Building,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 6.

David T. Watson of Pittsburgh has been appointed by Secretary of State Hay one of the three attorneys to represent the United States before the Alaskan boundary commission. The other two lawyers chosen are John M. Dickinson, who was assistant attorney general under President Harrison's administration and is now general counsel for the Illinois Central railroad, and Hannis Taylor, former United States minister to Spain and author of "International Law" and other legal works. The appointment is a signal recognition of the ability of the Pittsburgh attorney, as the interests involved in the settlement of the boundary line between American and English territory are very important.

Secretary of War Root, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and ex-Senator Turner of Washington will represent the United States on the commission which will meet in London probably in September. The Hon. John W. Foster is now engaged in preparing for the state department the case that will be presented before the commission by Mr. Watson and his colleagues.

Mr. Watson was in Washington today and was in conference with Secretary Hay, and also with Attorney General Knox. Although his appointment in the Alaskan boundary case was made by Secretary Hay, it was, no doubt, made through the influence of the attorney general, who holds a very high opinion of Mr. Watson's ability as a lawyer. This was shown by his selection of Mr. Watson to represent the department of justice in the case against the Northern Securities Company before the United States court at St. Louis recently. Mr. Watson's fame, however, is not confined to his city or his state, but he is widely known as a lawyer of remarkable ability.

When seen at the Shoreham by The Gazette correspondent, Mr. Watson said: "I do not know when we shall go to London, as that will be arranged by the state department. The commission will meet sometime this fall, I understand. I am returning to Pittsburgh tonight."

DALZELLS START WEST.

Pittsburgh Congressman and Party Lavishly Entertained at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 6.—(Special.)—After a delightful 10 days stay Congressmen Dalzell of Pittsburgh and Sereno E. Payne of New York left tonight for Denver, accompanied by their wives. They have seen the great sugar belt, they went through some of the largest sugar plantations and the mills, they inspected rice culture and paid special note to the new $6,000,000 rice company recently formed by Pennsylvania capital to develop an irrigating canal 50 miles long.

Congressman Meyer took his two eastern colleagues for a journey on the Mississippi river, going down almost to the Eads jetties. Besides all these practical features the two congressmen were given a hearty taste of southern society and were entertained in all sorts of fashions from a public reception tendered in the palm garden of the St. Charles hotel to breakfast at the famous Begues restaurant in the old French quarter.

Mr. Dalzell expressed the sentiment of the party when he said to a reporter at the depot gate: "New Orleans is a revelation to a stranger, who finds here one of the world's greatest harbors and the most hospitable people on earth."

WIFE DRANK POISON TO ATONE FOR SIN

CHICAGO, April 6.—(Special.)—After her husband had found her allowing another man to woo her in her own home, Mrs. Bridget Maurer drank carbolic acid and died in the room where her faithlessness had been discovered. Oscar Blomgren, the wooer, was locked up pending an inquiry by a coroner's jury. The prisoner's face bears evidence of the beating administered by the irate husband.

ANIMOSITY AGAINST PITTSBURGH

Annexation and Tech. Site Measures Lose Vote in House.

PASSAGE IS DELAYED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
HARRISBURG, April 6.

The house tonight gave the Greater Pittsburgh bill an ugly uppercut, and while 10 was not counted, another such jolt will put it out and over the ropes. And that seems to be the desire of certain people who claim to be responsible for its fate.

Some brilliant genius, who is better qualified to chauffeur a sprinkling cart than to direct legislation, conceived the idea of securing a special order, and selected Mr. Hoy, Democrat, of Clarion, to introduce the necessary resolution. Mr. Hoy was in Pittsburgh Friday and it is possible that he made it plain to the opponents of the bill that nothing would kill it so quickly as his open championship. If Mr. Hoy did not communicate this information to Recorder Wyman he missed a golden opportunity, something never charged against him before.

There was a loud protest tonight when Hoy presented the resolution. Republicans would not stand for it and Democrats do not follow the gentleman from Clarion. He is a party unto himself. Friends of the bill were filled with consternation. They were amazed that members from Allegheny had not themselves asked for the order, although such a request was hardly necessary, as the bill was second on the first reading calendar. But Hoy had spoken and the damage was done.

Mr. Scott of Allegheny spoke against the resolution, urging delay because of the absence of members who do not want it to pass.

Then Mr. Yellis, one of those who picked Hoy to represent Pittsburgh, got the floor. After being three times declared out of order by the speaker he managed to make it plain that he was opposed to any further amendments to the bill.

The roll was called and Hoy's resolution was defeated by a vote of 81 to 25. Allegheny members voting in the affirmative were Cook, Francies, Weaver, Willett and Yellis. The nays were Kirker, Moore, Scott and McWhinney. Mr. Kirker wants it understood that he is for the bill, but he was not consulted as to the special order, and had he been he would have opposed the selection of Mr. Hoy as its sponsor.

In its order the bill was given a first reading, should be read a second time tomorrow and passed finally Wednesday. But this may not happen. Mr. Stewart of Allegheny has another amendment which he will ask to have inserted. It provides that the councils of the cities to be annexed must originate the move, have secured petitions containing 20 per cent of the qualified voters. This would leave the matter to the initiative of Allegheny councils, instead of to the people.

Senator Goehring says he will not accept this or any other amendment.

The technical school site, which was included in Hoy's resolution, was also read a first time. It ought to pass and will if new "orders" are not issued.

THREE CHICAGO LADS ENGAGE IN KIDNAPING

CHICAGO, April 6.—(Special.)—Three boys, none of whom appeared 10 years old, today kidnaped the 4-year-old son of Albert H. Geller from his home, No. 463 West Van Buren street. The child's father followed the kidnapers till he found them and recovered his child, but when he tried to catch the boy's captors they ran away. Mr. Geller thinks the kidnaping was done to obtain ransom money.

CARNEGIE OFFERS AID TO CORNELL STUDENTS CAUGHT BY EPIDEMIC

Would Pay Expenses of Those Who Lost Time Because of Typhoid.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Ithaca, N. Y., April 6.—President Schurman of Cornell university today announced that he had received from Andrew Carnegie, who is a trustee of the university, a communication in which Mr. Carnegie begged to be allowed to pay all bills incurred by students of Cornell university on account of the sickness during the recent epidemic at Ithaca in all cases where the students or their parents will permit it.

It is Mr. Carnegie's desire to place each student who has been ill in precisely the same pecuniary position as that he occupied at the outbreak of the epidemic. The gift is applicable to all sick students, those who withdrew from the university as well as those who remained at Ithaca.

The executive committee at a special meeting held today to consider the matter referred the execution of Mr. Carnegie's plan to the infirmary committee with power to act. President Schurman will communicate at once with all students concerned.

OLD-TIME POLITICIANS RIPPED OUT OF OFFICE

New Recorder of Scranton Installs Young Element in City Jobs.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SCRANTON, April 6.—Alexander T. Connell, the first recorder elected under the new city charter, was sworn in today to succeed his cousin, W. L. Connell, who was appointed recorder under the "ripper" act. The new recorder went into what was thought to be a hopeless fight against the instructions of his uncle and political patron, ex-Congressman William Connell, and all the old party leaders.

His election was accomplished by a hard systematic fight prosecuted by the younger element of the party. The younger element made demand for the spoils and got it. Directors Roche and Wormser, City Solicitor Watson, City Engineer Phillips, City Assessor Morris, Deputy City Treasurer P. J. Ruane, Superintendent of the Bureau of Highways and Sewers Thomas, Superintendent of the Bureau of Health Allen, and a lot of minor officials, all Republicans or Democratic henchmen of ex-Congressman Connell, were swept out of office and supporters of the new recorder's campaign organization put in their places. Old-time Republican leaders are standing aghast at the ruthless ripping of the young recorder and prophesying that the party was irretrievably wrecked.

Select and common council maintained their Republican organizations. Joseph Oliver and E. E. Robathan were continued respectively as chairman of select and common councils without opposition.

ESCAPES THE GALLOWS.

Man Who Set Off 25 Pounds of Dynamite Under Enemy's Home Sentenced for Life.

CHICAGO, April 6.—(Special.)—Kahel Kowalski was convicted of murder today and sentenced to life imprisonment. "I'm glad I don't have to hang," he said.

Kowalski boarded with Joseph Kordeck at Washington Heights. He left $35 under his pillow one day when he went to work. When he returned in the evening the money was gone. He bought 25 pounds of dynamite, placed it under the Kordeck house and set it off. The house was blown to atoms. Kordeck and his two-year-old daughter Lucy were killed.

COL. QUAY WILL VISIT GOV. PENNYPACKER

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(Special.)—Senator Quay changed his mind today at the last moment and decided not to leave Washington until tomorrow. It is his intention to stop at Harrisburg for a short visit with Gov. Pennypacker.

EMBEZZLEMENT LATEST CHARGE

Arthur R. Pennell Alleged to Be $200,000 Short With Clients.

REVEALED BY WILL

Life Insurance Left in Trust to Brother to Settle His Debts.

LONG THOUGHT OF SUICIDE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Buffalo, N. Y., April 6.—The Commercial this afternoon publishes a story in which it is alleged that Arthur R. Pennell, who was killed in an automobile accident on March 10, was a defaulter to the extent of from $150,000 to $200,000. The story, the Commercial says, leaked out as the result of a legal dispute over two life insurance policies, and is to the effect that Pennell induced friends in the east who had known his family and the family of his wife to place money in his hands for investment. He acted, in fact, as their financial agent. He would inform some of some good investment which he had come across which would pay an excellent rate of interest and they would send him money. The money which was sent to him for investment, it is alleged, he spent, and when interest payments fell due he made the payments out of his own pocket.

Wallace Thayer, who was Pennell's most intimate friend, is referred to by the paper as saying he had suspected irregularities, but that he had no proof of any such wrong-doing.

PROVISION FOR MRS. BURDICK.

Incidentally, it has been learned that Pennell made provision for the payment to Mrs. Edwin L. Burdick of $25,000 out of his life insurance.

Pennell carried over $200,000 life insurance in order, the Commercial says, that after his death the eastern estates, to which he is alleged to have been a defaulter, might be able to recoup the losses which they had sustained through him. In his will Pennell named as administrator of his estate his brother, J. Frederick Pennell. He left to his administrator sealed instructions that upon his death he should make good in full out of

CLERK FIGHT IS NOT SETTLED

Republicans in Select Council in a Position to Cause Trouble.

MAY BE COMPROMISE

Recorder Has Found It Necessary to Hold Up Appointments for the Present.

MARTIN RETURNS TO CITY

Either harmony or trouble will be the outcome of the contest for city clerk. The Republicans are in a position to force the Citizens to compromise, or to tie up the election of E. W. Hassler and H. B. Davis. Unless there is a deal each branch will have to elect a clerk and then go into court to secure a final settlement.

City Clerk E. J. Martin, who seeks a re-election, yesterday succeeded in preventing a meeting of select council, thus making it impossible for councils to meet in joint session to swear in the recorder and elect city clerks. Had he not done this the Citizens would have been able to elect their men, Hassler and Davis, and Martin and Gearing would have been out of office. If the 19 Republican members of select council stand by Martin, he can continue to tie up the election. It is not a case where the affairs of the city will suffer in the least. So long as new clerks are not chosen, the old men continue in office and no one has any fault to find with their efficiency. In fact, even a number of the Citizens think it would be wise to retain the present clerks, but feel that they are in duty bound to go along with the majority of their party.

NO CEREMONY ABOUT IT.

Recorder William B. Hays did not have an opportunity to take the oath of office in joint session of councils. He was well satisfied to cut out the display and have the oath administered to him in his private office by L. S. Levin, a notary. The recorder does not like display, and this quiet induction into office also removed the necessity of delivering an inaugural address. Inaugural addresses, like party pledges are oftimes hindrances.

At no time did Hays want a public installation, but he agreed to it to help the

CITIZENS USE CLUB ON THE DETECTIVES FOR VOTES ON CLERK

Detectives Threatened With Dismissal Unless They Line Up Their Republican Councilmen. Moore and McTighe Remove More Men.

Richard Kelly is to be removed from the detective force unless his councilmen, John Benz and Joseph G. Armstrong, get into line for the Citizens candidates for city clerks. Kelly lives in the Twenty-ninth ward and the two councilmen from there are Republicans.

This same method of securing votes is being attempted in the case of George Cole of the Twelfth ward, where Thomas E. Perry is the Republican member of select, and in the case of John Roach in the Twenty-ninth ward. George Waggoner of the Thirty-second was removed from the detective force Saturday night because Jacob Soffel, common councilman from the ward, refused to agree to support Hassler and Davis for city clerks. All of the councilmen named have refused to be coerced into voting for the Citizens slate.

E. A. Miller, superintendent of machinery, to succeed John J. Freyvogle, retired on half pay.

FREYVOGLE GETS A PENSION.

In the police bureau G. J. Flucker, formerly a wagon man at No. 1 police station, was promoted to be sergeant at No. 2 station. John J. Freyvogle, superintendent of machinery in the fire bureau, had applied on March 15 for retirement on half pay, and yesterday the chief engineer of the bureau, Miles S. Humphreys, sanctioned the application. Freyvogle became a member of the old volunteer Duquesne fire company in 1856. In 1861, when 18 years old, he enlisted and served in the Rebellion in the Ninth Pennsylvania volunteers. He was wounded in the battle of Fredericksburg, was sent to Libby prison, was exchanged, and in 1863 was discharged from the army on account of disability from wounds. He entered the paid fire department in 1872, became in succession engineer of Company No. 5 and Company No. 28, and on the death of D. J. Eckels in 1886 became superintendent of machinery in the fire bureau. Freyvogle's successor is a member of the Citizens party's committee of 38.

Superintendent McTighe said yesterday that on Thursday at 9:30 p. m. Capt. J. K. Scott, civil service examiner, would hold a civil service examination for applicants for appointment on the police force in common council chamber.

While the 16 public servants were being discharged a list of policemen who were to be put to work again was being prepared and last night it was given out. Some of the reappointments are reinstatements and some are "rescindings of previous orders," as Superintendent of Police John P. McTighe phrased it.

USING A NEW TERM.

Rescindings of previous orders is a new term coined to fit the exigencies of the situation. As is well known nearly 200 policemen and firemen were discharged from the city service on Saturday and Sunday. It was found that a few of these had worked for the Citizens party, that others were good political workers and although formerly acting with the Republican party were good men for the new party to incorporate in its ranks, and that still others had some friends of influence who thought the men ought to be retained no matter if they had worked against the Citizens party. It became necessary, therefore, to put these men back on the payroll, and how to do it with a show of legality was a puzzle, which was at length solved to the satisfaction of the new authorities. It was desired, too, to reappoint policemen discharged for cause long ago.

It is admitted that men more than 35 years old discharged from the police force by the old administration could not be legally appointed on the force, as in their case a letter was sent to them notifying them that they had been "reinstated." Such a case was that of Matthew Bell, who was dismissed a year and a half ago. The same law held good in the case of those who were dismissed prior to yesterday, when the ripper schedule of the charter act expired, and those men received letters notifying them that the orders dismissing them had been "rescinded."

To make assurance doubly sure the letters making the "reinstatements" and "rescindings" previous orders they were dated April 4, two days before the ripper schedule expired, but the fact is that most of the letters were not delivered until yesterday. It is understood that many of them have not been sent out, in fact have not been signed by the appointing and dismissing power.

It is likely that many of the discharged former city employes will appeal to the courts, basing their claim on the provisions of the new charter act. The administration admits that after having notified many employes by letter that they were dismissed from the service "until otherwise notified," it notified them to remain at work. The claim is made that this second notification was only temporary, but employes believe that, whether it was temporary or not, the fact that many of them were still in the employ of the city after the ripper schedule of the charter act expired, and that the second notification must take precedence over the previous notice of dismissal and therefore is practically an order of reinstatement. Scores of them will, therefore, if present counsel is carried out, appeal to the courts.

Much surprise was expressed over the dismissal of the superintendent of city horses, Robert P. Black, father of Walter Black, Recorder W. B. Hays' chief clerk, and of John P. Black, deputy coroner. It was supposed he was slated for retention. E. A. Ward of police station No. 5 was appointed in Black's place.

Grant Johnston, a nephew of the late Recorder J. O. Brown, messenger in the police bureau, had been assigned to the duty of delivering to employes the letter containing the order of dismissal. Yesterday he was called into the office of Superintendent McTighe and the superintendent handed him a fateful letter. Johnston went into the office and looked over a crowd of boys and young men who seemed to be eligible to take his place. "I knew I would get in the road of the ax myself," he muttered, and then left the office without opening the letter which contained his dismissal.

VERY FEW CHANGES IN ALLEGHENY SO FAR

Ripping Out of Minor Officeholders Has Not Been Swift as Yet.

The first day of Recorder Wyman's regime was not marked by any important changes among the minor office holders. Dr. Charles Boyd was appointed to succeed Dr. J. Stewart Lacock as city veterinarian. In the delinquent tax collector's office, Albert Cill and Julius Haering resigned, and J. V. Bowman was appointed chief clerk.

Shortly before noon Recorder Murphy announced that he had received the resignations of Henry Muth, superintendent of police, and James Steele, one of the front office force. Steele's downfall was due to the fact that he carried his district in the Third ward against Wyman in the February campaign.

It is not likely that there will be many new faces in the front office. Detectives T. C. Johnson, Frank Aiken, Leon Einstein and Phillip McDonagh will be retained. The fate of Thomas O'Brien is yet in the balance, but it is likely he will be removed. Supt. James McLaughlin of the bureau of health will remain in office and the chances are John K. Hunter will be retained as chief of the fire department.

All the department heads appointed under Wyman were sworn in by the latter during the afternoon. None of them made any changes in their departments but said there would be some removals and appointments made within a few days.

It was announced last night by Recorder Wyman that W. P. Epey had been chosen as his clerk and Joseph Sauers as assistant. Lafayette Wills was reelected as clerk of select council and George Schad, messenger. Robert Dilworth will continue as clerk of common councils.

WYMAN'S PET IDEA.

Councils Flatter Recorder by Calling Up Old Plan to Cut Away Monument Hill.

The first act of the new Allegheny councils was to adopt a resolution embracing an idea which for years has been cherished by Recorder Wyman. It is to raze Monument hill and fill up what is known as "the bottom," in the First ward, with the soil from the hill. The resolution reads as follows:

Whereas, at least once annually, and sometimes oftener, the district lying below the Pennsylvania railroad, and covering portions of the First, Fourth, Fifth and Eighth wards, is inundated through the overflowing of the Allegheny and Ohio rivers; and,

Whereas, great damage is done to property, and the lives and health of the citizens are directly menaced by such overflow; be it

Resolved, That a commission consisting of three members of select and four from common council, in conjunction with the city recorder, the chief of the law department and the director of public safety, be constituted a commission to devise a method by which this unfortunate condition might possibly be avoided by a change of grade, and recommend the establishment of a building line or lines, the leveling of Monument hill, or by any other equitable and practicable method which would obviate the trouble and enhance the value of the property in the market affected and benefit the municipality at large.

THOMAS NOW AN ALDERMAN.

Gov. Pennypacker Has Named a Successor to Alderman Grenet.

Alderman Samuel Grenet of the Eleventh ward, Allegheny, who resigned last week, was succeeded yesterday by David Thomas, who was appointed by Gov. Pennypacker. Mr. Thomas will take up his duties at once. Mr. Grenet said last night that he had resigned the office because he no longer cared to hold it. It is his intention to accept a position in the court house.

David Thomas is an old resident of the Eleventh ward. He was for years a guard at the Western penitentiary and at present is in the employ of the Schoen Pressed Steel Company. He is a son-in-law of George Wittmer.

WARRANTS FOR STUDENTS.

Fifteen Arrests to Be Made for Hazing at Bethany.

BETHANY, W. VA., April 6.—(Special.)—Fifteen warrants were issued today by the mayor for the arrest of students at the college here, who are charged with hazing Henry Proctor and his brother of Liverpool, England. Proctor was gagged and tied hand and foot and dragged to Buffalo creek, accompanied by about 50 students, and he and his brother were ducked in the icy water.

The hazing resulted in a fight between Henry Proctor and Howard Houston of Pittsburgh, in which the latter was severely injured.

Black, the two latter of the corps of engineers, will leave New York Thursday for Colon for the purpose of appraising the value of work now in progress on the canal and which will be prosecuted by the French company up to the moment when the property comes into the actual possession of the United States.

Old Firms to Get the Contracts.

Supplies for the Allegheny schools during the coming year will be furnished by the firms which supplied the schools last year, prices having remained unchanged. The committee on supplies of the board of school control last night decided to renew the contracts made with William G. Johnston & Co., J. R. Weldin & Co., and the Edward Company, the last named being the successors of the National School Supply Company.

HEAVY SHIPMENTS OF WIRE AND NAILS

More Than 10,000 Tons, Including Pipe, Shipped Abroad from Pittsburgh.

AN INCREASE FOR MONTH

Australia and South America Were the Two Largest Purchasers—3,500 Tons of Iron Pipe Sent to Foreign Countries.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, Herald Building, Herald Square, NEW YORK, April 6.

More than 10,000 tons of wire, wire nails and pipe were exported through New York and other eastern seaboard points last month from Pittsburgh and other Pennsylvania plants of the American Steel and Wire Company and the National Tube Company, branches of the United States Steel Corporation. The March tonnage represents an increase of nearly 50 per cent when compared with the total exports made in February. The shipments of wire and wire nails made up a total of nearly 7,000 tons.

Australia and South America were the two largest purchasers. The shipments of wire aggregated 4,824 tons. Seventeen hundred and fifty-four tons went in four shipments to the first-named country, one lot alone amounting to 1,320 tons. To South America 1,750 tons were forwarded, the Argentine republic having been sent 1,273 tons. Brazilian ports took 230 tons, while the balance was about equally divided in shipments to Chile and Montevideo.

Some 3,500 tons of iron pipe were sent to various foreign countries last month. This tonnage represents an increase of more than 136 per cent when compared with similar shipments made in February. The principal exports during March went to Mexico, Continental Europe, China and Japan. Thirteen hundred and eight (including one lot of 1,000 tons) went to Mexico. Eight hundred and six tons were shipped to Continental Europe. 706 tons going to Antwerp and the remainder distributed between Hull and Marseilles. To China and Japan were exported 643 tons. Two hundred and fifty-two tons went to Colon. Manila was shipped 138 tons. Other pipe exports last month went to Australia, Brazil, Chili and South Africa.

MAJORITY OF 40,000 GIVEN IN MICHIGAN

Light Vote Is Cast, but Republicans Win All State Offices.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

DETROIT, April 6.—The Republicans of Michigan today elected their state ticket by a majority estimated at midnight as between 35,000 and 40,000. The ticket is as follows: For justice of the supreme court, Judge Frank A. Hooker of Charlotte; regents of the state university, Peter White of Marquette and Loyal E. Knappen of Grand Rapids. The vote throughout the state, excepting where local issues lent interest to the fight, was light.

In Detroit an unusually light vote was cast. The only municipal officers elected were a police justice and eight school inspectors. Justice Sellers, Republican, the present incumbent, was re-elected by a large majority and the Republicans elected six of the inspectors.

In Wayne county, the Republicans reelected Auditor Burt and Circuit Judge H. M. Handell. Bonding propositions were voted on in Detroit, including one to provide for a bond issue to enable the city to accept Andrew Carnegie's offer of a library. At midnight the result on this was not known.

HOLLAND UNDER BAN OF GENERAL STRIKE

All Transportation by Land and Water Is Tied Up by Workmen.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

AMSTERDAM, April 6.—A meeting of the workmen's committee early today proclaimed a general strike throughout Holland of all labor engaged in transportation, both by land and water. All the railroad lines, stations and wharves are guarded by troops. The administration of the railroads has taken steps to secure the running of the foreign express trains under military protection.

The president of the workmen's committee of defense said the strike proclamation involved the entire railroad system and other land transport of Holland and the water transport of the important ports. The strike, he added, was intended as a protest against the anti-strike laws as well as to support the demand of the railroad men for an increase of wages before the passage of the laws made an improvement in their condition impossible.

THE HAGUE, April 6.—The railroad stations are guarded by troops and police. The government is endeavoring to maintain the foreign mail service by troop-protected trains. The service on the Netherlands railroad is restricted.

Queen Wilhelmina, who is at Castle Loo, has signified her intention to return to The Hague immediately if affairs of state arising from the strike situation require her presence here.

The strikers removed part of the machinery of the locomotives here and cut off the supply of water from the railroad tanks.

ROTTERDAM, April 6.—The dock laborers, wagon drivers and all others engaged in industries connected with the port have joined in the general strike.

The railroad station here is guarded by marines and a sufficient number of employes have remained at work to enable the running of a few trains today between Rotterdam and Amsterdam.

PROF. LORENZ TO RETURN TO AMERICA

VIENNA, April 6.—The report that Prof. Lorenz had received an invitation from J. Ogden Armour to go to Chicago and visit his child, Lolita, who has not completely recovered from the operation performed upon her by the professor last October is confirmed. Prof. Lorenz, who is attending the medical congress at Madrid, will probably leave Vienna for the United States direct next week.

Pickpockets Busy On Crowded Cars.

Eight robberies have occurred on crowded street cars in Pittsburgh in the last 10 days, and the amount of money and jewels secured by the thieves aggregates in value about $851. Detectives say that the overcrowded condition of the cars of the Pittsburgh Railways Company offers a gold mine to pickpockets. William Braun of Allegheny is the heaviest loser, he having a $500 diamond stud cut from his shirt front on a North Side car.

KEENE'S PARTY LOSES SOUTHERN PACIFIC CASE

Judge Declines to Enjoin Voting of 900,000 Shares of Stock.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, April 6.—Judge Lurton of the United States court today refused the injunction asked to restrain the Union Pacific Railroad Company from voting the 900,000 shares of Southern Pacific stock at the Southern Pacific election to be held on May 8.

The opinion was against the contention of the complainants, that the Union Pacific was an accessory or actual party to the suit, even though Chairman Harriman of the Union Pacific board of directors had made an affidavit in the case. Being a mere witness in the case did not amount to an appearance by the Union Pacific as a party in the suit.

As to the movement that the Union Pacific was expending the receipts of the Union Pacific in betterments on the Central Pacific with a view to the ultimate purchase of that road, the court held that all this was specifically denied by the defendants, and that even if true, it could not be sustained except on a showing that the action was ultra vires. On the whole case the court held that the bill be dismissed.

Senator Foraker, who represented the complainant's minority stockholders of the Southern Pacific, gave notice of appeal to the United States court of appeals, and asked that pending the hearing of this appeal the election of directors of the Southern Pacific, set for April 8, be stayed. Lawrence Maxwell and Judge Humphrey, representing the defendants, agreed to that order, inasmuch as to do otherwise would render the appeal ineffective. It was agreed that the stockholders may meet as arranged and elect a chairman and then adjourn until called by the chairman.

The Commercial adds that Pennell had contemplated suicide for two years, and says it is known that "Pennell planned two years ago to throw himself in front of a train at Peekskill and to make it appear that his death was an accident. He stopped off at Peekskill on the way back from New York with the intention of committing suicide in that way, but his nerve failed him. Recently he told the story of the Peekskill incident himself. During the Pan-American exposition he sought for days for an opportunity to commit suicide in a manner that would make it appear accidental. He had an idea that he could be run over in some way while at the exposition, but he never could nerve himself up to the point where he could throw himself under a train or drop under the wheels of a trolley car."

TWO POLICIES IN DISPUTE.

It appears there were two life policies which had not been handed over to the administrator. One was for $15,000 and the other for $10,000. Those policies had been assigned by Pennell to Wallace Thayer in trust. In one he is referred to as "Wallace Thayer, trustee," and in the other he was designated "Wallace Thayer, as trustee." The insurance companies took legal counsel in the matter and held up payment.

J. Frederick Pennell, the administrator of the estate, was called in and insisted on having more information before he would consent to the payment of any insurance money to Mr. Thayer as trustee. It was then that the story of Pennell's alleged defalcations and his plans to commit suicide were made known. The $25,000 insurance money assigned to Thayer by Pennell in trust is supposed to be paid over to Mrs. Burdick in accordance with the provisions of the bond for $50,000 which Pennell gave prior to his death. Mr. Thayer won't talk about it. In fact, he has declined to give even the administrator of Pennell's estate any information concerning it.

The administrator went to Mr. Thayer to find out the nature of his trust, as it was his duty as administrator to do. Mr. Thayer would not talk. He said Pennell had left sealed instructions advising him as to how he was to dispose of the $25,000, and that, as a lawyer, he could not divulge the nature of that transaction.

The administrator urged that he was entitled to know the nature of the trust before he could consent to have the money paid over. Mr. Thayer still refused to say what the trust was.

Thomas Penney, attorney for the Pennell estate, accordingly charged the Insurance companies to pay over no money to Mr. Thayer. The probability is that the $25,000 will be paid into the courts.

Mr. Penney stated this afternoon that if Pennell had swindled any estates in the east he was absolutely ignorant of it.

More High Grade Furniture and Decorative Pieces, for Common Prices.

We have not thought to mention this furniture this week inasmuch as most minds are centered on Easter finery; but the builders have already begun operations on the adjoining building, and are now encroaching on the space allotted to these fine pieces of furniture. It is a question of urgent need of room, and that means that these elegant specimens must be sacrificed.

When such prices are named for such furniture as we carry, one time is just as good as another to enlist the attention of people who desire to put into their homes furniture that has a large degree of refinement about it.

It seems almost unnecessary to say that the reduced prices for which this Furniture is now being sold are far below the original wholesale cost, and that the only reason we have for naming such absurd and ridiculous reductions is in the want of room with which to carry on our rebuilding.

WYMAN SWORN IN BEFORE COUNCILS

Ceremony Attends Induction Into Office of Allegheny's New Recorder.

TORRANCE RE-ELECTED

President of Select Council Has Something to Say—Wyman's Cabinet Announced — Select Council's Committees.

Recorder James G. Wyman of Allegheny took the oath of office at 10:55 o'clock yesterday morning before a joint session of the councils of that city. Almost immediately afterward he submitted his list of appointments to President Francis J. Torrance of select council, as follows:

Director of public safety—Thomas S. Scandrett.

Director of public works—E. J. McIlvaine.

Director of charities and corrections—Henry Hunneshagen.

City Treasurer—Andrew Robinson.

Delinquent tax collector—Harry M. Davidson.

City solicitor—Stephen G. Porter.

POLICE SUPERINTENDENT A SURPRISE.

The superintendency of police was given to Melville H. Campbell of the Eleventh ward. Campbell was a dark horse, and his appointment caused astonishment. Assistant Superintendent John Glenn was reappointed.

The other appointments are:

Chief assessor, Oliver A. Gayley; assessors, Robert Beck, William Manning, T. C. Waite and John Graebling, Jr. Waite was the only one of the old assessors retained.

Police magistrates, first district, Samuel Abernethy; second district, David McKelvey; third district, Frank Harkins; fourth district, A. J. Brinker; fifth district, Peter Bolster.

There was more interest in the election of a president of select council than in the recorder's appointments.

Councilman Robinson of the Fourth ward, who was to have been Mr. Torrance's opponent, moved that the election of the latter be by acclamation. Mr. Torrance on taking the chair said:

PRESIDENT TORRANCE TALKED.

What I am to say may be considered egotistical, but one who is twice elected to this most important office may be pardoned for his seeming egotism. I was surprised to find shortly after the last election that opposition for the chairmanship was to be given me. As far as I could recall I had been fair and impartial in administering the office, and I can't recall a single instance to the contrary. I felt sure that it could not be on that score.

Following an enumeration of the alleged causes of the opposition, Mr. Torrance said:

In answer to these various items I have only to say that I have never been an obstructionist, and no one here will go further to advance the cause of genuine reform and to make good citizenship and good government, than I will, either in office or out of it. No man has a mortgage on his job and this office of the presidency, no mean job, every one has a perfect right to aspire to. I have no contention on the point whatever but fair methods and truthful statements should be used and no underhand methods or falsehoods.

Those I had most to expect from were most active in my opposition. Members on the Citizens ticket I have no claim upon and did not solicit directly or indirectly, nor permit their support to be solicited for me. The Republican members are in control of this branch of council, and in their behalf I publicly pledge their control in the interest of good government and reform, but not revenge.

In the appointment of my committees I have followed only one point, namely, that of providing first for those who have loyally supported my candidacy. The primary object, aside from fitness, in selecting these appointees has been to show my appreciation of their loyalty and no underhand spirit of spite or revenge on those who opposed me.

PLEDGES MADE TO WYMAN.

President Torrance formally presented Recorder Wyman to the members of the two branches of council. After Recorder Wyman had made a short speech, in which he promised to fulfill the duties of the office, to the best of his ability, in the interests of good government, Torrance shook hands with him and said: "Mr. Recorder, on behalf of select council I pledge you its support in the interests of reform and good government."

Samuel McElroy, who was elected president of common council, in greeting the recorder said: "Your honor, on behalf of common council I pledge you its hearty and sincere support in all matters pertaining to your administration."

When President Torrance announced his committees Councilman Morris Einstein, who has always held good committee appointments, and who was always considered a close friend of Mr. Torrance until recently, got his reward in being put on the city digest and library committees. The committees are:

SELECT COUNCIL'S COMMITTEES.

Finance—Charles F. Kirschler, C. O. Deverets, John C. Oliver and John Omslaer.

Recorder Wyman spent the entire afternoon in his office hearing applicants for minor positions. There are about 10 applicants for every position.

Damrosch's Lecture Recital Tonight.

At the reception of the Art society, in Carnegie Music hall, Pittsburgh, this evening, at 8 o'clock, Walter Damrosch of New York will give a lecture-recital on Wagner's "Parsifal." For several seasons it has not been possible to accure Mr. Damrosch, although the society has greatly desired to do so. As established by Mr. Damrosch the lecture-recital has become a valued thing in music education. The choice of "Parsifal" seems timely and undoubtedly will prove interesting. Numerous piano forte illustrations will carry Mr. Damrosch's talk on this, Wagner's latest and in many respects greatest musical drama.

CLERKSHIP FIGHT IS NOT SETTLED

bloodthirsty. Citizens who want to elect new city clerks. They thought the Republican members, out of courtesy, would attend the joint session and would not be able to get away until the city clerks were elected. The Republicans saw through the scheme, and knowing that Hays did not care for publicity, decided that they would not attend.

Charles S. Crawford and other Citizens tried to get a meeting of select called. President John S. Lambie refused and Martin left City hall at noon Saturday and did not come back until yesterday afternoon. Every effort to find him, to have a call issued, failed. Common council met at noon and adjourned until next Monday at 3 p. m., when it hopes to meet select in joint session for the purpose of electing city clerks.

MARTIN OUT OF TOWN.

When Martin appeared at City hall yesterday afternoon he said he had been out of the city since 4:30 p. m. Saturday. He said he had deliberately absented himself, as he knew that if select met he would have been out of a job. In order to get more time, he prevented the joint session. He will send out a call for the Monday meeting, but he says that there is no assurance that a quorum of select council will be present.

The Republicans realize that if the Citizens leaders order the councilmen into line for Hassler and Davis they will be elected in joint session, but that would not end the fight. It is necessary to have the action of joint session ratified in both branches. The 19 Republicans in select are standing together, and according to their present inclinations, they will not ratify the election of Hassler and Davis. As the 19 men have stood together this long, the one who would now break away would have a hard time convincing his colleagues and the public that he had not received some consideration for the switch in position.

WILLING TO COMPROMISE.

The Republicans are willing to compromise with the Citizens and each get one of the places. If this is not adopted as a method of settlement, a long legal battle will likely be the result. After the refusal of select council to ratify, each branch would elect a clerk. Martin would win in select and it would then be up to the Citizens to carry the case into the courts. This would take considerable time and there might also be litigation about the salary.

The failure of the Citizens to win yesterday has forced a change in the plans of the recorder. He has not reappointed his department heads, but is allowing them to serve for the present without reviewing their commissions. When peace is established they will be renamed and the appointments sent to select council for confirmation. All appointments are being held up and an effort is being made to break into the Republican select council line.

Detectives Cole and Roach, who were reappointed Saturday and removed Sunday, were told that if reappointed they must have the approval of their select councilmen, John Benz and Thomas E. Perry. This would give the Citizens a chance to make a deal with these two Republican members.

DELAY MAKES FIGHT HARDER.

The longer the city clerk fight is delayed, the harder it will be for the Citizens. In a few days the claims of the various ward associations for places on the pay-roll will be heard. The appointments will then have to be made and many councilmen will be disappointed. It may be that some of the Citizens members in select will be disposed to go along with the Republicans.

Recorder Hays and Directors Bigelow, Moore and Clark heard ward claimants at the safety palace yesterday afternoon. Several hundred political workers were at the building. The requests of the Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth wards were listened to, and a rehearing was given the Thirty-second ward.

Councilman Jacob Soffel, of the Thirty-second ward, said yesterday that he had not authorized the Citizens caucus to count him as a supporter of Hassler and Davis. There are seven Citizens councilmen who have not agreed to abide by the decision of that caucus. Soffel says that his ward will not get any of the better jobs, policemen and "white wings" being principally given the ward.

So far there has been no recognition of A. J. Pitcairn as superintendent of the bureau of city property by Director Bigelow. There was an intimation yesterday that the trouble would be ended by the appointment of Pitcairn as head of the water assessment office, and that the city property bureau would go to John A. Long of the Twenty-first ward. Recorder Hays said that he had not heard of the plan, but remarked that Pitcairn was in the water department and Bigelow could transfer him to another bureau if he desired.

THESE MEN WILL BE AT THE HEAD OF ALLEGHENY'S POLICE

THOMAS S. SCANDRETT,
Director of the Department of Public Safety.

MELVILLE H. CAMPBELL,
Superintendent of the Bureau of Police.

D. J. THAYER BECOMES BOILER INSPECTOR

Allegheny Man Lands the State Job William Bell Has Been Holding.

Dexter J. Thayer of Allegheny, was yesterday appointed by Gov. Pennypacker to the office of boiler inspector of Allegheny county, the position held by William Bell. Bell was reappointed about a year ago. Since it was known that a new appointment was to be made there has been a lively contest for the place, about 12 applications being made for it. Among those who took the most active part in the contest were George Boll, Perry Young, Parker L. Walter and E. J. Clark.

The appointment holds good for two years. The boiler inspector appoints a chief deputy and three or four assistants. The position is a remunerative one.

The new incumbent of the office is by trade an oil driller. Mrs. Thayer is a niece of Senator Quay. The Thayers live at No. 1002 Ridge avenue, Allegheny. This is Mr. Thayer's first political position. In politics he has been independent, but was with the Citizens party in the recent campaign.

DEXTER J. THAYER.
Appointed by Gov. Pennypacker Yesterday As Boiler Inspector of Allegheny County.

TWENTY-FIRST WARD MAY HAVE A RIPPER

If Division Scheme Goes Through Several Officers Will Be Removed.

Twenty-first ward residents will have a ripper all of their own if the scheme to divide the ward goes through. Tonight the commission appointed by the court will sit at the Homewood school to take testimony. There is much opposition to division, and a lively time is expected this evening.

The scheme to draw a line through the Twenty-first ward and make the Homewood end the Thirty-ninth ward of Pittsburgh, is credited to George F. Herrick. Another promoter is James M. Clark, former select councilman from the Twenty-first. The opponents of the scheme are the members of the Citizens party and the last three elections have shown this organization to be overwhelmingly in the majority.

The division of the ward would mean the ripping out of office of the school directors in the Homewood district. They are all Citizens. The erection of a new ward would also mean that the term of Robert H. Douglas, select councilman, would be brought to an end two years ahead of time. Common Councilman Wymard would also be ripped out of office. If these men wanted to continue in the Homefield legislature they would have to be elected again.

The commission is composed of Lee S. Smith, L. M. Plummer, ex-Mayor W. J. Diehl, H. A. Breed and W. P. Dilworth.

MRS. BIGELOW DIVORCED.

Wife of Celebrated Writer May Marry Again, but He Is Forbidden to Do So.

NEW YORK, April 6.—(Special.)—Mrs. Edith Bigelow has obtained an absolute divorce from Poultney Bigelow on statutory grounds. She will not be wholly free until three months after the filing of the paper in the county clerk's office. Under the wording of the decree Mrs. Bigelow will then be at liberty to remarry "as though M. Bigelow were dead," while he is prohibited from re-marriage "until she is actually dead," a provision which would prevent him from having a marriage ceremony performed in this state, but not elsewhere.

Mr. Bigelow has long been known as a writer, but his wife's ability was not generally recognized until just before the divorce suit, when she wrote a story that won a $1,000 prize. Her heroine was a beautiful young wife who was ill treated by her husband and who transferred her affections to another man.

ERIE BANK CASE ENDED.

United States Supreme Court Affirms Decision of the Court of Appeals.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Justice Brown of the United States supreme court, today affirmed the opinion of the court of appeals in the case of George C. Rankin, receiver of the Keystone National bank of Erie, Pa., vs. the Fidelity Insurance Trust and Safe Deposit Company.

The case involved the question of liability on the part of the trust company for share of stock taken as collateral in a failed bank. In 1890 the company accepted 200 shares of the stock of the Keystone bank as collateral on a note for $15,000 given by Delamater & Co., of Meadville, Pa. Afterward Delamater failed, leaving the bank stock in the hands of the trust company. The bank failed and the receiver sought to collect 100 per cent on the shares from the company as the rightful owner of the stock.

The court held that the company had not sought to take upon itself the statutory liability of a shareholder and that it could not be held.

Tuesday, April 7, 1903.

Among the bills approved by the governor yesterday was the one requiring county commissioners to maintain a separate room or building for the detention of prisoners under 16 years of age. This is the last and one of the most important in the series of juvenile court bills which aim rather at the prevention of crime than the reform of criminals. It has long been one of the gravest evils of the administration of justice, particularly in rural sections, that old and young criminals have been herded together in county jails, the young being contaminated by contact with the most hardened rogues.

Allegheny councils acted wisely in re-electing their capable and experienced presiding officers and their clerks. This result will be a marked advantage to the people of the city, as it will ensure the continuance of business-like methods in the transaction of the business of councils. In this respect Allegheny councils set Pittsburgh councils a good example. The ordinary routine of business is carried on with more efficiency, committee attendance is more regular, and a closer supervision of city business is maintained in Allegheny than in Pittsburgh. It is time Pittsburgh councils did something to improve the procedure.

Probably no circumstances were ever more favorable to the plying of the trade of the pickpocket than the shamefully crowded condition of Pittsburgh street cars. The pickpockets have discovered the fact and daily losses of money and jewelry are being reported to the police. Any person in the jam of humanity that is loaded on an evening car is likely to be robbed without knowing it. The smooth operator simply pays his nickel for the privilege of selecting his victim and having him at his mercy. Of course, this may not last long, for the police may run the pickpockets out of the community. Unfortunately, they cannot remove the temptation to them to return.

The suggestion that the covert opposition to the technical school site bill is prompted by friends of the University of Pennsylvania is not reasonable. The technical school occupies a field remote from that of the university and will draw an entirely different class of students. It will be distinct in present aims and purposes even from such a technical school as Lehigh, which might be more rationally named as a competitor. The Carnegie technical school looks to perfection of craftsmanship rather than advanced technical training, and will occupy a field of its own. The subterranean opposition the bill is encountering probably emanates from Pittsburgh interests and is connected with the choice of the site.

Gov. Pennypacker's veto ax falls as naturally upon a mischievous bill as if he had always had it in training. It was used three times yesterday—upon the bill to license barbers, that to enable railroads to sell or transfer parts of their roads and one authorizing municipalities to collect water or light bills by shutting off the supply. The barbers bill fell because it collides with the constitution. The water and light bill because it would compel landlords or subsequent tenants to pay the bills of real delinquents. The railroad bill was vetoed, the governor said, because it did not define what should constitute a "part" of a railroad. To illustrate the point the governor said in his message that he once heard of a man who had been "cut to pieces" and on investigation it turned out that "one piece was his little finger and the other the remainder of his body." The legislature evidently saw the point so humorously made, for it sustained the veto.

Gov. Pennypacker has signed a bill reappropriating $20,000 for a monument in Schenley park to the officers and soldiers of the Tenth regiment, who died in the war with Spain. This amount if judiciously expended would provide an artistic monument which in addition to being a memorial would be an embellishment to the park. Many people associate the idea of a monument with a pillar or a column, surmounted by an effigy, and hence some dreadful travesties of art have secured acceptance, among which must be reckoned the statue planted conspicuously in the main entrance of Schenley park. Whatever merit it possesses is as a memorial of the services of Director Bigelow in establishing the parks; it is certainly not an object of artistic beauty. The essential idea of the design is a citizen standing on a fire plug, and no matter how this idea has been exalted in treatment it cannot be made dignified. It is to be hoped that better ideas of art will control the selection of the design of the Tenth regiment monument.

It has become the fashion to call any bill making changes as regards offices a ripper, and so the bill enlarging the capitol building commission has been dubbed a ripper. As a matter of fact, it does not rip up the commission, but it provides that the governor and some one to be named by him shall be added to its membership. It is altogether proper that the governor should preside over the commission and direct its proceedings. The building of the new capitol is a matter that falls within the province of the state administration and the original bill should have provided that the composition of the commission should have been subject to the control of the governor, like any other branch of administration pertaining to the executive department. This defect should be remedied and the legislature should enact such a law as will confer upon the governor his rightful duties. It is not a matter of making Judge Pennypacker a member of the commission; the governor of the state, whoever he might be, should be ex-officio president of the commission, with power to make changes in its membership if in his judgment change would be advantageous to public interests.

Installing the Graft System.

Josiah Flynt, the expert investigator of "graft," whom The Gazette once secured to make a report upon conditions in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, recently made a study of police methods in London. Writing in the North American Review, he says that there is no "graft" attachment to police work in London; that the force is honest and conscientious, and do their work thoroughly and efficiently, and "that politics is not allowed to play any part in the management and direction of the organization." Mr. Flynt, who is familiar with the extent to which political influence demoralizes police methods in American cities, lays special emphasis upon the complete exclusion of such influence in London. He remarks: "In London, when a policeman is caught electioneering, or in any way making use of his office for political purposes, he is discharged from the force instanter."

What a difference in Pittsburgh under a reform administration! Here policemen are now being discharged by wholesale for purely party reasons. Experience, faithful service, the approval of the householders whose homes they protect, all went for nothing as against the edict of the politicians. "You see the commitee of thirty-eight," said Supt. McTighe, "and they will tell you why the men were discharged. The men who voted against the Citizens movement cannot remain on the force. They have to go and nothing can save them." This is the policy now avowed without shame and pursued without mercy by the representatives of a party which claimed public support upon pledges "to protect public employes from political interference and exactions" and to put "the safety service, both as to police and fire bureaus," upon a business basis and "not as a political adjunct." Charges of political perversion of police management were a leading count in the indictment against the former administration, and the Citizens party candidates gained public support upon promises of betterment. And as soon as they got into power they began a political massacre.

The demoralizing influence of such methods is too potent for argument. Supt. McTighe has openly founded his administration upon political corruption. He has given public notice that nothing will enable a policeman to hold his place but the favor of the politicians. "You see the committee of thirty-eight" is the rule. The first duty of the policeman is to the politicians and their friends. If a speakeasy proprietor, a dive-keeper or a gambler has political protection, a policeman will understand that it means the loss of his job to interfere with the favored business. The criminal classes are invited into politics as a means of obtaining police protection and enjoying immunity in law-breaking. Supt. McTighe is installing the graft system.

Such open debauchery of the public service ought not to pass without protest. What has become of the great moral enthusiasm which produced town meetings and formulated programs of reform which are now being violated? Where is David D. Bruce, who presided at the town meeting which started the Citizens movement and who assured the community during the last campaign that the Bigelow organization represented the principles of that movement? Is he devoted solely to reform in the abstract so that questions of practice have no interest for him? All over the city there is a cry of indignation from citizens that experienced and trusted policemen who have their confidence are being removed to make room for political hustlers. If Mr. Bruce will convoke another town meeting for the expression of public sentiment upon the first fruits of reform he will have a large and interested audience.

He Will or He Will Not.

According to State Senator Ben K. Focht of Lewisburg, Union county, who told it to a staff correspondent of The Gazette, United States Senator Matthew Stanley Quay of Pennsylvania will resign his office after the adjournment of the legislature and have the governor appoint his son, former Assemblyman Richard R. Quay, to the vacancy thus created, the junior Quay being depended upon to cinch the following regular term for himself. Of course, Mr. Focht doesn't name his authority, but it is quite probable he did not get his information from either Quay, and, though the tale has been told before, it may be that he just thought it out. But whether in thinking it out he will be able to think the elder Mr. Quay out of the most deliberative body on earth is another question, for there is a disagreement on the important point between political doctors, and one who, perhaps, is nearer to the Beaver man than is the man from Union spoke earlier in another tone. It is a little more than one week by the clock since the Hon. William H. Andrews had something to say, and said it. Mr. Andrews is a former state senator from Crawford county, a former candidate for the assembly from Allegheny county and former chairman of the Pennsylvania Republican state central committee; is now a member of the territorial senate of New Mexico, hopeful that some day he will represent the state of New Mexico in the United States senate and looking to Senator Quay to help him along by helping New Mexico to statehood. According to the Pennsylvania-New Mexico statesman, Senator Quay is to be re-elected to the United States senate two years hence to succeed himself. If so, it is not likely he will resign this year. It may be that Mr. Andrews just thought this out, as Mr. Focht may have evolved his revelation from his inner consciousness. It may be that each gentleman simply endeavored to entertain, for each is possessed of considerable ability as an entertainer when in the humor. Meanwhile Mr. Quay is still a member of the United States senate and doubtless is as much interested as anyone in what is being said concerning his future. It is certain, however, that he will or that he will not continue in the senate, and there you are. Meanwhile don't worry. Let Focht and Andrews do that if they want to.

Holland in Danger.

The imports and exports of Holland in 1901 amounted to $1,511,204,358, ranking it as fifth among the powers of the world in volume of commerce, and above such great countries as Russia, Austro-Hungary and Italy. In proportion to population the commerce of Holland simply distances every other country. Its imports amount to $152 53 per capita; its exports to $132 30; whereas the per capita of England, the greatest commercial country in the world, is $62 10 for imports and only $23 31 for exports. The figures for the United States are, respectively, only $17 49 and $12 27. Of course, the inhabitants of Holland do not really exceed all other peoples as consumers and producers, and the enormous commercial returns for such a small country means that it carries on a great transit trade. It is a free trade country, as its aim is to be the gateway of commerce for central Europe. Even a country so far south as Roumania regards the ports of Holland as the ocean terminals of its railway system. The German railway system is chiefly dependent upon Holland for its connection with ocean commerce, and the principal river commerce of Germany also finds its ocean outlet in Holland, whose territory includes the mouth of the Rhine.

Hence it will readily be perceived that the general strike which has begun in Holland possesses acute international importance. The strike is principally a political demonstration, aimed at some labor laws. Thus the transportation system of a continent is subject to paralysis through convulsions in the domestic politics of Holland, and the question presents itself to the great powers whether they will endure such disturbances. The Emperor William notified the government of Holland some time ago that if such a strike took place the consequences might be serious. The incorporation of Holland into the German empire has long been looked forward to by German public opinion as manifest destiny, and the present situation will tend to press forward that question for practical solution.

The idea of annexation to the German empire is not altogether without support in Holland itself, and during the height of excitement over the Boer war there was some inclination of sentiment in that direction. Holland could retain its autonomy and its own government just as Bavaria and other kingdoms included in the German empire have done, but it would be subject to federal jurisdiction. Apart from sentiment in favor of independence, the great objection to annexation has been that Holland would be subject to German tariff laws, whereas it is her policy to favor transit trade by free trade principles, but the present troubles strike down the transit trade, thus turning around the argument based upon business interests. If Holland is to become an arena of social conflict her prospects of remaining an independent nation are very dubious.

Ingalls' Defeat.

Election returns from Cincinnati leave no doubt that Mr. Ingalls will be left free to devote his exclusive attention to the railroad business. The majority of Mayor Fleischman, for re-election, will not be less than 10,000 judging from returns at hand, so the Republicans will retain control.

This event is not as important as it has been made to appear. The nomination of M. E. Ingalls on a fusion ticket was followed by stories that if successful there the popular railroad president would become the Democratic candidate for governor, the ultimate goal being the United States senate. We do not know what Mr. Ingalls' ambitions are. Possibly he has none. But it is certain the connection of his name with the high offices mentioned gave to his candidacy for mayor of Cincinnati national interest. He was talked about from ocean to ocean, his wealth and standing in the business world being much greater than his experience in politics.

Whether the dream was Ingalls' or that of some one else it is at an end. The introduction of national party politics into the campaign helped to defeat Mr. Ingalls, for Cincinnati is reliably Republican upon national issues. It is sound on the principles of protection and stable currency. It is not now likely that Mr. Ingalls will be a candidate for governor. His defeat for mayor seems to preclude that idea. He may yet aspire to a seat in the millionaires' club, however. Political weakness is no bar to that. Of course, it will be necessary to have his party succeed in getting control of the legislature before he can be elected to the senate, but it is not necessary to have his name figure in the campaign for that purpose. The figuring will come naturally after the first fact.

Having manned the local ships of state to their own satisfaction perhaps the ship officers will now give a little needed attention to the passengers.

It has already been suggested that in the event of a national theater some enterprising playwright might dramatize the Congressional Record.

The failure of the Florida fish to bite as they should seems to have had a depressing effect upon Pennsylvania politics in some of its aspects.

Philadelphia will require several weeks to get over the bad attack of nervous prostration that the inauguration of a plucky mayor caused.

Perhaps the president would, at this stage of his journey, regard a tussle with a big healthy bear as a restful change.

The municipal elections out in Ohio yesterday were quite lively enough to make the people forget that it is Lent.

By promising to get married if elected one of Baltimore's mayoralty candidates has cinched the wallflower vote.

This week will constitute something of a last call in the millinery car for the Easter bonnet.

Terry McGovern seems to find some difficulty in adjusting himself to "also ran" conditions.

The "let her rip" principle was worked for all it was worth while it lasted.

The western type of strenuousness has a few extra swift wrinkles in it.

POLITICAL DRIFT.

Touching the speeches of President Roosevelt on the current tour the Philadelphia Press (Rep.) says: "President Roosevelt's speech at Minneapolis on the tariff, like that at Milwaukee on the trusts, is conservative in tone. His speeches on the present tour are more moderate and restrained than those he made in New England and the west last year. This greater sobriety is due partly to more matured views and partly to accomplished results. Last year the president was a propagandist, this year he points in part to achievements. Then he started out to organize and crystalize public sentiment for legislative action; now he reports on the fruits. Then he was an advocate pressing a cause; now he is a successful executive presenting what has been done. On the trusts he has advanced from the proposer of measures to the possessor of authority. On the tariff he has the added experience of a year and the wider observation and consultation of another session of congress."

Referring to the occasion of the Jefferson banquet at Des Moines, the Washington Star (Ind. Rep.) says the main business was the organization of a Kansas City platform club, where Bryan said: "It is not harmony we want. It is the triumph of Democratic principles." The Star continues: "Suppose this effort to force an indorsement of the Kansas City platform into the next Iowa state platform is defeated. Will the Bryanites bolt? Mr. Bryan frankly says that 'the Democracy does not want harmony, but the triumph of Democratic principles.' Clearly, then, his Iowa followers cannot consistently support a platform from which Democratic principles, viz., the principles of the Kansas City platform, have been excluded. And if a bolt should take place in Iowa the spirit of it might spread and affect the situation elsewhere.

"On the other hand, suppose the effort succeeds. Suppose the Bryanites in Iowa have their way and write a platform which meets with their leader's enthusiastic approval. To what extent will that hearten the silver faction of the party throughout the west and the northwest."

Discussing the speech of Secretary of War Root at the Home Market club in which he said "there is no fetich in tariff schedules and no sacredness in particular rates of duty," the Indianapolis Journal (Rep.) harks back to President Harrison to show that Mr. Root's rendering of the "Iowa idea" is not new. It quotes President Harrison as follows and the "stand patters" should read with care: "The Republican party holds that a protective tariff is constitutional, wholesome, necessary. We do not offer a fixed schedule, but a principle. We will revise the schedule, modify rates, but always with an intelligent provision as to the effect upon domestic productions and the wages of our working people. * * * It may be that reductions should be made; it may be that some duties should be increased; but we want to know whether those who propose the revision believe in taking thought of our American workingmen in fixing the rates or will leave them to the chance effects of a purely revenue tariff."

The Philadelphia Record (Dem.) urges the divorce of the Democracy from Populism. Among other things it says: "The Democracy was weak enough to nominate a Populist for president and adopt for a time his political program of general destructiveness and hostility to commercial progress. Even when most adverse business conditions inclined people to look favorably upon almost any patent medicine for bad times this action led the Democratic party to defeat. The experiment was tried a second time with still more disastrous results. In the present state of prosperity it would be worse than suicide—it would be idiocy—to again go to the voters of the country with a program that needs the music of the 'calamity howler' to make it even seem plausible. But Mr. Bryan, embittered because he twice led the party to defeat, and especially embittered at the man who twice led it to victory, seems determined that the party shall not win next year, if he can prevent it."

Apropos to Mr. Bryan's boast at Des Moines that he received more votes for president than did Mr. Cleveland, the Louisville Courier Journal (Dem.) says: "Undoubterly Mr. Bryan received more popular votes in 1896 than were ever before cast for a candidate for the presidency. But this counts for nothing unless we look at the effect on the other side. Gen. Harrison's electors in 1892 received 5,176,108 votes. In 1896 Mr. McKinley's electors received 7,104,-779 votes, and in 1900, 7,207,923. In other words, Mr. McKinley received nearly 2,000,000 more votes in 1896 than Gen. Harrison received in 1892, and in 1900 the increase over 1892 was more than 2,000,000. Any consideration of the popular votes cast in those years is altogether misleading unless it includes all the facts."

IN THE EYE OF FAME.

Dr. Finley of Princeton is prominently mentioned as the new president of the New York City college.

District Attorney Rockwood Hoar of Worcester, Mass., denies the statement that his father, Senator Hoar, is an omnivorous reader of dime novels.

William Halls, Jr., of Summit, N. J., has offered to give the Methodist hospital in Brooklyn $125,000 providing the Newark conference will raise the sum of $300,000.

Alfred Capus, the French writer, is about to go to Russia in behalf of the French dramatists in an endeavor to obtain a treaty similar to the American copyright law, protecting them against the pirating of plays.

Prof. M. I. Pupin of Columbia college, the inventor of the ocean telephone, is building a large villa and expending thousands of dollars developing hundreds of acres of mashy and rocky land in Norfolk, Conn.

Rear Admiral George W. Melville, the engineer in chief of the United States navy, who reached the retiring age a couple of months ago, is to be retained on active duty as chief of the bureau until January 10, 1904. When the secretary of the navy authorized Admiral Melville to continue on duty after reaching the age of retirement it was stated that he would continue only till August 9 of this year, or the end of his fourth four years' term as chief of bureau. But as his last confirmation for a four years' term was on January 10, 1900, it is now interpreted that his term will not end until January 10, 1904.

Might Be Persuaded.

From the Philadelphia Press.

The suggestion that the governor call an extra session of the legislature to make senatorial and representative reapportionment, as the constitution requires, finds some supporters. It is argued that being restricted to a single subject of state importance the legislature might be persuaded to devote some little time to the public interests. The extra session called for reapportionment purposes by Gov. Pattison 20 years ago was a failure only because the house was Democratic and the senate Republican, which made agreement impossible. Both houses are now strongly Republican, and there can be no party difference. How Gov. Pennypacker regards the suggestion is yet to be ascertained.

The Quiet Observer.

ERASMUS WILSON.

When shall we be delivered from the thraldom of ignorance?

It is not enough to answer by saying this millinum will begin when we shall all have grown wise. Besides, such an answer only suggests the more practical question: How shall we become wise?

Wisdom comes by rather slow processes. Even knowledge may not be acquired quickly or without considerable effort.

The average man has sufficient knowledge to warrant greater wisdom than he is given credit for, if not greater than he claims to have.

It is one thing to know, but quite another thing to make proper use of our knowledge. Making proper use of knowledge is the only sure test for wisdom. For of what practical use is knowledge that is not rightly applied?

He that diligently applies his knowledge to some good purpose is wise.

Do you live according to your knowledge?

* * * * *

Every man, even unto the least amongst us, knows that it is not right to cheat, steal or cause human suffering.

And yet there is human suffering on every hand, and cheating and stealing going on all around. Those who are guilty of these sins against society cannot all be so void of knowledge as to not know they are not doing right toward their fellow men.

These may argue that they are doing no worse toward others than others do toward them.

Such as these evidently accept the David Harum version of the golden rule: "Do unto others as others would do unto you, but do them first."

And do them good is added by some.

All this is according to knowledge, but is not of wisdom. And what is more, and worse, too, is that those who do it would not hesitate to say it was wrong, very wrong, if done by another, particularly if done to them.

Wisdom points a better way, a way of pleasantness and peace, with rich rewards at the end.

The only contented man, really, is the man of wisdom—not necessarily great wisdom—who does the best he knows how, considering surrounding conditions.

* * * * *

The man who tampers with liquor knows it is not the right thing to do. Were he compelled to it by law, or by command of a human boss, he would protest most vehemently. His friends and neighbors would become aroused, and strangers from far and from near would join to rescue him from the awful life, and worse death, to which he had been doomed. His cruel master would be threatened with rope, pistol, tar and feathers and all sorts of punishment.

And greater still the indignation of the people, and more dreadful the punishment threatened, were the victim ignorant of the direful effects of liquor and innocent of any intention of doing wrong.

But knowing well the danger that lies before him, and being constantly reminded of the effects of liquor by the presence of drunkards and their miserable homes, he carelessly contracts the habit that promises wreck and ruin and nothing else. He may be a college man, well read and highly intellectual, even noted for his extensive knowledge concerning men and things, but lacking wisdom his life proves a failure.

Why is it that you and the balance of his fellows allow him to do for himself that which you would not permit another to do for him?

Maybe your feeling is that a man who deliberately concludes to commit suicide should be allowed to do so.

* * * * *

Mr. Quiet Observer—Your article in The Gazette of March 28, on the liquor habit, was read by me and by several of our prominent physicians with much interest. We happen to have occasion just now to be more than usually interested in this topic.

The lines along which your arguments are drawn meet with great sympathy from me, for it is only along such lines of reasoning that we can account for so many highly intellectual, finely educated and cultured men becoming victims of the liquor habit.

I find it impossible to believe that men of excellent breeding, superior business capacity and high moral integrity, and possessed of sensitive and affectionate natures, willing seek their own and their families ruin in this life, to say nothing of the life to come.

We must look farther, or at least elsewhere, for the cause of this.

Through the influence of the press public sentiment is fast becoming alive to these vital questions, and we who have special reasons for being interested in them, feel greatly encouraged upon reading such articles as yours and those of distinguished physicians and scientists in our popular journals. MRS. J. S. K.
Helena, Mont., March 29, 1903.

The idea that physical ills are mainly, if not altogether, due to physical causes, is spreading, even into the closely guarded preserves of the medical profession. That there is magic in medicine is no longer a universal belief, but is confined to the more ignorant and superstitious. It is held most tenaciously by the Chinese and by Pagans generally. These charm disease away, or scare it, or drive it out by means of physical force.

The sufferer from alcoholic poisoning used to be treated after this fashion here in this highly enlightened country, and is to this day, but the treatment is less heroic than in former times, but none the less ineffectual.

And how can such treatment be effective for good? The victim recovers from the effect of the medicine he had taken to allay certain disagreeable and annoying symptoms, but the symptoms remain—a desire for something to satisfy, or to paralyze the nerves of appetite.

These nerves are to tell us when to eat and to drink, to suggest the sort of food needed by the body, and they are faithful and true. But like parts of any complicated and delicate machine, they sometimes become impaired, which so perverts their functions that they may call for that which the body does not need instead of that which it does need. In such instances their calls are as persistent and as insistent as if they were for proper and necessary food to sustain and maintain health.

* * * * *

It is through no lack of knowledge that men go wrong, but for want of wisdom.

Get wise, therefore, and thus save yourself from disgrace, and from making your best friends ashamed of having even known you.

But how?

Get knowledge and use it.

Knowledge that is hidden away in pigeon holes in the brain is of no more practical use than gold coin locked up tight and fast in armor plate vaults.

The human body cannot subsist, much less thrive, upon meat and bread hidden away in the pantry.

To be profitable to the body the meat and bread must be eaten, digested and assimilated. It then ceases to be meat and bread and becomes a part and parcel of the body which it was intended to nourish, giving the health and strength necessary to accomplish effective work.

To be profitable to the individual—the individual soul, if you please—knowledge must needs be gained first, then digested and assimilated. It is then a part of the individual and no longer mere knowledge, but is known as wisdom.

Get wisdom if you would live well, and live long and live again.

* * * * *

The victim of the liquor habit, or of almost every other habit, is worthy of sympathy—practical sympathy of the sort not expressed in mere words, but in actions which tend to remove the cause of his trouble by setting his machinery in order so it may work right. He may then be depended upon to do right.

Can you imagine a sane, healthy person deliberately planning to do wrong, or even consenting to do that which he knows is not right and proper?

Such a thing seems quite improbable, if not altogether impossible. At least such a thing could not have been contemplated by the original plan, since it is so greatly at variance with the purpose for which man was made.

You may ask your preacher and your physician for further particulars. They will know, or should know, about it.

Those who teach your children should know, also, in order that they may correct any wrong tendencies in their tastes, appetites or feelings, thus saving them from the inconveniences and sufferings that may follow.

If we were wise—as wise as we might be—we could save ourselves a lot of trouble and make it possible for those who come after us to live in health, peace and prosperity.

Talked of in New York

GEORGE C. JENKS.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 6.—If the threat of the New York liquor dealers to raise the price of beer is carried out it will cause more hardship to a larger class of residents in this city than the average Pittsburgher can realize. One of New York's dearest institutions is the "growler." Thousands of hard working men and women in all parts of the city depend on their beer to keep them fit for their labors. It may be that the drink does them no good actually, but they think it does, and hence the mind probably works beneficially on the body. In retaliation for the proposed raising of the liquor license, it is purposed to make the consumers pay the extra cost and more, too. The liquor dealers will in future charge 15 cents for what is called vernacularly a "pint" of beer, but really is nearer half a gallon. The cost of this indeterminate quantity has hitherto been a dime. Besides this imposition the saloon men threaten to cut off the free lunch altogether. In this city many a laboring man depends on a free lunch for his mid-day meal, reinforced by a "schooner," for which he pays five cents. With beer more expensive and free lunch cut off altogether no wonder there is gloom along the Bowery, in "Hell's Kitchen" and other localities where the new rule will be felt with particular severity.

Holy Week in Manhattan.

Now that we are in holy week New York is trying to assume a properly sad and reflective mien. One cannot see any difference between this Monday and any other in the year so far as the business districts are concerned. But along Fifth avenue, which thoroughfare boasts of more churches than any other in the city, in the Italian district on the upper East Side, and along the decorous residence streets and avenues west of Central park, one can realize easily that this is the most solemn week of the year. The churches all are open and at any time of the day or evening one may find services in progress. There is a great deal of religious feeling in this great Babylon, mercenary and worldly as it is popularly supposed to be.

Splendid Easter Music.

Judging by the faithfulness with which church choirs are rehearsing their Easter music there will be a grand burst of harmony in this city next Sunday such as has never been surpassed. Easter music is good everywhere, of course, but the magnitude of this city and the fact that many artists of world-wide reputation may be heard in the fashionable churches gives particular interest to the services in New York.

Now Comes Baseball.

With the air full of baseball talk that old question in this city whether there shall be Sunday baseball playing is as far from being answered as ever. There were many games in the greater city yesterday, while across the river in Jersey it seemed as if every small club in the neighborhood was out for a field day. It matters little what the respective scores may have been. The point is that everyone played baseball who wanted to do so, and there was no important outcry against it. Of course, Sabbatarians are fighting the practice, as a rule, but there are enough prominent clergymen on the side of the ball players to make them easy as to the outcome.

Harriman's Case an Exceptional One.

Wall street is still discussing the death of William P. Harriman, which is declared to have been the direct result of excitement on the floor of the stock exchange. The general remark is that such cases as that of Mr. Harriman are so exceptional as almost to prove that the strenuousness of Wall street is not harmful. Considering how many men give themselves up to five or six hours of the most terrific excitement on the "street" every day very few serious illnesses or deaths are reported from nervous ailments among Wall street men. Men of affairs die prematurely everywhere—but it is seldom from overstraining in business. The sentiment here is that Wall street is no harder on the constitution than is the daily labor with pick and shovel, or with the pen of men who have never speculated in their lives. When a man dies, as did Mr. Harriman, of overexertion on the floor of the stock exchange, it is the exception and not the rule.

New York Has a Little Horse Show.

New York will have a horse show this week. It will not be "the" horse show, of course, and it will not be held in Madison Square Garden, but in a private training academy. It will be interesting, however, particularly to what is known as the smart set. When the Vanderbilt boys face the George Gould boys in a polo match the enthusiasm will be intense, indeed. There will be other features, but this particular one surely is enough.

Grover a Good Attraction.

Grover Cleveland is a great drawing card on the lecture platform. The announcement that he will make an address on the methods and work of Booker T. Washington and his educational institute at Tuskegee next week has caused a pleasant sensation in New York. The ex-president has decified ideas on any subject on which he speaks, and what views he may express on the question of the future of the colored man will be listened to with close attention. President Roosevelt's attitude on the problem has aroused more interest in it than has been manifest since the days of Lincoln. The meeting will be in Madison Square Garden concert hall.

Long Run of German Opera.

One of the unusual features of the theatrical season in New York this spring is the long run of the Fernecy Opera Company at the Irving place theater. The performances are in German, and hence are presumed to appeal to only a small portion of New York's population. Yet "The Sweet Girl," as the title is in English, has sufficed to pack the theater every night and at the usual matinees for five weeks. This will be its last week, however.

New York Is Surprised.

The publication in New York papers of the immense building to be erected in Pittsburgh for the John Claflin Drygoods Company has caused a sensation in the drygoods district. The way Pittsburgh has been stepping to the front of late in retail commerce, as well as in its own special manufacturing lines, makes New York sit up and wonder. Only a few weeks ago one of the principal furniture houses in Pittsburgh opened a new place in Sixth avenue here, and now the great Claflin firm is going to Pittsburgh. It is indeed lands across the Alleghanies.

Those Shamrock Tests.

From the Philadelphia Press.

The reports from the early trials of speed by Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock III. are very favorable, but they are made in competition with Shamrock I. This vessel was beaten by Shamrock II., which in turn was defeated in the races for the cup. Sir Thomas Lipton has made sacrifices enough to be entitled to win the cup, but the prospect is no more favorable to him at this time than it was at the corresponding time before the last race. Should he win he would be congratulated by many persons on this side because of his pluck and good nature in so often repeating the effort to win.

Rhymes and Reasons.

THE SONG THAT CLIMBED.

There is an inner language whereby the brothers in a craft may speak one with another, and be understood of each other, howsoever far apart and of whatsoever tongue they be. To these craftsmen, and to such of their familiars outside the guild as do apprehend me, I would speak of a song which was written by a sweet and noble youth who was very dear to me, and who, by order of the ever-to-be-feared will of the gods, passed to the land of shadows while yet his day was early and his pure young soul glowing with the music of the spheres. The song which he made and sang to me on that far morning was of a most ravishing witchery, and the strange, sweet, wild music of it haunteth me even now as I tell the little I know of what happened to its maker and his two so venturous companions. (Meditations of Ulula Cinerea):

Half way up the ladder of fame,
Tom fell off and broke his head.
Of course, that put him out of the game.
(The grimy, shiny, wonderful game),
For it killed him very dead.

A scrap of song fell out of his breast
And fluttered toward the barren ground.
Dick saw it flicker before the rest,
(Dick always saw in front of the rest),
And grabbed it with a bound.

Tom's blood-writ lyric mounted with Dick,
But, quarter up, was over weight.
Dick gasped and clung, but couldn't stick
(Dick ever could cling, never could stick),
He fell and broke his pate.

The song climbed up with Harry until
He sang it to the crowding stars.
They chorused it so that it shook the Hill
(Shook the adamant heart of the Hill),
And rattled the Throne of Mars.

Thus far I know, but Harry's fate
Thereafter is more than I can tell.
Perhaps Mars raised him high in state
(Ermined, diamonded, ovran state),
Or kicked him down to dwell

In that old hot place where people roast
For uttering paper not their own.
I think I'd rather be a ghost
(A nice, respectable, quiet ghost)
With Tom and Dick alone.

"It's a pity such a well-educated man as you should be so given to drink."

"Appearances are sometimes deceptive, your honor. I am not given to drink—the drink is given to me."

It does seem a little extravagant for the government to send an expert all the way to the Philippines to catch specimens of snakes when nearly every calaboose in the land is fairly writhing with them six days out of seven.

SUITS.

"Sir, I'll bring another suit!"
"All right, if you can spare it."
"I mean a lawsuit, you galoot!"
"Thanks, horribly! I'll wear it.

"I've worn your old lawsuit so long—"
"They threaten to disbar you."
"My learned brethren do me wrong."
"The learned judge will jar you."

A Wheeling man belongs to 25 secret orders, exclusive of a daily 50 from his spouse which he sagaciously obeys in order to get permission to mingle with the brethren of the 25.

"Excuse me, sir, but—"
"But what? I'm in a hurry."
"Haven't you forgotten something, sir?"
"No, I've had all I want to eat."
"Everything comes to him who waits, sir."
"Ah, so it does! Here's a nickel. Wait till I come around next year and I'll give you another."

In Philadelphia street cars the straps are used only for ornament, and conductors get extra pay for persuading women to get off quickly. In Pittsburgh they deserve extra pay for persuading women to get on slowly.

Naval Gunnery Improvement.

From the New York Tribune.

Only a few weeks ago a report issued from the navy department that there had been a marked decline in the efficiency of our naval gunnery since the close of the Spanish war. This report, it would seem, was an incentive to greater care, for a few days ago there came a report which showed marked improvement in target practice. Then on Friday the world's record for naval markmanship was lowered by the gunners of the Indiana in their practice. The 13-inch guns made 12 hits out of 13 shots, the range being five miles. This is an encouraging sign, and it confirms the prediction made a few weeks ago, when the navy department appointed a board of ordnance experts to supervise a systematic course of target practice on the ships of the North Atlantic squadron that the efficiency of the gun crews would at once improve.

Getting It Down Fine.

From the New York Tribune.

Anybody, in some sort of way, can pay a compliment. But it is the country editor who has this sort of thing down to a fine art. Observe, for example, how a Kansas editor takes in the whole family in the following notice: "A handsome girl baby—which is not to be wondered at, considering its mother—came to Jim Brown's house and will stay until she finds a better fellow than her dad, a thing that will take her many years to do. And Grandfather Fletcher steps high, while Grandmother Fletcher smiles like the good soul she is."

MANY PILGRIMS AT THE SEASHORE

Atlantic City the Mecca Toward Which Thousands Are Now Journeying

MUCH SUBDUED GAIETY

Music and Dancing Are Popular Forms of Entertainment--Fishing Good Just Now—Many Entries for the Annual Dog Show.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Young's Ocean Pier,
ATLANTIC CITY April 6.

Every train arriving in the city today brings a dozen carloads of visitors to swell the Easter crowd which is already the largest in the history of the resort. All that is needed now is sunny weather and within three or four days the season will be in full blast. Though this is holy week there is no suggestion of sackcloth and ashes at the shore. In all of the hotels orchestras give concerts every afternoon and night and there will be half a dozen dances during the week. It should not be understood, however, that reasonable restraint has been cast aside. These dances will be quiet affairs as compared with the mid-season dances.

THE NEW STEEL PIER.

Work on the new pier which will be erected at the foot of Mississippi avenue will commence in about 10 days. The steel piling upon which the superstructure will rest has arrived and as soon as the Easter crowds get out of the way they will be put into the sand. The new pier, if the plans are carried out, will be the most magnificent structure of its kind in the world. It will be 65 feet wide and 2,000 feet long. Fronting on the boardwalk there will be a theater with a seating capacity of 2,500. In this will be played the leading burlesque and vaudeville organizations. In the rear of the theater it is proposed to erect an immense dancing hall for the accommodation of the thousands of excursionists who come here every day during the summer. The hall will be so arranged that it can be turned into an auditorium which will have a seating capacity large enough to accommodate the largest national conventions. The pier will be in the middle of the Bowery district and will have a tendency to keep the excursionists in the lower part of the city.

PLENTY OF GOOD FISHING.

It is too early in the season to go without an overcoat but until winter garments can be doffed nobody thinks of going fishing. But there is good fishing here just now. A party of New Yorkers went out this morning and caught over 80 pounds of flounders and a few herring. Local fishermen are catching all kinds of fish in their nets and the weather sharks among them declare that when fish commence to run north in as great numbers as they are now, continued warm weather will surely follow.

MANY ENTRIES FOR THE DOG SHOW.

With a total entry list of 900, 200 more than last year, the annual bench show of the Atlantic City Kennel club, which opens on Wednesday on the ocean pier, promises to be an exhibition not surpassed by any of the dog shows of the big cities. Local owners of fine dogs are taking a keen interest and there will be exhibits from all over the country, as well as some from Canada.

WELCOME AT THE RICHMOND.

One of the most pleasantly located hotels here is the Hotel Richmond, in Kentucky avenue, facing the beach. Located as it now is, it has a full and unobstructed view of the ocean, bright and cheerful, and is receiving its full quota of patrons from Pittsburgh and other Pennsylvania cities. Mrs. L. Simonson, who is so well and avorably known for her unexcelled table, is the proprietress of this hotel this season, and has spared no pains or expense in each and every department to make her guests comfortable, her mottor being "polite and courteous treatment to all, cleanliness, well and properly cooked food." All improvements of a modern hotel are here found. Steam heat, elevator service to the ground level, electric light, etc.

The front of the house is managed by Mal. G. C. Creger, who needs no introduction to Pittsburghers. Suffice it to say he does all he can to make it pleasant. The chef, Amos Townes, has surrounded himself with an able corps of assistants. But everything is under the immediate direction of Mrs. Simonson. Her rates are reasonable and she will always be glad to welcome our townspeople.

PRESIDENT MAKES TWELVE SPEECHES

Most Strenuous Day of President Trip is Spent in South Dakota.

HE TALKS TO CHILDREN

At Tulare He Descends from the Train and Mingles With People Gathered at Station—Snow May Cause Change of Plans.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ABERDEEN, S. D., April 6.—President Roosevelt today traversed South Dakota and made more speeches than on any other day during his present trip. He began with two speeches at Sioux Falls this morning, and ended his twelfth speech this evening at Aberdeen. The speeches were confined for the most part to the tariff and to the general prosperity of the country. In all his speeches today, he followed closely the lines of his former addresses on these subjects.

One feature of the day was the large number of children in the various audiences, and the president referred to them several times, saying that he was glad to see that the stock was not dying out.

At Tulare the president departed from his usual custom and, descending from his car, shook hands with the people gathered at the station.

At Sioux Falls the president talked about the farmer and the wage earner. In the course of his address he said:

MANY LESSER PROBLEMS.

There are many lesser problems which go to make up in their entirety the huge and complex problems of our modern industrial life. Each of these problems is, moreover, connected with many of the others. Few indeed are simple or stand only by themselves. The most important are those connected with the relation of the farmers, the stock growers and soil tillers, to the community at large, and those affecting the relations between employer and employed. In a country like ours it is fundamentally true that the well-being of the tiller of the soil and the wage worker is the well-being of the state. If they are well off, then we need concern ourselves but little as to how other classes stand, for they will inevitably be well off also; and, on the other hand, there can be no real prosperity unless based on the foundation of the prosperity of the wage worker and the tiller of the soil.

The department of agriculture devotes its whole energy to working for the welfare of farmers and stock growers. In every section of our country it aids them in their constantly increasing search for a better agricultural education.

But the wage-workers in our cities, like the capitalists in our city, face totally changed conditions. The development of machinery and the extraordinary change in business conditions have rendered the employment of capital and of persons in large aggregations not merely profitable but often necessary for success; and have specialized the labor of the wage worker at the same time that they have brought greater aggregations of wage-workers together. More and more in our great industrial centers men have come to realize that they cannot live as independently of one another as in the old days was the case everywhere, and as is now the case in the country districts.

CHIEF FACTOR OF SUCCESS.

Of course, fundamentally, each man will yet find that the chief factor in determining his success or failure in life is the sum of his own individual qualities. He cannot afford to lose his individual initiative, his individual will and power; but he can best use that power if for certain objects he unites with his fellows. Much can be done by organization, combination, much indeed this wage workers finally something can be done by the direct action of the state. It is not possible empirically to declare when the interference of the state should be deemed legitimate and when illegitimate.

Very much of our effort in reference to labor matters should be by every device and expedient to try to secure a constantly better understanding between employer and employe. Everything possible should be done to increase the sympathy and fellow feeling between them, and every chance taken to allow each to look at all questions, especially at questions in dispute, somewhat through the other's eyes.

When we deal with such a subject we are fortunate in having before us an admirable object lesson in the work that has just been closed by the Anthracite coal strike commission. This was the commission which was appointed last fall at the time when the coal strikes in the anthracite regions threatened confusion with a disaster second to none which has befallen us since the days of the civil war. Their report was made just before the senate adjourned at the special session, and no government document of recent years marks a more important piece of work better done, and there is none which teaches sounder social morality to our people.

The immediate effect of this commission's appointment and action was of vast and incalculable benefit to the nation; but the ultimate effect will be even better. It capitalist, wage-worker, and lawmaker alike will take to heart and cast upon the lessons set forth in the report they have made.

There is a possibility of the president's spending a day in Deadwood, S. D. He has made a conditional promise to Capt. Seth Bullock that if the snow is too deep in Yellowstone Park, he will leave there one day earlier than intended, and will spend a day at Deadwood. Bullock has promised the president a good time and is planning a regular cowboy jollification.

The Death Roll.

Mrs. John Shephard.

Mrs. Louisa Fix Shephard, 67 years old, a pioneer resident of Braddock, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Hawes, in Mifflin township. NEWS OF THE HOME AND THE SOCIETY WORLD

SOCIETY | WOMEN'S CLUBS | WOMAN'S CORNER

THE brief visit of M. Leopold Mabilleau yesterday to Pittsburgh to lecture before the Pittsburgh Cercle Alliance Francaise was attended with a great deal of social interest. The lecture was delivered last evening in the hall of the Pittsburgh Conservatory of Music, Dithridge street, and was attended by a large audience of representative people. The subject was "The Relation of Lafayette to the United States," and the lecture, which was wholly in French, was eloquent and presented with a brilliancy of delivery. M. Mabilleau has just completed a two months' course of lectures before Yale, Harvard, Johns Hopkins, Princeton and other leading universities and institutions of learning in the east. In the next two months he will lecture in western cities, going as far as San Francisco, before returning to France.

Yesterday Mrs. John G. Holmes gave a luncheon in honor of the distinguished Frenchman. The guests included, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and M. Mabilleau, M. Aman-Jean, the eminent French portrait painter; Mrs. A. B. Shepherd, Mrs. George A. Gordon, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Litchfield and Richard Skalweit. In the evening Dr. and Mrs. Litchfield gave a small dinner in honor of M. Mabilleau and M. Aman-Jean, who has been their guest for a few weeks.

The lecture was arranged under the direction of a committee consisting of Mrs. A. B. Shepherd, Mrs. George C. Burgwin, Mrs. H. P. Mashta, Mrs. John H. K. Burgwin and Richard A. Skalweit. The officers of the Pittsburgh Cercle Alliance Francaise include Henry Clay Frick, honorary president; Irwin B. Laughlin, president; Mrs. William Scott, Mrs. John G. Holmes and Mrs. Joseph R. Woodwell, vice presidents; Miss Mary Irwin Laughlin, secretary; Edward A. Woods, treasurer, with Miss Hegeman, Miss Suydam, Mrs. A. P. Burgwin, Mrs. A. B. Shepherd, Mrs. Paschal Carr, Mrs. George C. Burgwin, Mrs. William G. Jones, Bowman Sweitzer and Dr. Lawrence Litchfield, directors.

Newman-Rubinstein.

A marriage of much interest in Jewish circles in the Monongahela valley, and in this city, was that of Miss Helen Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Newman of Talbot avenue, Braddock, and Dr. L. G. Rubinstein of Fourth street, Braddock. The service was performed last evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride by the Rev. Dr. J. Leonard Levy, Rabbi of the Eighth Street temple, this city. There were no attendants, but the guests numbered about 150 from various towns in Western Pennsylvania, together with a number of Philadelphia, Cleveland and New York. A wedding supper and reception followed the ceremony, and the couple left for a trip in the east and south. The father of the bride is a merchant of Braddock, and the bridegroom is a physician. Dr. and Mrs. Rubinstein will reside in West Braddock.

Goes to Canada for His Bride.

On Wednesday evening of this week, at Petrolia, Canada, Miss Anna Hawkins will become the bride of M. J. Burt Callander of Franklin avenue, Wilkinsburg. The news of Mr. Callander's approaching marriage is received with much surprise by his friends. J. Arthur Callander, a brother of the groom-elect, will be best man. Mr. and Mrs. Callander will return to Wilkinsburg Friday and will make their home there.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Reinecke of 727 Liberty street, Allegheny, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mathilda, to Ward Lorraine Foultz. The ceremony will take place at the bride's home May 20, and after an extended eastern trip of 12 days, the couple will be at home Thursdays. Mr. Foultz is connected with the W. C. Jutte Coal Company. Miss Reinecke was formerly organist of the Highland Avenue Presbyterian church, Allegheny.

Concert in Leetsdale.

Miss Marion Gaston of Sewickley, soprano, and Miss Tyndall of Glenfield, contralto, assisted by the Apollo Male Quartet of Sewickley, composed of David Ornitsher, Harry Van Cleve, Paul J. Quinn and James Downing, will give a concert in Leetsdale Friday evening. The proceeds will go to the Leetsdale Methodist Episcopal church.

Dinner This Evening.

Mrs. W. L. Abbott will give a dinner this evening in honor of the Marquis and Marquise D'Amodio. Mrs. Abbott will go to New York next week to make a short visit and to take her daughter, Miss Jeannette Abbott, back to school at Farmington.

Ghosts at a Party.

The Misses Wragg of Bank street, Sewickley, have issued cards for a "ghost party" at their home Thursday evening. Masks and sheets will be worn by the guests.

"OUR Contemporary Ancestors" is the characterization Dr. William G. Frost, president of Berea college, in Berea, Ky., gives to the people living in the mountains of Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee and northern Alabama. Dr. Frost spoke yesterday morning before the Twentieth Century club, in the afternoon speaking to the members of the Women's Press club in the Hotel Lincoln. He said:

"In these southern mountains, in the midst of which stands Berea college, are 2,000,000 people, many of them of revolutionary ancestry, having gone west from Virginia in the pioneer days, just as people went west from Massachusetts and the New England states. But shut in in the frontier homes which they established by natural barriers of mountains, no inland lake, no rivers to give them water-ways for their agricultural products they became dependent wholly upon their home products, and the arts and industries which they practice today are the same they used a century ago. They are not a degraded people, but a people who have not been graded up."

These people Dr. Frost considers the means by which racial prejudice between the north and south may be overcome. They were loyal to the union. They are landholders but never were slave-holders. They constitute the link by which the south can be reached. They are the middle class which is lacking in the far south. Very many of them are of Scotch-Irish ancestry and their language contains many of the old Saxon forms found in use in Shakespeare and the English writers before the revolution.

Berea college is carrying on a university extension work in the mountains. Tours are planned and starting out the extension workers visit the school houses, speaking in each one and sending a boy a day ahead to notify the people. Illustrated lectures and talks are given. The extension work is regarded as of great educational value to the people than conferences and conventions, and reaching more and scattered districts.

First Semi-Annual Meeting.

The program of the United Literary clubs of Homestead has its plans well under way for the first semi-annual meeting to be held April 16 in the United Presbyterian church, Fourth and Amity streets. The first hour will be a reception to the members of the different clubs. The following reception committee has been appointed: Miss Bessie Mechling, Miss Ilma Howard, Mrs. L. L. Davis, Mrs. H. D. Cosett, Mr. H. E. Johns, Mr. Roy McClure, Mrs. George Filun, Mrs. W. F. Stevens, Mrs. E. A. Norton, Mrs. E. B. Dolin, Miss Sue Bulleck and Miss Lulu Diss.

Reports will be presented by members of the following clubs: The Women's club, the Outlook club, the Pittsburgh Study club, the Woman's Improvement club, the Munhall Teachers' Study club and the Monongahela Valley Library association. Miss Katie C. Knight will speak on "The Club Movement in Allegheny County." Dr. Nathan C. Shaeffer, state superintendent of education, will follow with an address on "The Value of Systematic Study and the Organization of Clubs as Its Stimulus." The latter part of the program is for an open meeting and all the clubs in Homestead and the Valley Federation are invited. The music will be fine. The Rev. N. D. Hyndson, who is president of the United Literary clubs, and Mrs. Wyeld Gaston, who is president of the Speidel club of Munhall, as chairman of the program committee, will see that every one in attendance is made welcome.

Officers of the Hex Club.

The members of the Hex club of Wilkinsburg have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Chairman, M. H. Henning; vice chairmen, W. A. Alexander, F. H. Anderson; financial secretary, James G. Storer; recording secretary, Louis F. Kinley; corresponding secretary, Robert S. Mauk; treasurer, Central National bank of Wilkinsburg; auditor, John Meikle. The following were elected to serve as financial trustees: E. E. Mellor, John F. Miller, the Rev. N. D. Welsh, F. P. Lee, Francis M. Miller. The new directors are: H. M. Henning, F. H. Anderson, W. A. Alexander, the Rev. W. A. Minnich, C. C. Wardell, Robert W. Haven, John Meikle, R. M. Ewing, the Rev. John M. Moore, Dr. O. L. Biachley, S. S. Smith, J. Frank Miller, the Rev. William P. Farmer and James G. Storer.

Lecture Course Opened.

At a meeting of the lecture committee of the educational department of the Civic club yesterday morning it was decided to open the course of lectures to be given this spring in the school buildings, on Friday evening, April 10, when Dr. Francis Henry Wade will deliver his lecture on "Mormonism and the Mormons," in the Franklin school building. On Monday evening, April 13, Dr. David Breed will lecture in the Soho school, his subject being the "Mountains of the East and West." This lecture will be superbly illustrated with colored stereopticon views prepared by Dr. Breed himself.

Eighteen lectures will be delivered this spring in six schoolhouses. This is one of the most attractive features of the work of the educational department, and its progress will be watched with a great deal of interest. The purpose of the series is to provide entertainment, instruction and recreation for the people of the different neighborhoods where the school buildings are located, making the school buildings the center from which will radiate social and intellectual influences. It is one form of social settlement work.

Dr. Allyn's Lecture.

Dr. G. W. Allyn delivered an instructive and amusing lecture last evening before the members of the Business Women's club of Allegheny, on "First Principles of Photography." The lecture began with the first steps in photography, showing how to take a picture, how to develop the plate, print, finish and mount the picture. All through the lecture questions were asked and little instructive answers given.

The needlessness of expense was also demonstrated. Dr. Allyn explaining how even a dark room can be made by a box of paper. A flashlight picture was taken of one of the audience posing as St. Cecilia, but this, on account of the light, did not turn out well.

Over 50 lantern slides were used to illustrate the lecture. These were pictures taken in England, Wales and Japan, all of them perfect specimens. The work of this year's class in china painting, Miss Anna Marie Jenks, was on exhibition on the second floor of the club building. Many handsome pieces of china were shown.

Bath House to Be Enlarged.

At a meeting of the directors of the Civic club yesterday plans were decided upon for the enlargement of the Peoples Baths, the gift of Mrs. William Thaw, Jr., as a memorial to her husband, and located in Penn avenue and Sixteenth street. The plans chosen will give 12 additional shower baths, 22 being the number now in use.

The great demand has necessitated the enlargement. In March, when the weather was coldest, the benches in the waiting room were lined with men waiting their turn, and in the summer time a hundred and more are daily turned away because they cannot be accommodated. The erection of the Schenley Baths in the Wylie avenue district has not lessened the demand at the Penn avenue baths.

The work of enlargement will be begun as soon as possible and it is hoped it will be completed by July 1.

Starting the Ball Rolling.

At the meeting of the Women's Press club yesterday at the Hotel Lincoln, a resolution was presented and adopted indorsing Miss Kate McKnight as a candidate for the presidency of the state federation of Pennsylvania Women. The annual meeting of which will hold a meeting in Philadelphia April 23, when nominations for the various offices will be made. The western district of Pennsylvania, of which Miss Virginia Knight is honorary president, is represented on this committee by Mrs. William F. Abell, Women's Press club; Mrs. A. J. Cover, Lawrenceville New Century club, both of Pittsburgh; Miss Julia E. Perkins, Women's club, Erie, and Mrs. Sara G. Hamaker, Women's Literary club, Bradford. Mrs. George W. Baer, who is chairman of the committee, will give a luncheon for the members at her home in Philadelphia on Thursday, April 23, the day of the meeting.

Valley Library Association.

The first regular meeting of the Monongahela Valley Library association was held in the Carnegie library at Braddock yesterday. George H. Lamb read a paper on "Libraries in Relation to School Work." It was thoroughly practical, being the outgrowth of Mr. Lamb's experience in the Braddock library. The discussion by the librarians was spirited and dwelt on supplementary reading, picture work and professional reading.

The association voted to join the United Library clubs of Homestead and vicinity, and appointed George H. Lamb to read a report on the history and purpose of the association before the first meeting, which is to be held Thursday evening, April 16, in the United Presbyterian church, Homestead.

Last Artists' Day.

The meeting of the Women's club of Sewickley tomorrow afternoon will be the last artists' day for the year. Miss Amy Murray will give a lecture-recital of old Scottish songs and ballads.

Cleanliness is next to godliness, so they say. But even so, there is no need to make an idol or a fetish of the broom and the dustpan. No housekeeper needs to have rolls of dust under the sofa, or accumulated grime in the bath tub, but there is a golden mean in cleanliness, as in all else. It is all very well to keep things bright and shining, but there is such a thing as painful neatness. Out in the country one sometimes meets an array of door mats which if properly used would wear out a pair of shoes before the guest was half way to the door. The city housekeeper, with house directly on the street, has not such golden opportunities of porch and step as those just described, but she sometimes gets even by laying down strips of floor covering in little paths all over the house "to save the carpet." On the same principal she will keep the curtain drawn, for fear that the carpet will become faded, or that dust will drift in through the open window. It is rather funny, when you come to think about it, these poor souls spending their lives warring with dirt, and finally being buried in it. Try to keep your house reasonably clean, and give the rest of your energy to better things.

SALLIE CARROLL.

A healthy condition of the skin may be had by daily bathing, plenty of fresh air and experience, and wholesome food. Perfect cleanliness is essential, and it must be remembered that bathing is for the purpose of staying clean, not merely to get clean. Every day the face, more than any other part, is exposed to the dust, and constant care is necessary to preserve absolute neatness. Wash the face carefully morning and night and let the water be neither too hot nor too cold. A basinful of warm water to which is added two spoonfuls of oatmeal will have a beneficial effect in softening the skin. Rain water, if obtainable, is best to use for the face. When washing the face use the fingers; press them firmly into the skin, being particular to bathe the corners of the eyes, nose and mouth, where specks of dust may have collected. A lather of good soap and a soft cloth may then be used. Every particle of soap must be rinsed off. The finishing process should be with cold water to which is added a few drops of alcohol or colonge. Dry the face thoroughly with a towel of soft texture. Care in drying will prevent chapping or roughness. The face should not be washed just before one goes out in the cold air or directly after one comes in.

For a child's birthday party get ice cream in the shape of animals. This always delights them. Fancy cakes with icing and nuts they prefer to sliced cake. Lemonade that has orange and cherries in it pleases their sense of beauty. Stick candy of different flavors they prefer to French confections, and they all like tiny sandwiches tied in gaily-colored ribbons. Arrange the table something on the order of the foot of a Christmas tree. Make a large centerpiece of green moss with Noah's ark in the center and plenty of animals scattered around, many tiny dolls and tin soldiers, tied with all colors of ribbons, parading around the table. Have one for each child, and when the supper is over let each one take their choice. This will delight them far more than the most expensive hot-house flowers.

One of the smartest new bags, to wear at the waist or to carry in the hand, is of gun metal and has a fringe of crystals at the bottom and a chain of rough pearls to carry it by. Large bags of bright red morocco leather with gold mountings are a fad in Paris, and a few of them are to be seen in town already. They are not the most convenient things in the world, as they are so large that they are almost as much care and responsibility as a valise or suit case, but they are gay and pretty, and—above all—the fashion, and hold unlimited quantities of small things, such as kerchiefs, powder-puffs, and small parcels. So popular are these big flat bags with the woman shopper from out of town that the men in the leather shops call them suburban chatelaines.

WHY A BOY NEEDS A WATCH

Campbell Will Give Him One This Week as an Easter Present.

The boy who works and has no watch will never know when quitting time comes. But if he possesses one of the handsome nickel-plated "Yankee" timepieces that Campbell is giving away he will be prompt in the morning, regular at meals, will know enough to get up and in general will be a more methodical boy and a more valuable person to have around in consequence of convenient access to the correct time.

Campbell gives one of these watches this week with every boy's suit that goes out of the clothing department and leaves $3.50 or more behind. And the timepiece is guaranteed for one year.

OFFICERS CHOSEN FOR MINISTERIAL BODIES

Three Associations Elected New Officials at Their Meetings Yesterday.

The Rev. Dr. A. R. Van Fossen, the retiring president of the Presbyterian Ministerial association of Pittsburgh, in an address before that body yesterday morning charged that the church went backward during the year he was president. He claimed that the people were in too big a rush these days, and suffered spiritually as a consequence.

The Rev. A. E. Linn was elected president to succeed Dr. Van Fossen. The other officers elected are: Vice president, the Rev. D. S. Kennedy; secretary and treasurer, the Rev. C. S. Beatty; executive committee, the Revs. J. G. Bruce, O. N. Servier, A. A. Stevenson. The Rev. A. H. Jolley presented the association with a gavel made of wood from a tree on the shores of the sea of Galilee.

The ministers of the Methodist Episcopal association elected these officers: President, the Rev. R. L. Rhodes; secretary and treasurer, the Rev. E. M. Wood; vice president, the Rev. Arthur Smith.

The Methodist Protestant ministers elected the Rev. D. L. E. Davis chairman and the Rev. H. L. Freeman secretary. The paper of the day, "Polygamy," was read by the Rev. C. F. Swift of Beaver Falls.

The Rev. Dr. D. A. C. McClenahan gave a talk to the United Presbyterian ministers on the work of the psalm revision committee, of which he is a member. He said that the committee, which began work in 1900, had completed the revision of psalms up to the one hundred and nineteenth. The committee meets in New York tomorrow.

"The Resurrection and the Ascension" was the topic of a paper read before the Baptist ministers by the Rev. W. H. McIlveen. He said that the doctrine of the ascension of Christ had never been attacked, but the resurrection had. The ascension, he said, was not a doctrine essential to salvation.

FRIENDS WILL RAISE THE MONEY NEEDED

Pennsylvania College for Women Is to Secure Enough to Pay Debts.

The Pennsylvania College for Women will not be closed on account of a lack of financial support. The friends of the famous old institution will rally to its support and lift it from the slough of debt which threatened to put the school out of existence. At the meeting of the board of trustees on Thursday plans will be taken up for the payment of all debts and further to secure an endowment which will place the college on a sound financial basis.

Dr. William L. McEwan, president of the board of trustees, stated yesterday that he was most hopeful for the outcome of the work which the trustees have undertaken.

"There is a considerable amount of money in hand or within easy reach," said Dr. McEwan, president of the board of trustees, "and the meeting on Thursday will be for the purpose of deciding on the details in our campaign of collecting an endowment. Just what measures will be adopted I cannot state, as several of the trustees will have suggestions to make. However, the work will be undertaken with spirit and the determination to succeed. The prayers of every friend of education is with us in the cause and we are sanguine of raising a fund which will place the institution on a firm financial footing."

Alumni of the Pennsylvania College for Women are to be found in many of Pittsburgh's most prominent and wealthy families, and the opinion prevails that donations will come in a liberal manner when the old graduates are brought face to face with the conditions which threatened to close the doors of their beloved alma mater. A fund exceeding $100,000 is now in sight. It had been suggested that bonds could be issued, which would go a long way in restoring the amount of cash needed.

The opinion now prevails among some of the trustees that this scheme may be necessary and that some good friends of the institution will come to its rescue with generous gifts.

METHODS TO IMPROVE THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Presbyterial Association Discussed Important Subjects at Convention.

The Presbyterial Sabbath School association of the Pittsburgh presbytery held its annual convention in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church, Wood street, yesterday. The chair was taken by President Harry E. Carmack, with the following officers: Vice president, the Rev. A. W. Verner and R. B. MacHatton; treasurer, W. A. Boothe, secretary, William C. Lilley.

The report of the treasurer showed that the financial condition of the association is behind that of 1902, due to the fact that a number of Sabbath schools had not reported. The old officers were re-elected.

After devotional services in the evening, led by W. C. Lilley, a round-table conference was held on the welfare of the Sunday school. Four topics, or questions, were discussed, the first being "What Part Should We as Presbyterians Have in the World's Sunday School Work?" Edward S. Gray declared that Presbyterians should be the leaders in this as in other things, and that missionary work should be carried on in other fields toward the establishment of new schools. He thought the international system of work with other denominations a good idea.

As to the statement that the "Sunday schools are not holding their own," there were many opinions, but the majority combatted the idea. If the Sunday school is losing ground it was urged that the fault was with the members of the church and should be remedied. It was also suggested that each leader give more attention to her pupils to learn why they were not in attendance regularly and by personal visits to them show they were personally interested.

The question as to the greatest need of the Sunday school brought forth various suggestions. More Bibles and the teaching of the pupils to study them intelligently were favored.

What the real end of the Sunday school meant, was interpreted to be the teaching of reverence for God and the facts of the Bible, so as to bring the children in close touch with Jesus Christ and develop the feeling that He is a personal Saviour—to bring them to a conclous, loving and obedient relationship with God such as one friend has for another when it turns to her when in trouble.

Among those prominent in the discussion were Messrs. Thomas F. Bafrey, James M. Moore, Prof. J. B. Hench and the Rev. O. N. Verner.

GOLDEN WEDDING OF TWO AGED ALLEGHENIANS

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walter Celebrate 50th Anniversary of Their Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Walter celebrated their golden wedding at their home, No. 1122 Ivier avenue, Allegheny, last night. The guests included many old friends, among them being the groom at the wedding 50 years ago, George Rohlhous, who is 84 years old. Five children were at the gathering—William G., Charles, Henry and Catherine of Allegheny and Christ of Lakeville, O. There were eight grandchildren present.

The Rev. R. J. Schuh, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, Allegheny, of which Mr. and Mrs. Walter have been members for almost 50 years, officiated at the regular wedding service last night, which is a ritual service of the German Lutheran church. The introit, the reading of the 103d Psalm and the prayer were in German and the address of the minister to the couple was in English. After the ceremony the 75 guests made merry at a sumptuous repast and none enjoyed the festivities any more than the distinguished couple.

Among the old friends who were present were Mrs. Vogel, aged 82; Mrs. John Aemer, aged 74, George Dort of Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brooker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beezer of Wexford, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Young of Millvale, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Reinecke of Allegheny. The couple received many presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter were both born in Grosse Von, Hessen, Germany, and came to this country, settling in Allegheny, in 1852. They were married in the old St. John's Lutheran church by the Rev. Mr. Frederick. Since that time they have lived all their lives in Allegheny. Several pieces of furniture were displayed last night which Mr. Walter, who is a cabinetmaker, made at the time of their wedding. Mr. Walter is 73 and his wife is 72 years old.

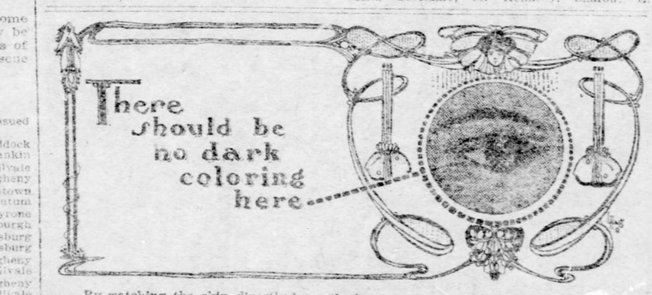
SPRING TERM BEGINS APRIL 6, 1903.



By watching the skin directly beneath the eyes, a woman (or a man either, for that matter) can accurately tell whether or not her system is in a good healthy condition. A darkened skin beneath the eyes indicates an internal disorder somewhere. The chances are it is due to coffee. At least we know that the most successful sanitarium in the world for the treatment of stomach disorders, a purely philanthropic institution, refuses to take patients who will not give up the use of coffee. The directors have reached the conclusion that no body can be made healthy while coffee is used.

A woman is very foolish to hamper her health with coffee when "at last," to take its place, she can have a really inviting healthful beverage with a fragrant aroma and exquisite flavor, a beverage which charms all who try it, and time and again has shown its remarkably beneficial effects on those who use it in place of coffee—Excel Blend (English Formula). DURHAM CALLS UPON GOVERNOR

Probable That Scheme to Rip Stone Out of Capitol Commission Was Discussed.

OTHER LEADERS ARRIVE

Elkin and Eyre in Harrisburg on Special Mission That Is Kept Silent—Quay Fails to Appear as Expected.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
HARRISBURG, April 6.

Insurance Commissioner Durham arrived tonight. He called at the executive mansion and had a long talk with Gov. Pennypacker. Mr. Durham refused to give any information as to the purpose of his visit, or to discuss matters which were the subject of the conference.

Ex-Attorney General John P. Elkin and T. Larry Eyre, ex-superintendent of public grounds and buildings, came from Philadelphia on the same train as Mr. Durham. Senator Quay was bulletined to come, but changed his mind. There is much speculation concerning the assembling of the Republican leaders. Probably the most difficult problem to be faced is the capitol commission ripper. Quay and Pennypacker, Senator White says, want the bill parsed in its present form. Several compromise propositions have, or will be, it is said, submitted to the governor. One is that the governor alone be added, his authority to name another member to be stricken from the bill. Another proposition is that the governor be added and that he shall obtain control by the appointment of a member to fill a vacancy to be created by the resignation of a present member of the commission, thus limiting the commission membership to six, instead of seven, as provided in the pending bill. No one seems to know which of the present members is willing to resign, but it is believed that it is either ex-Gov. Stone or Senator Snyder.

Close friends of Gov. Pennypacker declare that he will not agree to either of the propositions stated; that he dislikes the opposition to the bill quite remarkable and possibly provocative of the opinion that the commission should be reorganized.

Commissioner Durham expects to remain here several days, and the fate of all important measures will be decided before he leaves.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

ORDER GIVEN TO PASS ANTI-CARTOON MEASURE

New Libel Law Introduced and Also Backed by State Powers.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, PA., April 6.—There is to be a determined effort to pass an anti-cartoon bill and new libel law unless Representative Cooper of Delaware is mistaken. Mr. Cooper declared tonight that "orders were out" to pass the Pusey bill. It is assumed that a new libel bill introduced by Representative Salus of Philadelphia tonight will be similarly backed. Representative Cooper is expected to lead the fight against both measures. On motion of Representative Moore of Philadelphia, the Pusey anti-cartoon bill was tonight sent back to the judiciary general committee for amendment. An effort will be made to report it out at once.

The Salus libel bill is one of the most drastic measures of the character ever introduced in the legislature. The bill provides among other things that civil actions may be begun against the proprietors, publishers and managing editors of newspapers for damages resulting from negligence on their part in making publications affecting the character, reputation or business of citizens. Compensatory damages may be received for injuries to business or reputation resulting from such publication as well as damages for physical and mental suffering endured by the injured party or parties. The bill requires the publication on the editorial pages of newspapers the names of the owners, publishers or proprietors, and of the managing editors and of the responsible heads of corporations when the publications are issued by corporations. Damages may be received at the rate of from 15 cents to $1 for each copy of the paper printed containing the publication.

Senator Cooper issued the following tonight:

To the Publishers and Editors of Pennsylvania:

The Salus libel bill was introduced tonight and may take the place of the Pusey anti-cartoon bill, which was sent to the same committee. There is yet time to pass either or both, separately or joined together. Both are assaults upon the liberty of the press, the Salus measure, the boldest yet made. Resistance, open and speedy, should be the order, and all members should be informed as to home sentiment.

NEW COUNTY MEASURE IS KILLED BY HOUSE

Representative Hohman Makes Earnest Appeal for Favorable Action, but Fails.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, PA., April 6.—Representative Hohman of Cambria county made an earnest effort tonight to have the new county bill, negatively reported last week, placed on the calendar, but the house was deaf to eloquence, defeating the motion by a vote of 60 to 55. Friends of the bill claim that many pledges have been broken since the bill was introduced. They will try again two years hence.

Mohr of Berks offered a resolution that the Rex water bill be recommitted to the house municipal corporations committee for a public hearing. Consideration of the resolution was postponed for the present.

White of Lackawanna called up his resolution to place on the calendar his bill, which was negatived by the judiciary general committee, prohibiting government by injunction. The resolution was defeated, 43 to 81.

Ammerman of Montour offered a resolution, which failed, that the committee on elections be discharged from further consideration of his uniform primary election bill.

Mayne of Lehigh offered a resolution, which lies over one week, to place on the calendar his negatived bill compelling the financial institutions under the control of the commonwealth to turn into the state treasury all unclaimed deposits, unjustly and improperly held by them.

The calendar was cleared of first reading bills, after which a brief service in memory of the late Mr. Anderson of Washington, was held.

TWO UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Governor Vetoes Three Bills Sent Him by Legislature—One Regulates Barbering.

HARRISBURG, April 6.—Gov. Pennypacker informed the senate this afternoon that he had vetoed three more senate bills among them being the bill regulating the practicing of barbering. The governor says the measure would appear to be in violation of the constitution, which provides that the legislature shall not pass any local or special law regulating labor or trade.

Another bill vetoed authorized any railroad corporation of this state to sell, transfer and convey a part or parts of its railroad to any other railroad corporation whose railroad connects with such part or parts. The governor says the bill would permit a railroad to purchase a competing line, which is a violation of the constitution.

The third bill disapproved makes it lawful for municipalities in order to collect claims for water rent and lighting rates to collect the same by means of cutting off the supply of water or light.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR MEASURE IS REPORTED

Senate Passes Number of Bills Appropriating Money for Pittsburgh Institutions.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, April 6.—Among the bills reported to the senate from the committee, was the house bill establishing a department of labor. Mr. Emery of Mercer introduced these bills:

Providing that railroad and railway corporations shall have their employes instructed by competent surgeons in "first aid to the wounded," and also compelling the corporations to keep in locomotives, cabooses, freight cars and all railroad passenger and parlor cars and street railway cars, a medicine box containing bandages, etc.

Appropriating $10,000 to the Mercer academy and school of music.

Providing that the insurance commissioner and secretary of the commonwealth shall be compensated entirely by salary, and that all fees received by them be turned into the treasury, and that the salary of the insurance commissioner be $6,000 and that of the secretary of the commonwealth $8,000.

The senate concurred in the amendments inserted by the house in a number of senate bills, and the calender was cleared of bills on first and second reading.

The house bill, popularly known as the "Anti-Free Lunch Bill," was affirmatively reported from committee.

The bill authorizing township commissioners of the first class to levy and collect a license tax on stages, hacks, carriages and other vehicles carrying persons or property for pay, and to limit the rate of fares to be charged, which was recalled from the governor, was passed finally.

The bills introduced by Senator Roberts of Montgomery and Senator Crawford of Allegheny, providing for good roads, were passed finally, and now go to the house.

These bills were also passed finally:

House bill providing that watchers at elections must be residents of the district or division within which they act.

Empowering county commissioners to make annual contributions to county agricultural or horticultural societies.

Amending the anthracite and bituminous mining laws by raising the minimum age at which children can be employed inside the mines, from 14 to 16 years, and outside the mines, from 12 to 14.

The following house appropriation bills were passed finally and now go to the governor:

Home of Industry for discharged prisoners, Philadelphia, $14,000; Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, $260,000; Pennsylvania soldiers' and sailors' Home, Erie, $110,000; Kane Summit hospital, $11,000; for support of the national guard, $780,000; Women's Homeopathic association of Pennsylvania, $21,200; for the current expenses of the state board of health, $13,000; St. Francis' hospital, Pittsburgh, $8,000; Nason hospital, Roaring Springs, Blair county, $6,000; Homeopathic Medical and Surgical hospital, Pittsburgh, $57,500; Altoona hospital, $30,000; Bethseda home, Pittsburgh, $5,000.

The bill regulating the sale of poisons and narcotics, drugs, chemicals and medicines and patent and proprietary medicines or preparations consisting in whole or in part of the same, was defeated.

The Susquehanna canal bill, which passed the house, was not taken up when it was reached on the calendar.

WILL MAKE GAS FROM HOT IRON ORE AND COAL

Transatlantic Gas Company With Capital of $1,500,000 Has Large Plans.

Plans to develop on a large scale the Williams patents for the manufacture of both illuminating and fuel gas will be carried forward by the Transatlantic Gas Company of Pittsburgh, which was incorporated a week ago and on Saturday last increased its capital from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 and formed an organization.

The officers are: President, David R. Torrence, city treasurer of Pittsburgh; secretary and treasurer, James J. Kennedy, Pittsburgh; directors, Messrs. Torrence and Kennedy, A. E. Masten, George McMullen, J. G. Splane, B. J. H. Carnegie, Pittsburgh; John Hagemater, Allegheny, and George Fowler, vice president of the Union Pottery Company, East Liverpool.

Tests of the patents have been made at a plant in East Liverpool. These have been under way for some time and approximately $50,000 has been spent in developing the ideas. The process involves the use of powdered iron ore and powdered coal. Oxygen is extracted from the ore by heat and then allowed to form carbon monoxide by passing over the coal heated in another retort. The combustible monoxide is the gas to be used. In burning it forms carbon dioxide or carbonic acid gas. The iron ore immediately reoxidizes itself upon exposure to the air. It is claimed that the same ore can be used over and over again with practically no waste in this method, and that carbon monoxide gas is capable of cheaper production by this than by any other method and possesses in addition greater heating and illuminating power than any other available gas.

The par value of the company's stock is $100 the share. The charter was obtained in New Jersey through the New Jersey Corporation Guarantee and Trust Company, of which Paul W. Miller is the manager at Pittsburgh.

MRS. PORTER DIES IN PARIS

Wife of United States Ambassador Expires Suddenly at the Embassy.

GENERAL IS PROSTRATED

Unexpected Death Caused Grief in American Colony—Was Active in Church and Charitable Work and Official Social Circles

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, April 6.—Mrs. Horace Porter, wife of the United States ambassador here, died suddenly this afternoon of congestion of the lungs, following a chill.

The death of Mrs. Porter came with very great suddenness, making the shock to the ambassador doubly severe. She returned from Switzerland only a few days ago, after a stay of some weeks there for her health. Mrs. Porter appeared much improved, but was still suffering from influenza, which finally brought on a chill. It was not until today that her condition was regarded as really serious. Gen. Porter, Mrs. Porter's brother, Gen. Winslow and the attending physicians were at the bedside. The ambassador is completely prostrated.

Mrs. Porter died at the United States embassy, in the life of which she had always taken a leading part. Her death caused great surprise and sorrow throughout the American colony. Secretary Vignaux has taken active charge of the funeral arrangements, but no definite plans have yet been made.

The ambassador had just recovered from a severe attack of the grip which leads to some solicitude concerning the effect the blow may have upon him. The illness kept him confined to the house for a month and compelled him to give up his projected trip to Greece.

The various absent members of the family were notified by telegraph and cable. The only daughter, Elsie, was in Germany; the eldest son, Horace, was on a trip for the benefit of her health, and the general's only son, Clarence Porter, is in New York. Word was also communicated to the United States government and to the French authorities.

Mrs. Porter was a member of Dr. Thurber's Presbyterian church, in the Rue de Berri, which is known as the American church, and where the funeral ceremonies probably will be held. Dr. Thurber called at the American embassy this evening to express the condolences of himself and a great number of his parishioners, with whom Mrs. Porter had been brought into intimate association. At the public receptions of the embassy she had taken a personal interest in entertaining the throngs of American visitors, thus endearing her throughout the American colony. Dr. Thurber said that Mrs. Porter had been active in many branches of the charitable work of the American church. Many expressions of esteem also have come from diplomatic and official circles with whom she had been brought into constant association by the exacting social requirements of Gen. Porter's high diplomatic rank.

AKRON WOMAN KILLS A PEEPING THOMAS

AKRON, O., April 6.—Mrs. Susan Updike was placed in jail here today charged with causing the death of Andrew Fasnacht. Mrs. Updike confessed to the killing, saying that Fasnacht was hanging the part of a "peeping Tom" at her home, and she hit him on the head with a club, fracturing his skull. The man was killed Saturday night, and the body lay in the yard of Mrs. Updike's home till Sunday afternoon before it was discovered.

KOCH INHALATIONS

FILL EVERY PATIENT WITH HOPE.

CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CATARRH.

In the past it has been a dreadful certainty that consumption working in the midst of families meant Death. This is no longer so. Nature does not maliciously work great and incurable ravages without providing in its great storehouse of knowledge a cure. Professor Robt. Koch of Berlin discovered a cure—a lymph which destroys the tuberculosis bacilli and which arrests and cures the disease. This tuberculin, or lymph, is made under the supervision of the German government, and the KOCH LUNG CURE of Pittsburgh are vaporizing the tuberculin, and patients, when inhaling this marvelous medication, are inhaling life and cure and renewed health. The healing, oily vapors breathed directly into the seat of the disease, gets to work fighting the deadly germs and destroys them. Medication through the stomach is avoided—the appetite and digestion are improved and in a short time the patient is filled with encouraging prospects of a permanent cure. The Koch Lung Cure gives all persons who apply one treatment and thorough examination free. Skillful physicians and nurses in attendance. Pamphlet sent free to any address on application.

THE Pennsylvania-Wabash Fight Had Its Inception Over the Canton & East Liverpool Road Six Years Ago.

The Gould and Rockefeller vs. Cassatt and Loree fight contested by the Wabash and Standard Oil interests on one hand and the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio on the other, in which the entire railroad situation in the United States is now involved, is said to have had its origin in the formation, about six years ago, of the Canton & East Liverpool Railroad Company. Pennsylvania officials found that by constructing a line leaving the Ft. Wayne at Canton and connecting with the Cleveland & Pittsburgh at East Liverpool, the grade out of Pittsburgh would be cut down, and the distance shortened. For some reason the road was not built. Then a few business men organized the Canton & East Liverpool railroad. They had the control eventually of the route formerly held by Pittsburgh capitalists, which in new hands became a menace to two roads, the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore & Ohio. The latter road purchased the Canton & East Liverpool holdings, when the Pennsylvania floated a large indebtedness and purchased the controlling interest of the Baltimore & Ohio. War began when the Pennsylvania railroad took a hand in the oil business and the Cassatt had failed in the oil business and the Rockefeller element went into the railroad business. The Wabash was selected as the weapon with which to combat the Pennsylvania. It had the only means of a short route into Pittsburgh. The fight since then is well known.

Will Rebuild C. & P. Road.

The changes which the Pennsylvania Company proposes to make on the main line of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh from the mouth of Yellow Creek to Salineville are much more extensive than the original plans called for. Not only is the road to be double-tracked, but for several miles both tracks and the entire route are to be rebuilt on an entirely different right-of-way, which in some places is at quite a distance from the present right-of-way. The county commissioners went over the proposed route with the Pennsylvania officials and were surprised at the railway company's plans. They will abolish three grade crossings and about nine bridges. The present main line of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh from the mouth of Yellow Creek to Clarke's Junction crosses and recrosses the creek nine or ten times, so that short stretches of the new line are scattered along on both sides of the stream.

Plans Approved.

Plans have been approved by the officials of the Baltimore & Ohio for the four-tracking of the line as far east as Versailles. The ordinance asking for right-of-way in that borough has been passed, and everything is about ready to award the contract for building the two additional tracks. When the work is completed the road will have four tracks between Pittsburgh and Versailles, with the exception of a small stretch in McKeesport. The company desired to build four tracks through that city, but the real estate was too costly.

Telephone Exchange Installed.

A new private telephone exchange has been installed by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie at McKees Rocks. It will connect the railroad shops at McKees Rocks with the yard offices at the same place and with the company's exchange at the South Side terminal. Both exchanges will be in charge of Miss Clara Heber, who has been chief operator at the terminal exchange for several years.

Will Petition B. & O. Officials.

Petitions have been in circulation in Morgantown, Fairmont and other nearby towns asking the Baltimore & Ohio to relieve the freight congestion. W. A. Race has been elected to take the petitions to Baltimore. During the past year or more shipments have been delayed for two weeks at a time, and thousands of dollars have been lost to the business people.

Railroad Notes.

Orders have been sent out for the summer uniforms for the Baltimore & Ohio.

The Baltimore & Ohio received four more engines yesterday. The contract calls for 40 machines.

The Baltimore & Ohio expects to receive a number of new passenger coaches this week, a part of an order placed some time ago.

R. H. Crouch has been appointed agent for the Pittsburgh & Western at Valley Junction, succeeding H. M. Wilson, who has resigned.

Wabash agents have commenced work on securing rights of way for that portion of the proposed seaboard route between Cumberland and Cherry Run.

W. C. Loree, general superintendent of the Pittsburgh system of the Baltimore & Ohio, will start this morning on a tour of inspection of the lines in his territory.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie started yesterday on another stretch of third and fourth track along the main line from Greveton to Leschell, passing through Coraopolis.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie has advertised for bids for the installing of a soda fountain in the general waiting room of the South Side station. It will cost about $1,200, and will be the first fountain placed in a railroad station in this city.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie engineer department is working on revising the plans for the Y. M. C. A. building at McKees Rocks. The bids filed for the erection of the building according to the former plans were too high, consequently they are being revised.

NEW OFFICIALS NOW IN AT M'KEESPORT

Mayor Falkenstein Promises Reforms—Paddy Murphy Defeated.

Mayor R. J. Black of McKeesport laid down the reins of government at noon yesterday and his successor, George J. Falkenstein, took them up. Mayor Falkenstein was sworn in by the 13th council of the city in joint session, after the select and common branches had reorganized and sworn in the new members. City Treasurer Samuel Milliken and City Controller C. E. Soles also took the oath of office.

Mayor Falkenstein in his address to councils referred to the improvement of the city streets, the establishment of a bureau of plumbing and building inspection, the establishment of a permanent lighting system, bettering the water system and providing a city hall. The new mayor promised a clean, honest and economical administration.

Mr. Black in his last message to councils said he had decided not to sign the appropriation and tax levy ordinances because illegal clauses had been inserted with the knowledge of councils, and because a new garbage furnace had not been provided to replace that given to the United States Steel Corporation.

John N. Dersam was unanimously chosen to preside in select council and D. M. White, a Democrat, was re-elected over P. J. Murphy for president of the common branch, by a vote of 16 to 6. Select council elected James Brown, Jr., city clerk over Harry Cooper by one vote. W. McC. Bailey was re-elected clerk of common council without opposition.

Archie Duncan, George Stone, Louis E. Rotsch and D. P. McCune were sworn in as new members of select council. John D. Evans, Joseph T. Roche, Peter Romigfanger, H. S. Kistler, Robert Gordon, Sr., and Charles A. Demmen took their seats in common council for the first time.

Mr. Black before stepping down was presented with a handsome gold watch and chain by the members of the McKeesport police force. Mr. Falkenstein, the new mayor, who was for 20 years connected with the W. Dewees Wood mill, was given a leather chair by the men employed at the mill.

Train Rules Meeting Postponed.

The instruction on train rules which had been planned by the Pennsylvania railroad department of the Young Men's Christian association at the association parlors at Fifteenth has been postponed from this evening until Thursday evening. Robert B. MacLaren, traveling engineman, and D. C. Stewart, division operator, will give the instructions and answer questions. All trainmen and others interested are invited to attend.

POSITION REFUSED BY EX-MAYOR BLACK

R. J. Black, who yesterday became ex-mayor of McKeesport, surprised all his friends and acquaintances by refusing an offer of the cashiership in the county treasurer's office, which was formally tendered to his Saturday, after a conference between County Treasurer Collingwood, County Recorder J. Denny O'Neil and County Controller Cunningham.

MEMORABLE MEET OF PRESBYTERY TODAY

Last Time the First Church Chapel Will Be Used.

The last session of the Pittsburgh presbytery of the Presbyterian church, to be held in the chapel of the First church, Wood street, is scheduled for this morning. During this week the work of removing the chapel will begin. The presbytery has been meeting in the chapel for 22 years. The session of the church, through William C. Lilley, has invited the presbytery to be their guests at dinner today in the dining rooms of the church.

The election of delegates to the general assembly, which meets in Los Angeles next month, will be the most important business before the presbytery.

The presbytery will likely select the lecture room of the Second church, Penn avenue, as a place for holding meetings until the new First church is completed. The various organizations of the Presbyterian church will also meet in the Second church.

Old Landmark to Be Removed.

The old Robinson homestead in Robinson park, South Side, will be removed and a shelter house built on the site. The house is on the line dividing the Thirty-first and Thirty-second wards. Mr. Robinson while occupying the house voted in the Thirty-first ward, as his sleeping apartments were on that side of the line.

The general health of a woman is inseparably related to the local womanly health. When the delicate womanly organism is diseased, the body loses plumpness, the cheeks lose their roses, and a nervous and fretful condition becomes habitual.

Thousands of sick women who have been cured of diseases peculiar to the sex by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription have testified to the restoration of the general health when the local disease was cured.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I used four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elmer D. Sheerer, of Mountjope, Lancaster Co., Pa., "and can say that I am cured of that dreaded disease, uterine trouble. Am in better health than ever before. Everyone who knows me is surprised to see me look so well. In June, when I wrote to you, I was so poor in health that at times I could not walk. You answered my letter and told me what to do. I followed your advice, and to-day am cured. I tell everybody that with God's help Dr. Pierce's medicines cured me. If these few words are of any use to you, you are welcome to use them. They might help some other poor suffering woman."

INCLINE PATRONS UNABLE TO GET SEATS ON CARS COMING TO CITY

ANOTHER POINT IN CRAIG STREET AT WHICH THERE IS ALWAYS A SCRAMBLE FOR SEATS

This photograph was made late yesterday afternoon at the transfer point at Center avenue and Craig street, by a staff photographer of The Gazette. The traction inspector at that point had evidently been instructed to prevent any pictures being taken which would show the crowded condition of cars, and used every effort to stand in front of the camera. The lens shutter was too quick for him, however, as the picture will bear evidence.

Hundreds Compelled to Walk Regardless of Bad Weather.

ASSAULT BY CONDUCTOR

Italian Says He Received Short Change and Sues Conductor for Assault and Battery—Was Badly Injured.

The Pittsburgh Railways Company's failure to accommodate the Pittsburgh traveling public has resulted in vehement denunciation from the residents of Bellevue and Mt. Washington. In these two suburbs the people have been particularly outspoken in their grievances since The Gazette began its expose of the shortcomings of the trolley service.

Patrons of the Mt. Washington, Duquesne Heights and Castle Shannon incline planes say that it is next to impossible for them to find room on the platforms of cars on which they desire to ride to the city in the morning. The consequence is that, during rush hours, they are obliged to walk across the bridge or risk their wearing apparel on cars that are crowded to the last step.

In Bellevue the people have renewed their fight against the quadruple fare outrage perpetrated on the passengers on night cars. Residents of Bellevue who spend the evening in the Perryville avenue district pay 30 cents fare in order to reach their homes. The same ride can be made in daylight for 5 cents.

With both eyes blinded and his face reduced to a bleeding mass of quivering flesh, Selm Vorassi, who says he was the victim of a brutal attack on a car of the Pittsburgh Railways Company on Sunday afternoon, was led to the office of Alderman David McKelvey in Allegheny. Vorassi made an information against Conductor John Darling of car No. 424 of the Woods Run line, charging assault and battery.

Last night the injured man was taken to his boarding place in the rear of No. 1917 Bedford avenue. His face was covered with cuts and bruises. Both eyes were swollen and he was unable to see. His lips were cut and bruised, and it was with difficulty that he could speak the few words of English he could command. Through an interpreter he told a reporter for The Gazette this story:

"At 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with John Nerrse, I boarded car No. 424, bound for Allegheny. When the conductor collected the fare I gave him a $10 bill to pay for Nerrse and myself. When I counted the change I discovered that I was 50 cents short. I asked the conductor for the additional half dollar that was due, and was ordered to get off the car. I persisted and showed him the change he had handed back, telling him that he still owed me 50 cents.

"A blow in the face that knocked me clear off the platform was the answer I received. The car was going at a high rate of speed and I fell upon the paving stones, bruising my hands and lips. Then the conductor sprang off and struck me again, this time with such force that both eyes were closed and my clothing was covered with blood.

"I noticed that the car was No. 424 and that the conductor's number was 249. A passenger on the car who saw the assault got off and accompanied me to the alderman's office where I made the information, after a doctor had dressed my wounds."

The hearing in this case has been fixed for tomorrow afternoon.

DUES TAKEN OUT OF THEIR WAGES

Police Pension Fund Kept Up by Employes and Not by City.

FACTS AGAINST M'TIGHE

Investigation Shows That the $30 Paid Annually Into Association's Pool Is from Salary of Man on the Beat.

The contention of Superintendent of Police John P. McTighe that the city pays the dues of police employes into the Police Pension Fund association and not the employes themselves is not borne out by the facts. An investigation yesterday proved conclusively that the money is paid by the employes out of their wages, and that it is put into the pension fund the same as dues or premiums are paid into any other beneficial or insurance fund or organization.

That the $30 paid into the pension fund for each employe was given him as an increase in wages is shown by the following copy of an ordinance passed by the Pittsburgh councils on May 28, 1894, and approved by Mayor Bernard McKenna on May 31, 1894:

An ordinance increasing the pay of the employes of the bureau of police of the City of Pittsburgh.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the city of Pittsburgh in select and common councils assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, that the pay of each of the employes of the bureau of police from and after the first of July, A. D. 1894, shall be and is hereby increased thirty dollars ($30) per annum, over and above the schedule of rates as fixed by law at the time of the passage of this ordinance.

TAKEN OUT OF THEIR WAGES.

The recent salary revision ordinance passed by councils for the police bureau also contains a clause which shows conclusively that the $30 is paid out of the wages of the employes and not appropriated by the city. The clause is as follows:

At the salaries herein fixed, the superintendent, assistant superintendent, inspectors, captains, lieutenants, sergeants and patrolmen in the bureau of police shall be paid, together with the additional salary of thirty dollars ($30) per annum, which said additional salary of thirty dollars ($30) shall be set aside in regular monthly installments by the city controller and paid to the treasurer of the Police Pension Fund association of the city of Pittsburgh for the purpose of making such employes beneficiaries in the said Police Pension Fund association of the city of Pittsburgh.

Until the ordinance of May 28, 1894, was passed by councils the police employes paid an assessment of 1 per cent of their wages into the fund. Fines for refractions of duties and a large amount of money raised by contributions and benefit balls and other forms of entertainment were put into the fund.

This was done until there was $50,000 in the pension fund, and then the police employes secured an increase of $30 in salary from councils for the purpose of increasing their dues to the pension fund. As will be noticed the 1894 ordinance makes no reference to the pension fund and the employe, if he appeared, was at liberty, if he so desired, to use the $30 increase for some other purpose. No employe was permitted to use it for any other purpose, however, as the $30 never went through his hands. He was compelled to sign a waiver, authorizing the treasurer of the fund to collect the $30 from the city controller.

MORROW GIVES AN OPINION.

Assistant Controller E. S. Morrow said yesterday: "The dues of the police employes are paid out of their salaries and not by the city. There is no doubt about it."

Ex-Detective William Bradley said he was one of those who first paid dues into the pension fund and helped to raise the first $60,000 by giving balls and by other means. He said:

"Many of us discharged from the city's service for political reasons have paid money into the pension fund for years, and that money belongs to us. I believe that if an employe can be discharged without a hearing and without cause the pension fund is useless and ought to be abolished. We worked hard to get the fund started and after paying money into it for years are cut off and not allowed to participate in it. The fund should be distributed among the members, each member getting an amount proportionate to what he put in."

Elias John, secretary of the pension fund association, said yesterday that the by-laws state that a member, when he resigns, is discharged or dropped for nonpayment of dues, is deprived of membership and is no longer a benficiary of the fund.

These by-laws were framed by the directors of the association years ago, and it is claimed that they are illegal, as they deprive a member of any return for the money that he has invested and as such a form of insurance is not legal.

Carnegie Offers $35,000.

MANSFIELD, O., April 6.—(Special.)—Andrew Carnegie has offered Mansfield a $35,000 library building conditioned upon the furnishing by the city of a suitable site and a revenue of $3,500 a year for the maintenance of the library. The major portion of the funds for a site is already at hand, and as the city by a special levy has been providing a revenue of $2,300 a year for the present library, it is probably the additional amount will be furnished.

ITALIAN PLAYER MEETS HIS MATCH

Offers to Teach Doc Owens, America's Greatest Card Sharp, a New Game.

COST HIM 6,000 FRANCS

"I Knew That Game Before He Was Born," Said the Winner. Then Another Passenger Discovers Owens' Identity.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, April 6.

Doc Owens' latest exploit on the briny deep since he won $1,500 from the earl of Roslyn occurred last week in the smoking room of the Deutschland, which arrived here last Friday evening. That he had lost none of his pristine luck was evidenced by the fact that he won "good money" from Sig. J. Sensini, an Italian traveler; but no one knew who Owens was at the time. When his identity became known there was one of the finest rows that the smoking room of an ocean liner ever saw, and it is not likely that Owens will play cards on that liner for some time.

Sensini told Owens that he had a new card game and would like to play it. Sensini spent some time in teaching it to Owens, but this expert card riffler afterward declared: "I knew that game before the Italian was born."

When the play ceased Sensini was 6,000 francs to the bad. With a French friend the Italian went to the purser and deposited 8,000 francs for safe keeping. He wished to retain what he had left. There was no big play after that.

On Thursday morning a storm broke out in the smoking room. Some passenger discovered a New York newspaper containing an account of the action of counsel for Owens, who applied recently for an injunction to restrain the police from continuing to exhibit Owens' picture in the rogues' gallery. Accompanying the article was a picture of Owens. The passenger rushed into the smoking room and found many of the saloon passengers there playing cards, checkers, chess and the like. The interrupting passenger, in a frenzy of excitement, stood on a chair, waved the paper in front of him, and, pointing to Owens, shouted:

"Gentlemen, the greatest card player in the United States is here and he has been winning our money."

A great uproar followed this declaration and Owens beat a hasty retreat. It is now said that Capt. Barends had Owens up before him and that Owens told him he would submit to a mock trial, and if the passengers found him guilty of anything wrong, he would give the money to charity, but that he would not return it to Senaini.

When the steamship reached Quarantine a message was sent ashore by Owens to some friends, asking them to be on the pier, saying that he expected trouble. As soon as the gang plank was lowered, however, Owens went ashore and was not again seen by the officers of the line.

A LIVELY SCRAMBLE FOR BLACK TAFFETAS

Campbell Will Sell Twelve Hundred Yards at a Fetching Underprice.

When a woman gets a dollar black taffeta silk for 75c, or a $1.35 one for $1.00, it is a good deal like getting an unexpected rebate on the income tax.

Black taffetas this season are "wheat" or "gold" or anything else that stands as a synonym for unquestioned intrinsic value. They are wanted for coats for skirts, for linings and for entire costumes—so much wanted that many a store is glad to replenish a depleted stock at advancing prices.

So Campbell's announcement of 1,000 yards of guaranteed black taffeta at 75c and $1.00 a yard will make a stir in dressmaking circles and cause many a hurried family council, and result in the liveliest day that the silk counter of "The People's Store" has seen in many a month—which is saying a good deal concerning a counter that seldom lacks customers.

WOULD CONTROL DOCKS AND WAYS

E. J. Howard Back of Company to Combine Ohio River Facilities.

MUCH PROGRESS MADE

Already Have Secured Paducah, Madison and Cincinnati Marine Ways—River Combine and Jutte Company Not to Merge.

Under the name of the American River Shipbuilding and Repairing Company, E. J. Howard, the well-known boatbuilder of Louisville, is trying to obtain control of all the docks and marine ways along the Ohio river from Pittsburgh to New Orleans. The enterprise will affect properties valued at fully $5,000,000, it is said, and is the largest plan of the kind ever attempted on the Ohio river.

Representatives of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company and of C. Jutte & Co., the only concerns owning such facilities near Pittsburgh, denied last evening that they contemplate turning over their docks and marine ways to the new combine. Both are acquainted with the plan, but say they need for their own use all the facilities they possess.

Mr. Howard is making considerable progress with his plan in the lower river. He owns the marine ways at Paducah and Madison and has lately bought those at Cincinnati. He is said to contemplate also the purchase of the Mound City marine ways and dry docks at St. Louis. He is the owner of the big Howard shipyards at Jeffersonville, Ind., opposite Louisville, where many fine boats have been turned out. Notable among these are the six steamers for the Lee line at Memphis and the Kate Adams of the Vicksburg & Memphis Packet Company.

ALBANIANS MASSACRE CHRISTIANS AT NIGHT

SOFIA, BULGARIA, April 6.—The Albanians during last night massacred the Christian inhabitants of Okhrida, where an outbreak of Bulgarians recently was reported. The band suffered heavy losses. One band has burned the village of Jubrell.

POSSE ORGANIZED TO QUELL A RIOT

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., April 6.—(Special.)—The discharge of a number of employes of the Connellsville Central Coke Company at their new plant in Menallen township, started a riot there this afternoon. A call for aid was sent to Sheriff S. F. Frock at Uniontown, and he immediately dispatched a posse under Deputy Sheriffs John Litman and Charles Dunn to the scene. Advices from there tonight say that no serious trouble has occurred, but the men are in a bad mood. The posse will be reinforced in the morning. The men discharged are all Italians.

Mrs. Thomas Carnegie Builds Camp.

UTICA, N. Y., April 6.—(Special.)—Mrs. Thomas Carnegie, sister-in-law of Andrew Carnegie, is putting up a large camp on Raquette lake. It is of Swiss design, and will cost $35,000.

Some Facts.

In the year 1884 a man deposited in his bank the sum of $500. He had no use for it at that time, and the fact that he had $500 did not bother him. Shortly after he left on a trip to Europe. He was gone longer than he expected and did not return until February 14, 1902. Meanwhile his money was gaining interest at the rate of 4 per cent, compounded twice yearly. He inquired at the bank for his money and was delighted to know that he had not $500, but $1,000. His money had doubled—and 4 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually, which we pay on savings accounts, accomplished this result—merely an example of how money grows here. Your savings account will be your friend.

WARD WORKERS PLAY EUCHRE

John Lauler Keeps Campaign Promise by Entertaining Hundreds.

CITY OFFICIALS GUESTS

Turner Hall Scene of Great Gathering in Honor of Citizens Victory — Valuable Presents and Elegant Spread Provided.

The entire voting population of the Fourteenth ward seemed to be represented at the smoker, euchre and banquet given by Common Councilman John Lauler of the Fourteenth ward at Turner hall last night in honor of the Citizens victory and to carry out his promise that in event of a large vote in the ward he would spend $1,000 in entertaining the workers. Almost every member of Recorder Hays' cabinet was present and many of the county officeholders. Among those who came to congratulate the workers were City Solicitor W. B. Rodgers, Delinquent Tax Collector Andrew Fulton, City Controller John B. Larkin, Superintendent of Police John McTighe and his brother, Martin McTighe, County Recorder J. Denny O'Neil, County Treasurer David Collingwood, County Controller Cunningham, Attorneys W. G. Negley and E. Y. Breck. Every councilman from the ward and many from other wards were present. Ward Chairman W. J. Moore opened the entertainment, and Councilmen J. J. Booth, Christ Beckart and Daniel Crawford aided Mr. Lauler in taking care of his guests.

About 1,000 invitations were issued, and only those invited were able to get into the hall, which at times was crowded to suffocation. Mr. Lauler opened the affair with a euchre, in which 150 voters engaged. The prizes cost several hundred dollars and Murray Livingston won the first prize, a solid gold hunting-case watch. Tied with him were Wesley Muse, John McDonald, Hugh Sheridan and Dennis Cone. A solid silver tea set, silver carving knife and fork, silver knives and forks and oxydized silver toilet set went to them respectively. Other prizes were, John L. Crawford, second, chafing dish; E. Greenewalt, third, dozen silver tablespoons; H. J. Wagner, fourth, dozen silver teaspoons; Harry Hall, fifth, meerschaum pipe; G. R. Volmer, sixth, parlor clock; John Rooney, booby prize, barrel of flour.

An entertainment filled in the hours. During this acts much was served downstairs. It was informal and went on at all hours. Refreshments and cigars were served by 20 bartenders, and they were kept busy until 2 a. m.

The affair ended with a number of boxing bouts between amateurs and some professionals, Patrick McCabe of Chicago and Jack Sullivan of the West End fought four rounds. The second bout was between Loudon Campbell, the local 190-pounder, and Al Martin of Warren, Pa. The final bout was for a decision. It was between Kid Brogan of the West End and Frank Raymond of Soho. It was a slugging match for fair and ended in a draw.

Mr. Lauler was thanked publicly for his entertainment and three cheers and a tiger were given for the ward chairmen and the ward councilmen who helped him distribute the good things. Mr. Lauler spent several thousand dollars for the affair.

NON-UNION MEN WERE KIDNAPED

Bus Load Destined for Bridge Company's Boarding House Never Reached There.

NONE WENT TO WORK

Strikers Paid No Attention to Officers' Revolvers and Drove the Tennessee Mountaineers to Union Headquarters.

Striking structural workers yesterday morning disregarded revolvers of detectives and policemen and kidnaped a 'bus load of 23 strike-breakers who had come here from the Tennessee mountains. They were taken to union headquarters, where the southerners were persuaded to give up their idea of going to work here. The mountaineers were part of a delegation of 40 men who were brought here by the American Bridge Company to break the strike at the Wabash bridge. As soon as they alighted from the 3 o'clock train from the east they were lined up and marched to the entrance of the station guarded by policemen and detectives. Two busses were in waiting to take them to the Second avenue boarding house of the company.

When the vehicles were loaded and ready to be driven away, a number of strikers' pickets ran forward and pulled the drivers from their places. The police drew their revolvers and charged on the intruders, while the newcomers trembling-ly crouched inside the busses. One striker, who had taken a driver's place, became frightened, jumped, and took to his heels. One other was not to be baffled. Applying the whip he quickly had the horses in a mad dash. The two policemen on the rear of the 'bus clung to the railing for dear life and were rudely jolted by the swift rate of speed.

The driver kept the animals on a lively trot, and, in a roundabout way, reached the headquarters of the local union, No. 510 Wylie avenue, where the strike-breakers were received with open arms. Most of them were terror-stricken and imagined that they were in danger of all kinds of fates. The two policemen who were treated to the unexpected trip threatened to arrest the crowd of 50 or more strikers who surrounded the vehicle. The occupants of the 'bus all the while clamored to be released and begged for mercy.

They were assured by the union men that no harm would befall them and, as they left the 'bus one by one, they were escorted to the rooms of the union and had the situation explained to them. The newcomers were persuaded not to go to work, and all appeared to be more interested about returning home.

The second 'bus load, with its 18 occupants, reached the company's boarding house safely. The men will be put at work today. About 25 men were engaged in erecting false work yesterday at the Wabash bridge site.

Little Rock Handed a Pirate Souvenir

THE CHAMPIONS SHOW REAL SKILL

New Pitchers' Clever Work Shut Little Rock Team Out.

SOME FINE FIELDING

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., April 6.—The Champion Pirates got their final chance at the Little Rock team this afternoon and left the Southern leaguers a little souvenir to remember them in the shape of a shut out. This was large due to the clever display of pitching put up by Merritt and Veil and Miss Wagner, who is acting captain of the champions, was a happy man tonight.

Owing to the dark and threatening day the crowd at West End park today to see the Pittsburghers and the Little Rock teams play their final game, was small. The Pittsburgh team had their special train backed in on a blind switch within a square of the grounds.

Pittsburgh scored three runs in the first inning. When Kitty Bransfield came to bat he was presented with a neat package, which he refused to open. Sebring, however, tore it open and produced a biscuit, tribute from Little Rock friends who were glad that Kitty struck out on Saturday.

After Veil had worn out, Wagner got a base on balls. Bransfield reached first on Lynch's error and Wagner went to third. Sebring scored them both with a hit. Ritchey got a base on balls and Kruger hit, scoring Sebring, three runs.

In the second Merritt tripled, Beau hit, scoring Merritt. Beau stole and took second on a ball three setting on Wagner's fly. Two runs.

In the third Veil threw out three on bases and one out, Mahling to Ritchey, who touched Wagner at third. Mahling out at first, completing a creditable play.

In the fifth Sebring hit to Gilbert, who allowed the ball to go through him to the fence, sending Sebring to the circuit. At the opening of the sixth Veil went in for Friend, who blanked Little Rock. Then Flinn sent Keefe a new ball under. With one out, Leech got a base on balls and scored on Wagner's hit, which Mahling failed to intercept. Then Wagner was forced out on Bransfield's double. In the second, with one out, Phelps batted safe, went to second on a passed ball, to third on Krueger's sacrifice and scored on Veil's single. Little Rock was unable to do anything with Pittsburgh, and the score ended 9 to 0 in favor of the champions.

President Locke of this morning closed with the management of the Williamsport, Pa., team for a game in the town along the Susquehanna on May 27. The Pirates conclude a series at Bradford on May 28, and play Decoration Day games at home. The game at Williamsport was arranged after Mr. Dreyfuss had consulted with the members of the team. Williamsport is along the jumps. Will be transport in the home of Jimmy Sebring and Becky Veil. Today's score:

PHILLIES WON THE FIRST.

Rube Waddell Pitched Great Ball but Zimmer's Team Had the Luck.

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—Chief Zimmer's National leaguers won the first of the series of games from Connie Mack's team 2 to 0. It was a lucky day for Zimmer's team, as Rube Waddell was in great form and struck out 11 of his opponents. The two hits scored off him by Keister and Hulswitt were of the "dunk" order. The game was an exciting one from start to finish and was witnessed by 6,650 spectators. A base on balls, a bunt, a hit by pitcher, an out and an error gave the Phillies their two runs in the 10th. STRENGTHENS STABLE.

Capt. Brown Purchases a Lot of Costly Yearlings in Kentucky.

LEXINGTON, KY., April 6.—(Special.)—Capt. S. S. Brown, the Pittsburgh turfman, has already begun to lay plans for his 1904 racing stable. He has bought of Clay & Woodford, Paris, eight choice yearlings by Sir Dixon and other great sires, paying for them probably the best prices paid for a similar bunch of yearlings. Woodford's catalogue, for several years, the figures being quoted at $25,000.

Last year last the Runnymede and Recluse yearlings averaged about $5,000, but last year Woodford topped them at $2,500 and this account the Bourbon county turfmen have decided to sell in Chicago this season. The Brown and Blue turf king is not included in this number, but Capt. Brown has a great eye for the youngster at a fancy figure.

Capt. Brown bought today of J. Breckinridge Clay, Lexington, the 2-year-old filly by Hanover, Pennant, the Dame of W. Overton and other good horses. She was sired by Bonnet Rogue, Dam Tay Pearl, by Gavaliero, price $5,000.

M'CLOSKEY RETURNS HOME.

Refuses Big Offer from Buffalo and Atlantic City.

As was predicted in this paper yesterday morning, Charley McCloskey returned home yesterday from Toronto, where he went last week to play with the team of that place in the Eastern league. Buffalo, to which place he was awarded by the Eastern league magnates in meeting, was still persistent in its endeavor to sign him.

Last night, the former Homestead third baseman met with Buffalo, was sent to Toronto to persuade McCloskey to play with Buffalo. A salary of $250 per month was offered as an inducement, but it was turned down. The Atlantic City people's offer to McCloskey an offer has he will stay with Risher and be with the Homestead team this season.

Matinee Club Holds Meeting.

The Matinee club of Pittsburgh and Allegheny held its annual election of officers last evening at the Hotel. The result of the election and other business transacted will be given out for publication. Frank Herdic, the well-known pool seller, arrived in this city yesterday, but he was not at the meeting.

BETHANY AND W. U. P. TO PLAY AT THE COLOSSEUM

School Teams Put in Afternoon of Hard Practice at Different Parks.

The Bethany college-W. U. P. game tomorrow will be played at the Colosseum instead of Exposition park, as was intended. The Exposition park field has not yet dried out sufficiently to permit a game. However, the field will be in shape by next Monday, when the University of Pennsylvania will play W. U. P.

Capt. Irwin had 20 men out yesterday for practice. After working in the field for three-quarters of an hour the men who will likely start the game against Bethany tomorrow played the scrubs, who had Kommer on the rubber. Kommer had a fine assortment of curves and speed and allowed few hits and runs. The line-up has not yet been decided on by Capt. Irwin and Manager Kaiser, but it is very probable that Kommer will be the pitcher; Fowning or McKenna, first; Dodds, Murray, second; Ramsey, short; Soffel, third; Libby, left; Irwin, middle and Bialas right.

The hardest practice of the year at Shadyside Academy took place yesterday afternoon. Capt. Dravo had the men on the field for nearly three hours and there was not one idle moment. The infield was given a hard practice and the outfielders were always on the move. The team batted for some time and then the men in the outfield were put to throwing to second and third. Capt. Dravo wants to give the men all the practice possible at team play before the opening of the schedule, and is willing to play any local amateur team Saturday afternoon. A letter addressed to the academy will reach him.

The candidates for the East Liberty Academy team were at E. C. A. A. C. park the greater part of yesterday afternoon. Any doubts as to E. L. A. having a weak hitting team were dispelled when the players began to land on the ball in yesterday's practice game. The Academy team defeated the Cleveland Kennedy Burton, who was in the box. Burton's delivery seemed to have been made to order for Zahniser, Black and McCracken, the latter a new man from the City Hall school. Burton's team lost, 18 to 6. As a consolation for the severe drubbing the team selected Burton as the official scorer for the season.

The Indiana Normal team defeated Kennedy Wednesday afternoon by a score of 7 to 2. Those who saw the game say that Wagner went to third. Sebring scored them both with a hit. Ritchey got a base on balls and Kruger hit, scoring Sebring, three runs.

In the second Merritt tripled, Beau hit, scoring Merritt. Beau stole and took second on a ball three setting on Wagner's fly. Two runs.

In the third Veil threw out three on bases and one out, Mahling to Ritchey, who touched Wagner at third. Mahling out at first, completing a creditable play.

In the fifth Sebring hit to Gilbert, who allowed the ball to go through him to the fence, sending Sebring to the circuit. At the opening of the sixth Veil went in for Friend, who blanked Little Rock. Then Flinn sent Keefe a new ball under. With one out, Leech got a base on balls and scored on Wagner's hit, which Mahling failed to intercept. Then Wagner was forced out on Bransfield's double. In the second, with one out, Phelps batted safe, went to second on a passed ball, to third on Kruger's sacrifice and scored on Veil's single. Little Rock was unable to do anything with Pittsburgh, and the score ended 9 to 0 in favor of the champions.

President Locke of this morning closed with the management of the Williamsport, Pa., team for a game in the town along the Susquehanna on May 27. The Pirates conclude a series at Bradford on May 28, and play Decoration Day games at home. The game at Williamsport was arranged after Mr. Dreyfuss had consulted with the members of the team. Williamsport is along the jumps. Will be transport in the home of Jimmy Sebring and Becky Veil. Today's score.

INSANE WITH SMALLPOX.

Exciting Incident in Millvale When a Patient Broke Away from His Guards.

George Chapman of East Ohio street, Millvale, raised considerable excitement yesterday afternoon by breaking away from his home, where he is under quarantine with smallpox. Chapman has been down with the desease for the last week and the only persons in the house with him were his sister and niece. Yesterday he began to act delirious and insisted on going out. What took place in detail in the house him he climbed out of a window, on to a porch roof, and jumped to the ground, 12 feet below.

The two women and the officer on guard at Chapman's home tried to persuade him to go back into the house, but he refused and said he was going to see Michael Britt, who is the board of health officer, the two men being intimate friends. Just then Britt came along and made Chapman go back into the house.

The episode created a panic among the neighbors, who were afraid the man would go through the town before being caught. Another new case was reported to the board of health last night, the victim being Mrs. Peter May of North avenue. This makes 24 cases in the borough at present.

CUBAN CONGRESS MEETS.

Extra Session to Provide Permanent Treaty With the United States.

HAVANA, April 6.—Congress reassembled this afternoon and will probably continue in session for three extra months on account of the necessity of enactment of many laws before all the departments of the government get thoroughly under way. These measures include approval of the naval station agreement and a permanent treaty covering the political relations with the United States.

President Palma in his message expresses the hope that the question of incorporating into the treaty all the provisions of the Platt amendment will soon be settled and adds that while this has been done it will seem unnecessary that the Platt amendment should remain any longer a part of the constitution. It is therefore necessary to hasten the permanent definement of Cuba's relations with the United States, so as to eliminate the Platt amendment problem, which is keeping Cuba at present in a state of political uncertainty.

Glass Snappers in Convention.

The window glass snappers are holding a convention in Moorhead's hall at which 43 delegates are present. Delphos Rattles of Findlay, O., is the president and Edward L. Green, also of Findlay, is the secretary and treasurer. The convention was called to prepare a uniform scale of wages for the next five years, as the demoralized condition of the window glass industry caused by the anticipated introduction of the glass blowing machine, it was decided to defer action on the wage matter until the snappers are more solidly organized.

ORDERED BACK TO WORK.

Miners' Officials Refused to Allow Drivers to Menace Other Workmen's Welfare.

"We do not intend to let the drivers at the mines menace the welfare of thousands of miners, and they have not been ordered back to work. Reports indicate that the coal strike has been settled, except at the Crump mines at Dravosburg. Our committee will go there on Tuesday and investigate." This statement was made yesterday afternoon by Secretary William Dodds of the Pittsburgh district of the United Mine Workers' railroads who said the drivers was unfounded and that if they had not gone back to work the organization would have put miners in their places.

The scale committee of the United Mine Workers of America for the quarter ending March 31 shows a membership of 264,659. The organization has in its treasury nearly $1,250,000 of available funds.

Mizpah Cure Succeeded

Doctors differ and patients die, and benighted folks may still declare tuberculosis to be incurable, but here is an absolute cure in this case when an advanced stage of this dread disease implicating the whole of the left lung was positively cured by the wonderful remedy called Mizpah Cure.

Dear Sirs: I am a dry goods merchant, have been actively engaged in business for 25 years with little or no recreation and suffered with bronchitis for 20 years with a severe cough. Three years ago I was examined for lung trouble and was pronounced by four different physicians as having tuberculosis of the left lung and was sent to Arizona for four months. This did me no good. After I returned to Ohio I began taking several remedies, none of which helped me, but after taking "Mizpah Cure" for five months I can now say that I am a well man, as I have not taken any medicine for three weeks, and my cough has left me.

THE OPENING BILLIARD GAME WAS A SURPRISE

Phillippi Defeated English, Last Year's Champion, Who Was Favorite in the Betting.

The opening billiard game of the local tournament furnished a decided surprise for the talent, as English went down to defeat at the hands of the one man who defeated him last year, Ben Phillippi. The betting was 5 to 4 on English, and considerable money was wagered on him at these odds but though he made a gallant fight he was beaten on an even game. English was to play 200 to Phillippi's 183, but at the windup the former had only scored 182 points, while his opponent was gathering in his necessary 185.

At the outset of the game both players were visibly nervous, and were more or less bewildered by the lively workings of the balls, which traveled very fast on the new cloth. Each player was guilty of missing several very simple shots, but on the other hand each was credited with making some equally difficult ones. Phillippi was especially good on around-the-table and difficult angle plays, while English surprised his admirers with the accuracy with which he knocked out shots that are ordinarily very difficult for him to make.

Almost from the start of the game Phillippi took the lead, practically held the points from the beginning to the end of the game, in the forty-first inning by brilliant all around playing, combined with some careful nursing, he rapidly slipped off 42 points, which was the high run of the evening and is within two points of the highest run made in last year's tournament. When the score stood English 182, Phillippi 166, the latter got the balls going and by playing them carefully he succeeded in making the 19 points necessary for him to win the game, and as it was concluded his friends gave a shout of joy.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Charles Powers and James Bonne play, while the game tonight will be between J. J. Jack and T. S. Poland, each of whom plays 170 points. The following is the way innings and averages stand at present:

Phillippi—2, 0, 0, 0, 1, 11, 1, 2, 0, 2, 0, 1, 2, 6, 6, 0, 0, 3, 2, 8, 0, 5, 5, 8, 0, 1, 1, 1, 0, 2, 7, 0, 0, 3, 6, 7, 0, 1, 0, 6, 42, 5, 0, 0, 0, 1, 2, 3, 3, 1, 1, 0, 0, 5, 1, 19. Total, 185. High runs, 42, 19, 11, Average, 4.4-37.

AMALGAMATION OF UNION MEN

Project to Combine All Organizations of Workers in the Country.

SHAFFER HEADS PLAN

Gompers Opposed It Several Years Ago, but Opinions Have Changed Since So Many Trusts Have Been Formed.

A defensive alliance of most of the trades unions of the country is a possibility of the near future, and the heads of various labor organizations, led by President T. J. Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, are forming plans with that object in view. Workmen think that the many recent combinations of capital and formations of trusts, with their consequent extensive ramifications, have put the wage-earners in a bad position to combat reductions in wages and to enforce demands of higher pay, shorter hours, etc.

If formed, this amalgamation of workingmen will be the largest ever in existence, and will have a membership up in the millions. President Shaffer said yesterday:

THOSE WHO WILL BE IN IT.

"It is my intention to have the miners, railroad workers, Amalgamated men, locals of the American Federation of Labor, and, in fact, every trades man in the nation enlisted in the movement. I proposed the plan at Milwaukee several years ago, but then it was received with apparent incredulity, and many labor leaders were overcome by the magnitude of the project.

"Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor and some others did not thing the method a feasible one, and opposed it. Consequently it was dropped. Recent events show that my proposition was the right one, for it was to be ahead of the times. Today when we see the trusts and other organization of capital combining for mutual protection and making concerted moves to resist the request of the union men, it is time that we confer and plan to meet the enemy, fighting fire with fire.

WOULD BE INVINCIBLE.

"An organization having in its membership all the union wage-earners of the country, several million strong, would be an invincible body. All wage scales of the various trades would be arranged to expire on one date. Then it would be possible to enforce the demands for better wages and shorter hours. The injury of one would be the concern of all."

Mr. Shaffer intimated that after the Amalgamated convention at Columbus is over steps will be taken to get the heads of the labor organization of the country to consider the plan systematically. He stated that this defensive alliance is coming, and that its organization is only a question of time.

Frank Buchanan, president of the International bridge and structural iron workers, who favors Shaffer's scheme, stated that he is preparing to create a general strike against the United States Steel Corporation, of which the American Bridge Company is a part. He said:

"I hope the labor organizations will concentrate and crush the rapidly growing combinations of capital. This struggle is going to increase, and it is possible that in a short time we will tie up many industries if we have our demands granted."

Mr. Shaffer stated that if there were a defensive labor alliance in existence today there would be no strikes, and that the wage-earners would be receiving just compensation.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT.

Good, healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of the proper food, together with natural action of the digestive organs. Nine people out of ten, in order to weigh as much as they ought and be perfectly healthy, should use Mi-o-na. The great flesh-forming food and digestion regulator. Weight is gained from the time commencing to use these little tablets and see how your weight increases from week to week.

Mi-o-na does not contain a particle of peptic, the basis of the ordinary dyspepsia remedy and which never made a cure of dyspepsia. Mi-o-na has valuable flesh-forming properties, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs, helps digest the food eaten, and absolutely and permanently cures the worst forms of dyspepsia.

If you are not perfectly satisfied with the results from Mi-o-na May's or Schilling Bros. Co. will return your money without any questions. What other medicine is sold on this plan?

BOTTLERS WERE HIT VERY HARD

Wholesalers in Lower Wards Had Trouble Explaining Speakeasy Trade.

COUNCILMAN ON RACK

Attorney Stevenson Questioned Several Applicants About Leases for Disorderly Houses. Some Must Produce Books.

The court expects to finish the list of applicants for liquor licenses today. The brewers, bottlers and wholesale dealers were on the rack yesterday, and many of them were kept very busy refuting charges of violation of law brought against them by Attorney W. H. Stevenson for the Anti-Saloon league and by the court.

The Pittsburgh Brewing Company was the first applicant called. It applies for nine licenses in various parts of the county. Remonstrance of the Anti-Saloon league were urged by Attorney Stevenson to show that the corporation had violated the law. The company admitted doing business in other counties, but said it took out a license in each.

The bottlers experienced considerable trouble. James R. Treacy of No. 318 Liberty avenue denied that he sold to disorderly houses, but admitted that he sold to certain places named. The league detectives had followed his wagons and gave the location of a number of alleged speakeasies at which beer was delivered, of which the court made notes.

Frederick Heil of No. 626 Fifth avenue did not know that he had sold to any disorderly house, and the court requested him to bring his books in for inspection. The detectives testified to buying his beer in a number of places, and Heil said the places named might have borrowed the beer from licensed places.

Louis Broudy of No. 310 Robinson street, Allegheny, also said he did not know of selling to speakeasies, although he had sold to a club in a boathouse. The detectives produced photographs of his wagons in front of alleged speakeasies delivering beer.

A few of the wholesale dealers were heard before noon, and the charge was made that the wagons of H. Auerbach and Peter Schneider of No. 403 Ferry street had been seen delivering liquor to disorderly houses in Allegheny, which the applicants denied. They denied they had practically all of the whisky trade of the Allegheny disorderly houses, or that they paid two Allegheny officials $25 a week to help them. They were asked to bring their books into court.

Charles E. Porter and Edward J. Edwards were also put on the rack. Porter admitted selling to clubs and disorderly houses, but denied holding leases for such places. Attorney Stevenson questioned both applicants closely as to holding leases for immoral houses, but both denied the charge. Edwards, who is a member of councils from the Second ward, has until this year worked for Porter.

Porter admitted selling to some houses of immoral character, but denied selling to speakeasies. Attorney Stevenson brought Detectives Berry and Brakeman to testify as to the house he sold to, but Judge Evans said he did not care for further information as long as Porter admitted the fact. He said if they knew of any speakeasies he would like the names of such places, and they said Porter sold to the Red and Gun club and the Marine club in Third avenue, which Porter admitted, but said they were chartered clubs. Porter was asked about a certain house in town, and said his mother owned the property. He denied delivering beer to the Wabash camps.

Benjamin N. Nelman was severely questioned about the sale he had of "ambrosia" and "rikk," alleged soft drinks which he had sold to a man named Harrison in Stowe township, who was arrested for illegal selling. He said as soon as he found out it was gamey the law he put the stuff was an intoxicant he stopped handling it. He said it only contained 2 per cent of alcohol.

When William McKelvey of No. 112 Fulton street was called the court said the case would be taken up Monday, as the Anti-Saloon league had a remonstrance to be filed against him.

The Paul Wuesthoff Company, Fourteenth and Mulberry streets, was given a short hearing when it was learned that "Pepsi-cola," made and sold as a soft drink, was but diluted beer.

Otto Browarsky of No. 1227 Fifth avenue was closely questioned by Judge Rodgers as to selling to speakeasies, the court appearing to have very definite information on the subject. She denied all charges, and Judge Rodgers told her he would like to see her order books for the past year. She sent for the books.

W. J. Boyd of No. 1000 Scott avenue was granted a license last year because he was straightforward in admitting that he sold to speakeasies. This year he admitted to the same practice.

The court announced that, beginning with Allegheny city, the list would be completed today.

A rush to the clerk of courts office was made yesterday by retail license applicants anxious to file their affidavits setting forth that they were the possessors of no brewery stock in compliance with the license court orders. During the day between 425 and 450 affidavits were filed.

FRED. W. EDWARDS NOW ON UNCLE SAM'S ROLL

Will Perform Duties of Appraiser Under the Title of Special Agent.

Although the department of justice has decided that the secretary of the treasury has not the authority to revive the office of appraiser of customs at Pittsburg without an act of congress, Fred W. Edwards was yesterday sworn into the customs service at Washington and on Monday he will begin work performing the duties of appraiser. At present he has the title of special agent and works under the direction of the secretary of the treasury. His salary will be $3,000, the same as it will be when he takes the title of appraiser.

When congress meets in the fall a bill will be put through authorizing the secretary to re-establish the office of appraiser and Edwards will get it. Making him a special agent at present avoids the legal obstacles.

Mr. Edwards was sworn in yesterday afternoon in the office of Assistant Secretary Armstrong in Washington. Senators Quay and Penrose both being present. He left for Pittsburg last night. Representative Harry M. Scott of Braddock accompanied Edwards to Washington.

HARBOR CLEARED OF COAL.

Packets Have Trouble Procuring Help to Handle Freight.

The predicted coal stage arrived on time, reaching 10.5 feet. The water is now falling slowly, but all the tows are well started down the rivers. Nearly 2,000,000 bushels went out yesterday, which very nearly clears the harbor of coal.

The down-river packets were late yesterday and experienced some trouble in getting their cargoes unloaded in time to go out again. The Ben Hur and the Kanawha were the sufferers. As the days get warmer the stevedores become fewer. They find other work more to their tastes. The packets do not depend on "roustabouts" from the Pittsburg wharf to do their work. There is other work which pays more in this city, and the packets get their help from the down-river ports and never have the pay gang for the following trip.

State Charters Issued.

HARRISBURG, April 6.—Charters were issued by the state department today to the following corporations: Tub Run Coal Company, Uniontown, capital $100,000; Haws Coal Company, Johnstown, $20,000; Guarantee Company, New Kensington, $5,000; Butler Grocery Company, Butler, $5,000; Rin-Haron Company, Bain township, Indiana county, $5,000; John H. Ward & Son Company, Williamsburg, $5,000; Burrelltown Water Company, Burrell township, Indiana county, $5,000; Uning Brothers, Pittsburgh, $100,000; McFadden & Craig Company, Pittsburgh, $5,000.

BEATTY DENIED DUNCAN'S STORY

Defendants in Gas Company Merger Have Inning in Court.

DETAILS OF A DINNER

Mrs. W. S. Caldwell Makes Another Effort to Secure a Divorce—One Preacher Charges Another With Slander.

The hearing in the equity case of C. H. Duncan against H. B. Beatty, and others, for an accounting, was continued yesterday. Duncan alleged that Beatty and his associates unlawfully made $200,000 out of the sale of the Peoples Light and Heat Company to the Manufacturers Natural Gas Company, while they were actively engaged in both concerns.

Beatty denied any misrepresentation. He said that he thought it was "a good buy" and decided to purchase it himself for $375,000, after reaching a conclusion that the earning power was from $150,000 to $200,000 a year. He said he hesitated about making the sale to the Manufacturers company. Beatty denied that he cried when Duncan spoke to him about something being wrong. He denied that when he bought the Peoples company he had the idea in his mind of selling it to the Manufacturers company. He denied that Duncan had at any time complained to him about having made any profit out of the deal.

The details of a very interesting dinner party are referred to in a petition filed in the divorce court case of Mrs. Caldwell against Dr. William S. Caldwell, an Allegheny dentist. A decree was refused by Judge J. B. Macfarlane, and later Mrs. Caldwell filed a petition asking that the case be reopened as that additional evidence can be furnished. In the petition it is set forth that George L. Aiken will testify that one day in September, 1900, he and Dr. Caldwell spent the afternoon together and that the physician was rendered unable under the influence of liquor. Aiken, it is said, accompanied Dr. Caldwell home to dinner. There were present Dr. and Mrs. Caldwell, their son and Dr. Caldwell's mother. It is stated in the petition that during the dinner Dr. Caldwell procured a saber and threatened to kill everybody with it. It is charged that he upset a coffee pot and swore at everyone present. Aiken has agreed to break a clock but was dissuaded from doing so by his mother. It is said that about the time Dr. Caldwell was acting in this manner his other children left the house, whereupon the doctor threw his arms about him, and in a maudlin manner and this ended the dinner party.

The suit of the Rev. John Jelinek of Braddock against the Rev. H. H. Schauffler of Cleveland for $5,000 damages for alleged slander was on trial before Judge S. A. McClung. The plaintiff alleges that on August 6, 1901, while he was preaching for the Slavonic Baptist congregation of Braddock the defendant said in the presence of Thomas Addenroth that the plaintiff was on intimate terms with Mrs. Anna Nicsar. The plaintiff avers that his salary was small and the alleged slander injured him financially, as well as his reputation as a minister of the gospel.

WILL ADOPT NEW RULES.

Supreme Court's Method of Admitting Lawyers to Practce Is to Prevail in Superior.

At the coming session of the superior court, beginning next Monday, the rules governing the admittance of lawyers to practice in the supreme court will be adopted, and thereafter attorneys will be compelled to satisfy the state board of law examiners of their eligibility to practice in the superior court.

Yesterday only twelve applications were filed with Prothonotary George Pearson for admittance, but this number will be greatly increased during the week. At the October term of the supreme court the rumor of the contemplated rules resulted in over 400 lawyers from all over the state being admitted on motion.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

Letters testamentary were issued to Attorney James H. Payne on the $1,760 estate of Robert Harrison.

Albert Hall sued W. H. Patterson for $5,000 damages for alleged false arrest on a charge of horse stealing.

By the will of Mary Moser of Allegheny a $16,000 estate is left to relatives. No per children. Attorney C. W. Dahlinger has charge of the estate.

Application was made for a charter for the Mt. Washington African Methodist Episcopal Zion church. Attorney A. Wilfred Holmes represents the congregation.

The Guarantee Title and Trust Company took out letters of administration on the estate of Rose Schoenberger, Attorney Samuel L. Dille has charge of the estate.

An attachment was issued against Jennie F. Barr for alleged contempt in disobeying an order of court to transfer the title of property in Homestead to Mary Heffner.

Thomas Joyce wants $20,000 from the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company and Edward Joyce received at the naphtha explosion at Sharaden Saturday.

A bill in equity was filed by A. Hancock against John Englert to restrain the defendant from manufacturing and selling mush under the name "Saxo" bread, which the plaintiff avers is his copyrighted trade mark.

By the will of William Engel an estate worth $2,500 goes to his children. One of the decedent's daughters, Elizabeth Walters, filed a caveat against the probate of the will, but withdrew it. Attorneys Scott & Brown represent the estate.

The will of Sarah N. McCandless of Pittsburgh was filed. Fifty acres of land in Butler county are bequeathed to Sarah C. McCandless, Elizabeth B. McCandless and Margaret E. McCandless. The residue of the estate is given to Margaret E. and Stephen C. McCandless.

Creditors of the Charles W. Huff Company of Pittsburgh have a petition in bankruptcy against the firm, alleging an act of bankruptcy was committed in permitting H. C. Bair to recover a judgment of $9,000, on which an execution was instituted and a levy made on the company's stock.

A decree in distribution in the estate of the late James Verner, shows $360,153 87 as a balance for distribution, and of this sum $127,280 has been advanced to the beneficiaries. The heirs will receive the following sums under the decree: Priscilla Scaife, $72,028 68; Mary A. Verner, $41,258 68; Morris S. Verner, $35,858 67; Amelia Malcolm, $38,008 87; in trust for the children of James K. Verner, $45,108 67.

A petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed by creditors of Charles F. Unger and V. King Piper, trading at Dubois, Pa., as Bangert & Piper. It is alleged they committed an act of bankruptcy in permitting the sale of the Morning Herald printing establishment to the Dubois Courier for $4,000 cash. The Antietam Paper Company, the Cleveland Paper Manufacturing Company, the American Press association and E. W. Webster, a plumber of Dubois, are the petitioning creditors.

IMPORTANCE OF SPEED.

A GREAT FACTOR IN EVERY-DAY LIFE.

In these days of rapid progress, one of the most important factors in business and science, in transportation, in sports, and in fact almost everything, is speed.

Speed is also an important factor in the curative powers of medicine, and it has been proven by an avalanche of testimonials, that the greatest remedy for speed and rapidity in relieving and curing diseases of the kidneys and bladder, blood, liver, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, is DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY.

The speed of this wonderful discovery for diseases of the kidneys and bladder is not so rapid as to injure and interfere with the other healthy organs of the body, but rather of a gradual, uniform speed, consistent with the best results.

If your back pains you; if your urine, after you have deposited some in a glass and let it stand for 24 hours, has a smoky, milky appearance or if you have a frequent desire to urinate during the night and scalding pains accompany its passage, your kidneys and bladder require instant treatment, by taking Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

The startling results of this renowned remedy in relieving and curing diseases of the kidneys and bladder have amazed the whole medical world.

Druggists sell it in New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

SHORT-LIVED RALLY IN EASTERN STOCKS

The Low Prices Were Made After the Decision in the Keene-Harriman Controversy—Call Loan Rates Decline—Local Bank Shares Strong.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

At the opening of the eastern stock market yesterday Wall street was disposed to take a cheerful view of the situation. This was based upon the manner in which the market had taken Saturday's unfavorable bank statement, and also upon the higher quotations received from London, which were accompanied by buying orders for American stocks to the extent of about 15,000 shares. But the most important factor was that the street expected to see the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific controversy removed as a disturber. In nearly every case initial quotations showed advances ranging from ⅛ to 1 per cent, and the largest gains were in the investment stocks. Union Pacific opened higher at 91⅝ and Southern Pacific was also higher at 58⅛, which opened higher at 91¼ and Southern Pacific was also higher at 58¼, which proved to be the highest price of the day. Pennsylvania opened nearly a point higher at 136⅜, and New York Central was ⅝ higher at 132¾. The cheerful feeling was further stimulated by some good railroad reports. Missouri Pacific reported an increase of $206,000 for the fourth week in March and an increase of $403,000 for the month. Norfolk & Western gained $111,504 for the week and $433,000 for the month. Chesapeake & Ohio increased $141,000 for the month. Missouri, Kansas & Texas increased $55,670 for the week and $92,242 for the month. New York Central gained $1,163,000 in gross earnings for March. Another favorable factor was the April crop report of one of the recognized authorities which usually anticipates the government figures. This authority reported an average condition for winter wheat of 95.9, against 84.1 at the corresponding date last year, which is the highest average in 20 years with the exception of 1901, when the condition was estimated at 96.9. It was further stated that no acreage will be plowed up this year on account of winter-killing, and that the harvest, therefore, promises to be the largest in the history of the country. There was one other favorable influence, and that was the easier tendency to call money rates.

Having exhausted all the favorable news, the market practically came to a standstill, awaiting the decision in the Southern-Union Pacific injunction suit. The announcement of the decision did not come until near the middle of the afternoon. The news agencies put it into a nutshell, thus: "Harriman wins; Keene loses." The market had begun to anticipate the announcement, and when it was finally made there was a little burst of activity. Union Pacific rallied to 93, New York Central to 133, Pennsylvania to 137¼, St. Paul to 163¼, and the general list rose fractionally on a slightly increased volume of business. Then came the further announcement that the court had granted an appeal, and that the annual meeting of the Southern Pacific Company had been indefinitely postponed, pending a final settlement of the question raised. Ever since the filing of this suit Wall street has professed to believe that it was the only serious obstacle to a "bull" market, and the fact that the controversy now promises to remain open indefinitely, and that in the meantime the Southern Pacific pool, which expires by limitation on the 10th inst., may be liquidated, restored the bugaboo to full vigor. A selling movement set in and all the previous gains were wiped out, while some stocks sold below opening prices. Southern Pacific dropped to 56, but recovered to 57. Union Pacific dropped to 91⅛ and recovered only a fraction. Pennsylvania declined 1¼ per cent and New York Central 1⅜ per cent, and both closed near the bottom. The Gould stocks held their own fairly well. In the industrial list there was considerable irregularity, but this department closely followed the general tendency. Amalgamated Copper declined from 68 to 65¼ and closed about the same as on Saturday. Sugar dropped from 121 to 119 on reports of a trade war. United States Steel traversed the usual narrow fluctuations, but closed fractionally higher for both the common and preferred. Colorado Fuel and Iron opened higher at 56, advanced to 57 and dropped to 55½. The sales for the day were slightly under 500,000 shares. Call money rates opened at 7, declined to 6, rallied to 7, and late in the day declined to the lowest level for two weeks, the last loan being at 2½ per cent.

The Pittsburgh stock exchange held its initial session in its new home yesterday. Predictions of a bullish demonstration in the way of celebrating the event failed of fulfillment. The opening was firm, but the selling of Crucible Steel common and preferred acted as a damper upon sentiment. Sales of the common reached 1,250 shares at 18⅛@18½, the final transaction being at 18⅛. Nearly 2,000 shares of the preferred were marketed at prices ranging from 85 to 85, the latter the lowest of the year. At the close there was a slight recovery to 82⅜, representing a net loss of ⅛ for the day. Crucible is so well distributed that a fractional movement in it attracts more attention than larger fluctuations in other stocks. There was no explanation of the weakness, except that expressed on the floor that a block of stock was evidently being liquidated and buyers were holding off in the hope of forcing still lower prices. On several occasions last year a similar movement occurred in the market, the latter quickly recovering after the liquidation had been completed. United States Steel stocks were extremely dull, only 100 shares of the common and 20 shares of the preferred changing hands all day, the close being at slight net gains. The coal stocks were dull and nominally unchanged. Pittsburg Brewing sold off to 32 for the common and to 46 for the preferred, the decline being credited to the liquidation for account of applicants for liquor licenses. A small lot of Window Glass preferred sold at 85 and the common was nominally quoted at 44@44½. Westinghouse stocks were rather heavy, Airbrake selling at 169, and Electric second preferred declining to 98, but recovering to 98⅛.

The strongest stocks in the market were bank and trust company shares, and in some instances where no stock actually changed hands there were sharp advances in the bid price. Among the latter were Anchor Savings, which was bid up to 305. Marine National was also higher at 145 bid, and no stock was offered for sale under 180. The largest advance was in Peoples National bank, which opened 20 points higher at 450 and sold up to 460. Diamond National bank scored a new high mark by selling at 480. American Trust sold at 475@480, and closed at 480 bid, a net decline of $5. Allegheny Trust was strong and higher, advancing to 167. Real Estate Trust fluctuated between 323 and 318, closing at 319 bid.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Payment in full for subscriptions to 3,000 shares new stock of the American Trust Company at $500 a share fell due yesterday, making a draft of $1,500,000 on the local money market. While subscribers were paying $500 a share for this new stock, the original issue was selling on the stock exchange at $475 and $480 a share. Owing to the fact that the stock could be bought in the open market at from $20 to $25 a share below the company's price for the new issue, some stockholders did not exercise their rights for subscribing. But it is inferred that the amount left unsubscribed was taken by the members of the syndicate. Last month when the market for American Trust was being manipulated for the purpose of bringing about consolidation for the present deal, the stock was pushed up to $505 a share, this record being reached on March 7. Since then it has declined, until yesterday it sold at $475.

There was a good deal of comment yesterday on the wording of the receipts given for subscriptions for the new American Trust stock. One clause in the receipt reads as follows: "This negotiable receipt is issued and received upon the condition that the holder and owner thereof shall not, by reason of the issue and holding of the same, become a stockholder in, or participate in the privileges and rights of a stockholder of the American Trust Company of Pittsburgh, until after June 1, 1903, and the actual issue and delivery to the owner hereof, or assignee, hereunder of this receipt of the stock of said trust company necessary to redeem the same." It is not improbable that some complications will arise in making transfers of American Trust Company stock recently dealt in on the exchange. The transfer books of the company have been closed since March 20. Yesterday one of these new negotiable receipts was tendered for delivery by a brokerage house who had bought American Trust stock, and the receipt was refused on the ground that it did not constitute a good delivery, inasmuch as the holder thereof was denied the rights and privileges of a stockholder in the company. The owner of an original certificate of American Trust stated that he had been requested to turn the same in and exchange a negotiable receipt for a request which he did not entirely understand.

Peoples' National bank yesterday sold at $460 a share, an advance of $30 a share, and within $20 a share of the record price quoted last September. The advance in the stock last year was based upon the fact that a large institution had manifested its desire to buy the Peoples National. The proposition was at that time submitted to the directors, who decided that the bank was not for sale. When this decision became known, the market value of the stock declined. The present advance is construed as indicating that negotiations may have been reopened.

For several days past a rumor has been current that a syndicate stood ready to pay $1,000 a share for a controlling interest in the First National bank. This rumor could not be traced to any reliable source, but yesterday officials of the First National emphatically denied that there was any deal in contemplation so far as the larger stockholders of the bank are concerned, or that any offer had been made for a controlling interest. The First National feels a worthy pride in its position in this community, and there is hardly a remote possibility that its status will be changed through the negotiation of any deal.

At the opening of the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday there was some friendly rivalry among brokers for the honor of posting the first transaction in the new home of the exchange. The distinction fell to Arthur Davis, representing George B. Hill & Co., and N. P. Evans, representing Henry Sproat & Co., the latter selling to the former a block of 300 shares Pittsburgh Coal at 28⅛.

Anchor Savings bank was bid up to 305 on the local board yesterday as a record price, and advanced to 481 bid at the close of the market.

Diamond National bank sold at 480, a record price, and advanced to 481 bid at the close of the market.

Quotations on Iron City National bank were subject to some manipulation just before the close. The price was bid up to 155, or $5 over the price at which control was bought, and subsequently offered at 154, without any stock changing hands.

Pittsburgh stock exchange seats made a new record the first day the exchange occupied its new quarters. R. C. Hall selling a seat to John Renwick at $14,000, an advance of $1,000 over the last previous sale, and the highest price ever quoted.

Continental Trust was quoted at 105 bid, 110 asked.

Ohio Fuel Supply sold at 43 ex-dividend.

Marine National bank advanced to 145 bid, and was held at 180. A director of the bank said that several interests were apparently anxious to obtain control, but there was nothing new in connection therewith.

The price paid for control of the Germania Savings bank by the American Trust syndicate has never been announced, and the secret is closely held. Street gossip yesterday placed the figures all the way from $700 to $1,200 a share.

The directors of the Consolidated Ice Company have declared a dividend of 1¼ per cent out of the earnings of the last quarter on the preferred stock, payable to stockholders of record April 10. The books will be closed from April 10 to 20 inclusive.

Net earnings of Norfolk & Western for February increase $64,394.

The gross earnings of 15 roads for the last week in March increased 12.86 per cent.

Gross earnings of Iowa Central for March decreased $13,509.

The treasury is adjusting as rapidly as possible the cases sent in under the refunding scheme. The amount paid out is between 5 and 6 per cent which, with the bonds turned in, when all are adjusted to date, would be about $700,000. The actual adjustments to date amount to $2,788,100.

There have been as high as 22,000 shareholders of record on the books of the Amalgamated Copper Company, and at the present time there are about 20,000 shareholders registered. As many thousands of people have been "shaken out of Amalgamated," it is probably safe to assume that next to the United States Steel Corporation more people in the United States have been interested in the Amalgamated copper speculation or have been shareholders in its fortunes than in any other stock ever distributed or promoted in this country.

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon the Union National bank of Braddock was organized with a capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $50,000. The directors elected are J. H. Coffee Market.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The market for coffee futures opened irregular at a decline of from 5 to 15 points and ruled fairly active under continued bullish sentiment over the lower European cables and liberal receipts. There were also rumors that the bull clique were unloading, but the selling, which seemed to be chiefly local, failed to bring out heavy out this theory, and the market was steadied by the covering of shorts, notably importers. Various spot interests were buying also and this in connection with partial recovery at Havre closed the local market steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 10 points. Sales were 35,750 bags, including April at 3.80c; May at 3.85@3.90c; June at 3.90@3.95c; July at 4.05@4.10c; August, 4.10@4.20c; September, 4.25@4.30c; October, 4.30@4.35c; November, 4.40c; December, 4.60@4.65c; January, 4.65c; March, 4.85c.

Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Outside of a moderate sale of drills for export, the drygoods market has lacked features. Prices show no indication of weakness on the general market, although here and there where it is evident that contracts are beginning to run out, sellers show a disposition to negotiate for the future.

WEST PENN GETS TWO PROPERTIES

Railroad Also Started to Close Up Its List of Options in Sharpsburg.

$27,000 ALLEGHENY SALE

Oakland Corner Brings $27,000. Two Penn Avenue Lots Change Hands—Big Houses in Demand for Renting.

The West Penn Railroad Company has made its final cash payment in two Sharpsburg properties for which it paid $37,000. The larger one is known as the "Millkeisler pond" and lies between Main street and the Allegheny river, and extends from Fourteenth to Sixteenth streets. It has a frontage of about 250 feet on Main street and includes five acres, which brought $30,000. The other property belonged to Mrs. E. J. Campbell and was bought for $7,000. It comprises about two acres at the corner of Sixteenth street and the Allegheny river.

These two deals are the first of the 20 or more that the railroad company started in Sharpsburg in March. Most of the options expire between April 10 and April 20, and it is expected that the properties will be taken over at this time. In Aspinwall where the West Penn bought over 20 residence properties, several of them worth from $15,000 to $25,000, the owners were given a 60-day moving notice about a week ago. This indicates that the company expects to begin operations on its tracks in that section early in the summer.

BROKE OUT IN A NEW SQUARE.

Allegheny property again came into notice yesterday with the sale of the Eccles B. Mercer holdings at No. 514 Federal street for $27,000. The buyer is R. A. Saxton, who is supposed to have bought the property for Frank McCann through H. C. Mendel & Co. As the lot measures only 18.5x80 feet the price, $1,460 a front foot, is a record breaker for Federal street, with one exception, that of the Allegheny Trust Company property, which was bought by J. Walter Hay at the same rate. The Mercer lot is situated across the street from Boggs & Buhl's and has a three-story brick building on it.

Another Oakland corner changed hands yesterday for $21,000, or $56 a foot, on the Forbes street frontage. It was the John Ritzman property at the northwest corner of Forbes street and Oakland avenues, and consists of a lot 20x65 feet and improved with a three-story brick and a two-story frame house. The buyer's name was not learned, but it is rumored that it was Ernest F. Rusch, who bought the opposite corner a few days ago.

Two more deals in outer Penn avenue have been articled for. The F. Stack property, a lot 24x100 feet, at No. 1613, has been sold to J. Barney for $14,000, and the Nancy Morison lot, 17x100 feet, at No. 1615, has also changed hands for $10,000, the buyer's name not being known.

LARGE HOUSES IN GOOD DEMAND.

A peculiar condition is confronting renting agents this spring, the scarcity of high-class residences for rent. Generally houses that rent from $75 a month up are not in such demand that they cannot be easily supplied, for persons who can afford to pay such rentals prefer to buy or build a residence to suit themselves. This year, however, there are many inquiries for houses of this class. One broker who was asked by a wealthy business man to find him a large center hall house with the modern conveniences, found after a thorough search among the real estate offices only one such house for rent in the city. Another broker who has had on his list four 12-room center hall houses in the East End has refused several offers of $150 a month for them, as the owner built them last year for sale and will not rent them, as it deteriorates considerably from the selling value of a new house. As long as good times continue the man who builds substantial and tasty houses that will sell at from $40,000 to $25,000 each, is likely to have no trouble in renting them if he prefers that to selling.

In the rooming districts the rush for large houses continues, although moving day is past. The furnishing of roomy houses in central locations to women who make a business of keeping roomers and boarders has become so profitable that some renting agencies in Allegheny have devoted nearly all their time to it for a month. The number of applicants was never so large and this has encouraged the owners to hold off until the last minute before signing a lease, a procedure which practically amounted to auctioning off the lease.

EAST END TRASACTIONS.

In the Nineteenth ward the Kelly-Woods Real Estate Company sold for P. H. Trembly to Chloe J. Hubbard a brick House with lot 40x120 feet, on the south side of Black street, near Negley avenue, for $14,000, and Christian F. Schaefer sold to Frank Thompson of McKees Rocks a similar house on lot 40x118 feet on the south side of Homer street for $10,000.

F. P. Nicola and Wilbur Shenk have bought from David Moffett a property 40x53 feet, in Maddocks place, Fourth ward, for $13,500.

Wilkinsburg is experiencing a building boom, this season that has for its purpose to relieve the demand for houses and flats. In the offices of Milligan & Miller bids are being taken on the four-story apartment house of W. J. Tuffner, at the corner of Penn and Ross streets, which will cost $25,000. The same architects have plans for a $10,000 brick residence for J. E. Riehl in Braddock avenue, and for a $7,000 house for Mr. Stroup in Hill street. They also have been commissioned to prepare plans for the chapel which the First Presbyterian church of Wilkinsburg will build in Shady avenue at a cost of $10,000.

The St. Clair building at the corner of Penn avenue and Wood street, Wilkinsburg, is to be enlarged by the addition of three stories, for which plans are now being drawn by Architects A. A. Dugan & Son. They also have plans for a three-story apartment house for Alexander Gardner in Ross street, to cost $6,000.

The Pittsburgh bureau of building inspection issued the following permits yesterday:

T. B. Moreland, frame two-story, Sheridan avenue, Nineteenth ward, $7,000; Anton Napotnik, same, same, $3,200; Preston avenue, Thirteenth ward, $2,500; W. A. Thomas, brick veneered apartment house, Negley avenue and Eva street, Twentieth ward, $20,000; Thomas Day, stable, south side of Dohald street, Twenty-first ward, $1,100.

SUGAR QUOTATIONS AGAIN REDUCED

Wholesalers Make a Decline of 10 Points—Package Coffee Down a Half Cent.

Several blows were struck yesterday in the war on the sugar question, and the matter is apparently farther away from a settlement than ever. Jobbers of this city met and decided to make a decline of ten points, which goes into effect this morning, making the basis 4.90 for granulated, and no one will say that this is the end. Ohio and West Virginia wholesalers are getting the advantage of Pennsylvania in price, as refiners are selling in the states mentioned 20 points lower than to wholesalers in this state. This is the condition Pittsburgh jobbers have to meet. It would have been met by allowing outside wholesalers to take the sugar there rather than sell at a loss, but the jobbers of this city could have been lined up together, but this could not be done, and cutting commenced. It is now expected that before many days there will be a reduction made by refiners which will bring the list down as low for this state as for Ohio and West Virginia. This will not stop the fight, however, and the cut of yesterday is followed by others.

Arbuckles made another half cent cut in package coffee yesterday, which the Lion people followed. This is an echo of the sugar battle.

Conditions in the hay and grain market at the opening of business yesterday were changed but little from those ruling at the close on Saturday. Hay remains firm at prices which have prevailed for over a week. White corn and oats are easy at recent declines, demand being limited and the market showing very little activity. Receipts yesterday were larger than for some time, but say Pittsburgh dealers, in arrivals without finishing, and quotations are as firm as ever. Oats are fairly steady, and the situation is about as it was last week.

Canned tomatoes are showing further weakness, and prices for standards are lower, 92½ cents being now quoted as the lowest notation. Canned apples are firmer, the demand which formerly existed for these goods. Canned corn is very firm, and fancy brands are higher. Canned apples are lower. Evaporated apples are also offering below figures formerly prevailing, while other dried fruits remain unchanged.

The only change made in produce was a decline in string beans, due to poor arrivals, with some accumulation of good stock. The heavy frost of Sunday morning did considerable damage to growing vegetables in this section and Southern points are depended upon instead of the Wheeling Gas Company, as previously reported, is good for 100 barrels a day.

In the Bristoria field, Greene county, Pa., the Southern Oil Com has drilled in a test on the James Hughes farm and has developed a strong gas pressure.

In the "Little Germany" district, Marshall county, the test well on the Gertrude Hawkling farm, owned by the Eclipse Oil Company, instead of the Wheeling Gas Company, as previously reported, is good for 100 barrels a day.

In the new development south of Knoxville, Jefferson county, the Tri-State Gas Company and C. M. Crawford have drilled in No. 3 on the John Cooper farm and have a show for a handsome producer. In Perry township, this county, Gilchrist & Miller have completed a test on the Sloan Bros.' farm and have a duster.

BETTER TONE PREVAILS IN CHICAGO GRAIN PITS

Wheat Prices Slightly Higher at Close—Corn and Oats Unchanged.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, April 6.—The early news was decidedly against the wheat market, the amount on passage showing a large increase, with a liberal increase in the world's shipments, together with weak foreign markets. Under these influences there was a heavy liquidation in May at the start and opening prices were lower. Favorable weather aided to the weakness. Pit traders were the early buyers, but later in the day the market was given active support by the Armour interests, who are reported as having taken on 1,000,000 bushels of the July during the latter part of the session. The firmness resulting from this demand was made more pronounced by the decrease of 1,223,000 bushels in the visible supply, which caused a strong tone late in the day, the close being at the top. Primary receipts were 623,000 bushels, against 316,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 391 cars, which with local receipts of 65 cars, none of contract grade, made total receipts for the three points of 456 cars, against 168 cars last week and 287 cars a year ago.

Trading in corn was light and there was no change of importance in prices. The opening was easier, in sympathy with wheat, but the early loss was all regained, and the market ruled steady the latter part of the day. Local receipts were 117 cars, with none of contract grade.

Oats were exceedingly dull and eased off slightly in sympathy with other grains. The trading was principally by scalpers and the market lacked any special features. The weather was more favorable for seeding, but local traders were still bullish on the crop situation. May closed unchanged. Local receipts were 123 cars.

Provisions started weak on a 5c decline in the price of hogs, but covering of shorts and buying of ribs by packers changed the sentiment and caused a strong undertone. The volume of trade was small.

Estimated receipts for Tuesday: Wheat, 35 cars; corn, 240 cars; oats, 160 cars; hogs, 18,000 head.

No market tomorrow on account of election.

REVIEW OF THE PLAYS

Alvin—"King Dodo."

AN audience that filled the Alvin theater last night welcomed this absurd monarch of Pixley and Luders's imagination. It was an audience hungry for a musical show, weary of the drama and its thirst for catchy music, comic opera jokes and feminine shapeliness. It got all these without getting anything specially new in the musical comedy line. King Dodo has been holding court in various and sundry cities for nearly two years. His fame preceded him to Pittsburgh, and this, together with the aforesaid hunger, accounted for the audience. The Luders music is delightful, full of swinging rythm, chirpy duets and quartettes, romantic solos, and the kind of orchestration that goes well with fleshly maidens who carry spears and march in bewildering convolutions. Of Rex Smith's book there is much to be said, but enough for praise. He is immeasurably funny with his jests. His make-up is his forte of fun. Mr. Pixley's book does not yield a rich supply of new jokes, but Richmond is independent of the book. He has a trick of a funny grimace, a chuckle in the way he walks and a roar of laughter in his attempt to look thoughtful. He is not "horsey" or is he superabundantly original, but he has the gift of comedy make-up and the comedian sense. As we have said, the book is not especially brilliant or original. "I feel like the first syllable of a telephone call," says Dodo. Again, he was asked to be the little girl baby of my friend Wood. "I felt like saying, Helen Agusta Wood." These are some of the humorous. But Richmond is amazingly clever in his own farcial sort of way.

Miss Cherldah Simpson, who plays a double role, has a pretty combination of female shapeliness and sings with a voice that carries its trills off into melodious cascade that fairly thrills you. In a song, backed on either side by flights of boy girls in white with gold armor, bearing white tasselled spears, this Hebe captured the largest share of enthusiastic applause. The evolutions of the maidens were bewilderingly beautiful and given with military precision. Especially admirable was the manner of Dodo. The tale of the bumblebee was told with melodious charm, to which the gallery caught on in whistling accompaniment. The lyrics are all good, and the music moments the character of the book. If you have heard "The Burgomaster" you will know what this means. Miss Flora Zabelle is a dainty little lady in the Dodo train that pleased both the eye with her gracefulness and the ear with her voice. Joseph Wolf, using Miss Margaret McKinley's role of Angela Greta Risley is an imposing Queen of Swoopini Islands. Arthur Wooley, Ivar Anderson, William Corliss and a splendid chorus helped along the fun and music. Scenery and costumes are beautiful, especially of the aforesaid lovely damsels of whom there is several score.

Grand—"The Children of the Ghetto."

ISRAEL ZANGWELL'S play of Jewish life is an interesting story without in any way being a great play. The theme is overburdened not only with rabbinical and ceremonial law that there are times when the interest lags, but with it the writer has given a story of appealing interest and considerable dramatic power. The characters are wholly Jewish, except the man in the last act, who serves as a contrary of ghetto types. A young Jewish merchant in a moment of fun places a ring on the finger of a girl, daughter of the chief rabbi of the Ghetto. Under traditional law she becomes his wife, but her father, seeing a better match, a rabbi and does produce "get" or divorce, and the matter is forgotten. The girl afterward falls in love with a young liberal Jew, David Brandon, and the lover's consent is gained to the marriage. But as the three are about to celebrate the betrothal with a glass of wine, to fetch which the daughter has left the room, the old rabbi stumbles upon the love conversation that Brandon is in the Apostle prisoned and by the Talmudic decree is forbidden to marry a divorced woman. After partly yielding to her lover's entreaties to marry him in spite of the law of the Ghetto, the young Jewish girl is finally overcome with religious scruples and sends him away.

The story is pathetic, appealing and in moments rises to real dramatic intensity. The stock company does not attempt to do with them the leading roles them lies within its power. William Beach plays the role of Rob Shemuel the rabbi, with slightly if not impressiveness. His enunciation is so smooth, never going below the surface, but in his make-up and general appearance capably alongside the general tone of the interpretation. Mr. Abbe's poet, Pinchas, is at times overdrawn. Zangwill meant no caricature, and his Jewish poet is not of vaudeville extraction, yet Mr. Abbe drops into it in one section. The section is undesirable, but the idea is out of harmony with the character wrought by Zangwill. One of the very best things in the production is Allie Gale's Melka, the leader of her clan and a shrewd, kindly Jewish mother and business woman. Another small, but vividly fine character study, is miss Violet Randt's Esther Austell. It is but a little part, but there is much pathos in the child life of the Ghetto. Mr. Ingersoll's David Brandon and the Hannah of Miss Taylor are conventionally well done. In the dramatic scene, when the impossibility of marriage between the two is revealed, the acting was of merit. Mr. Ingersoll carried off the frenzy and dismay of the disappointed lover and half despiser of the narrow boundaries of his old religious faith with true spirit and realism. Miss Frances Cummings is charming as Leah, Melka's daughter, and Mrs. Fred Gray's Mrs. Selcovitch, though a little crude, is amusingly portrayed. Mr. Greenleaf, Mr. Dalton, Mr. Underwood and the rest of the cast contribute fairly creditable support. The play has been lightened in tone and its spirit lifted somewhat from the deeply religious spirit that it was intended it should reflect, and which characterized it in its first production. The stage accessories are excellent, and the audience greeted the play to enjoy immensely the performance, which, taken as a whole, is admirably entertaining. The character types are much more successfully portrayed than in "Resurrection," and the entire atmosphere is more in keeping with the purpose and intent of the theme.

Empire—"Rudolph and Adolph."

THE POPULAR entertainers, Mason and Mason, are the star attractions at the Empire theater this week. Their three-act farcial melange, "Rudolph and Adolph," was presented last night to a crowded house for the first time in Pittsburgh and made a big hit. Dan Mason, as Rudolph Dinkelspiel, the horse doctor, and Charles A. Mason, as the ladies' tailor, were admirably funny and were regarded as being the source of amusing incidents subsequent to the mistakes made by their wives in identifying them evoked peal after peal of laughter. Magda Henry Soy proved to be an ideal scolding wife of 50 summers. Her disagreements with her husband were lustrous in the extreme. Bessie Phillips, as Lena Gilbert, a soubrette, was a general favorite, and her songs and dancing were delightful. The chorus girls were neatly attired and did some clever posing. The piano imitations of Fred Walz in the last act were splendidly executed. This he was called five times before the audience was satisfied. Some of the songs that caught the audience were "My Dusky Lou," "Loveland," "Win and Spoon," and "Deutsche Lieder" by Rudolph and Adolph. The latter were German renditions of the latest popular songs. All in all, Mason and Mason are a team whose acting will readily drive away the blues.

Bijou—"Why Women Sin."

THEATERGOERS who delight in sensational melodrama, with the accompaniment of tears, gunplay and "ranny," will find nothing to whet jaded appetites in Will C. Murphy's play, "Why Women Sin," which is the current attraction at the Bijou. Murphy's product is a commonplace piece with the usual stereotyped dialogue of plays of that sort. There is much more action on the billboards, that advertise the show, than in the production itself. The playwright does not find a new solution for the problem "why women sin," and for that matter the title of the play might as well have been "Why Women Wear Feathers In Their Hats." There is a whole lot of entertainment for people who like to shiver at the rage snort and to listen to the weird strains of low music, and it would be unjust to say that the Bijou patrons did not appreciate the play. Unfortunately during the snowstorm the trees painted on the canvas background were represented in the rich green verdure of mid summer. But the audience enjoyed it all the same, blissfully unconscious of the clash of seasons.

Avenue—Vaudeville.

IT is very possible that there are a very few men in Pittsburgh—outer circles have them in the scores—who can appreciate and vouch for the true-to-life portrayal of early married life which is put on the stage at the Avenue this week. Granting that the majority of the men in the theater last night laughed at the performance because they saw how cleverly it hit off the other fellow's matrimonial misfortunes they enjoyed it immensely. Housekeeping, such as would drive an orderly man to destruction; cooking, which would make him a skeleton; a domestic atmosphere that stifles him with its discomforts—these are only a few of the annoyances to which the young husband in Valerie Berger & Co. is subjected. Valerie herself hits off the handsome wife of many fads to a turn and the whole performance was roundly applauded. For tumbling, genuine new stunts, Wilton Brothers kept up the record of excellent athletic work that they have made this season. A bit of very good acting at the piano is done by the Carter DeHaven Trio, who are also justly famous for their dancing. A fair amount of fun and the usual amount of ragtime singing, together with a stereotyped wonderful acts of the contortionists, Flint and Flint, made up an evening of interesting vaudeville.

Duquesne—Vaudeville.

"BILL BIFFIN'S BABY," is the title of a delightful little one-act comedy enacted by Will Cressy and Blanche Dayne, at the Duquesne theater this week. The comedy work of Mr. Cressy is of a high order and a refreshing change from the usual overdrawn characters in vaudeville sketches. That inimitable pair of comedians, Carleton and Terre, have not deprived their sketch of its special charm their last visit in the early part of the season. Billy Van, the minstrel man, made his usual hit and Swan and Bambard present some excellent comedy in connection with difficult, new and grotesque acrobatic feats. The audience was kept in continuous laughter during the farce by Klingsley and Lewis. "After the Honeymoon," and Loney Hoskell's monologue and imitations were well received. Hal Merrill's department store character imitations are superior to anything of the sort seen here this season. Billy Clifford is the same clean cut, genial dude comedian as of yore. He has one good song and several good jokes.

Academy—Al Reeves' Show.

WHEN Al. Reeves' big burlesque company comes to the Academy the patrons of that house know they will get a burlesque entertainment of entertaining character. The show is largely what has been seen here before. There are, however, two new burlettas, the first of which is excellent, but the concluding one is a little off. The American quartet sing as well as ever, while dainty Louise Auber is pretty and her act is one of the best on the bill. The audience enjoyed the old faces under new condition in several instances, and Al Reeves himself is a host of fun, of which Pittsburghers never grow tired.

Critical Time for Weakly Persons.

This is the worst month in the year for lung complaints. If consumptives and weakly persons can pass through March and April they are carried safe for another year at least.

The use of Speer's Port Grape Wine is well known to have been the means of prolonging the lives of thousands until this critical period has passed when their chances of becoming entirely well and strong is assured.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER CURED BY BLOOD WINE

Mrs. Emily Cote, cor. Maple and Lowell sts. Manchester, N. H., says:

"I can truthfully say those awful pains of neuralgia which nearly drove my poor head distracted have entirely disappeared and I am positive 'Blood Wine' cured me."

Robertine Cote, Manchester, N. H., says:

"I am sixteen years old and have lately been troubled with painful periods. My mother (see above) said it was my age but finally as I suffered intensely she made me try 'Blood Wine.' I found it eased my pain and now when I feel the pain coming on I take a few doses of 'Blood Wine' and get great relief."

"Blood Wine" is a boon to suffering womanhood. It quiets the nerves, soothes and cures the aching head and by its peculiar action on the blood regulates and strengthens the natural functions. No wine—no opiates—absolutely pure. Fifty cents a bottle.

Mrs. Weisslitz, president of the German Womans' Club of Buffalo, N. Y., after doctoring for two years, was finally cured of her kidney trouble by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Of all the diseases known with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless prompt and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that dreaded disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women.

Read What Mrs. Weisslitz Says.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For two years my life was simply a burden, I suffered so with female troubles, and pains across my back and loins. The doctor told me that I had kidney troubles and prescribed for me. For three months I took his medicines, but grew steadily worse. My husband then advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought home a bottle. It is the greatest blessing ever brought to our home. Within three months I was a changed woman. My pain had disappeared, my complexion became clear, my eyes bright, and my entire system in good shape."—MRS. PAULA WEISSLITZ, 178 Seneca St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Proof that Kidney Trouble can be Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel very thankful to you for the good your medicine has done me. I had doctored for years and was steadily growing worse. I had trouble with my kidneys, and two doctors told me I had Bright's disease; also had falling of the womb, and could not walk a block at a time. My back and head ached all the time, and I was so nervous I could not sleep; had hysteria and fainting spells, was tired all the time, had such a pain in my left side that I could hardly stand at times without putting my foot on something.

"I doctored with several good doctors, but they did not help me any. I took, in all, twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, five boxes of Liver Pills, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and feel like a new woman, can eat and sleep well, do all my own work, and can walk two miles without feeling over tired. The doctors tell me that my kidneys are all right now. I am so happy to be well, and I feel that I owe it all to your medicine."—MRS. OPAL STRONG, Dalton, Mass.

The Crowning Event of the Liveliest Silk Selling This Store Has Ever Seen

Sale Starts Today.

BLACK TAFFETAS don't go a-begging for buyers this year. Not by any manner of means. So brisk the demand that many a store is glad to replenish its stock at advancing prices. These lovely silks are in urgent demand for coats, skirts, waists, linings and entire costumes.

That's why this announcement will spring a sensation.

A Silk mill in New York, a big jobbing house and a store in another city got into a complication. We took a hand in the transaction, and, as luck would have it, got possession of twenty pieces of fine black Taffetas that are treasures at this time. They come in two widths, with a guarantee of goodness in the words "WARRANTED TO WEAR" woven on the selvage of every yard. We know the silk mill that made them so well and so favorably that we take no risk in backing up their guarantee with our own indorsement. The dye is perfect, brilliant and fixed; the silk heavy and even in thread; the surface rich, free from knots and undefaced by imperfections.

AND THE PRICE—that's where the stirring feature comes in.

TEN PIECES (about 600 yards) are heavy guaranteed black Taffetas, 27 inches wide, whose real honest worth and selling price all over town is $1.00 a yard. These you get for..... 75c

TEN PIECES (about 600 yards) are identical with the 27-inch kind in color, quality and texture, but their width is 36 inches and the retail price at most stores $1.35. Yours for..... $1.00

We will send samples to out-of-town people, but cannot say positively that we will fill orders at these prices. The last yard may be gone before we hear from you concerning your wishes.

(No. 656.)

AN ORDINANCE—Granting the Ohio Connecting Railway Company the right of way from its oridge over the Ohio river to a point in the northerly city line at or near Jacks run, Allegheny city, Pennsylvania, with the right to cross intervening streets, alleys and highways in the city of Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

Whereas, By an agreement between the city of Allegheny, the P. F. & C. Passenger, and the Ohio Connecting Railway Company, dated July 15th, 1889, provision was made for the construction of bridges over Preble avenue and McClure avenue, in the Eleventh ward of the city of Allegheny, also for the construction of a subway duct with approaches over the tracks at the crossing of Verner road; and,

Whereas, An agreement was made, November 1st, 1901, between the city of Allegheny and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway, providing for the elevation, change, re-location and depression of said railway in said city, and providing for the subway for the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway and the Ohio Connecting railway at McClure avenue; and,

Whereas, It is necessary and desirable in connection with the execution and carrying out of the last mentioned agreement that the track or tracks of the Ohio Connecting railway be re-located and its elevation changed where it crosses the intervening streets; now, therefore,

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the Ohio Connecting Railway Company, its successors and assigns, be and it is hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon, re-locate, maintain and operate for itself, its successors and assigns, a standard gauge railway of one or more tracks, on, over, along or under the streets and alleys and upon the property of the city, as hereinafter set forth, on the following route, to-wit: Beginning at a point at the northerly or easterly bank of the Ohio river, where the Ohio Connecting railway crosses said river; thence following in an easterly and northerly direction over substantially the same route upon which the Ohio Connecting railway and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway are now built to the northerly city line of Allegheny city, at Jacks run.

Sec. 2. (a) The said track or tracks shall be constructed and maintained across Preble avenue at an elevation of not less than thirty (30) feet over Preble avenue. (b) The said track or tracks shall be constructed and maintained across McClure avenue in such manner as to give a clear height of not less than the grade fixed in the contract between the city of Allegheny and the Pennsylvania Company, dated November 1st, 1901, of not less than fifteen (15) feet, and the length of the structures over the street shall not be less than fifty (50) feet. (c) That in case the Ohio Connecting Railway Company finds that it is to its interest to temporarily cross over McClure avenue about the same location as the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway, but over said railway, it is hereby granted the right so to do, and also is granted the right to revise its location over McClure avenue in the future, keeping the railway on the over property on the northern and south sides of McClure avenue, Provided, however, that in no case shall the clearance over McClure avenue be less than fifteen (15) feet for said Ohio Connecting railway structure. (d) That when the said railway company secures the necessary additional right of way the said track or tracks may be constructed and maintained over Spruce street extended to the north side of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway at such an elevation as to permit of Spruce street so extended north to pass under said track or tracks of the Ohio Connecting railway with a clearance of not less than twelve (12) feet. The width of said opening under the tracks for Spruce street to be not less than thirty (30) feet.

Sec. 3. That when the said Ohio Connecting Railway Company secures the necessary right of way, that the said railway company be and is hereby authorized and empowered in lieu of the present Verner road from Spruce street to Davis avenue, to substitute a new street northerly thereof, as shown on plan attached hereto marked "Exhibit A." The width of said street to be forty (40) feet and the grade to be substantially the same as present street. Said railway company shall at its own cost reconstruct and extend Spruce street viaduct in case the same be necessary, in lieu of the present viaduct where it crosses the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway and the Ohio Connecting railway, the grades on said reconstructed viaduct to be no steeper than on the present viaduct or its approach.

Sec. 4. The said railway company shall at its own cost reconstruct and re-locate Verner road, between Spruce street and Davis avenue, in lieu of the present road, and shall assume all costs and expenses, including all damages to property legally assessed in connection therewith, and shall save the city free and harmless from any and all claims or demands for damages arising from or out of the re-location of said road; and when said road is re-located, the city shall vacate so much of the present road as is needed for the reconstruction of the Ohio Connecting railway.

Sec. 5. The Ohio Connecting Railway Company shall pay for all private property taken, including damage to property legally sustained by reason of the reconstruction of its railway or the operation of cars over same, and further agrees to indemnify and keep the city of Allegheny harmless from all claims for damages to private property by reason of this ordinance.
